Know all men by these presents,

That I, Frederick Kniep of No. 29 Whitehall St City of New York, am the holder and owner of a certain liquor license granted by the Board of Excise of the City of New York on the 2d day of December 1895, No. 3881, upon premises No. 29 Whitehall St in the city of New York, which said license was granted under and by virtue of Chapter 401 of the Laws of 1892, known as the Excise Law, and the Acts amendatory thereof,

To have and to hold, with all benefits, profits and advantages thereof, unto the said Consumers Brewing Co of N.Y. successors and assigns, in as full and beneficial manner as I, by virtue of the said license, may or might have if this assignment had not been made; and I hereby make, constitute and appoint the above named assignee my true and lawful attorney irrevocably, to demand, sue for, collect and receive in my name or otherwise, but at the said assignee's own proper cost and expense, any and all moneys which are due or shall hereafter become due from the City of New York upon the said license, or by reason of the termination or surrender thereof, and to execute and deliver any quittance, receipt, satisfaction of judgment or other document which may be good and sufficient, or requisite or proper for that purpose.

And I, as an inducement for the payment of the consideration hereinbefore referred to, hereby state, represent and warrant that I am the sole and exclusive owner of the said license and all rights and claims accruing thereunder, and that neither the said license nor the claim hereby assigned has been previously assigned, hypothecated, or in any wise encumbered.
