Examination Before Justice Smith
July 10 1886

George W. Blount, the complaining witness, being duly sworn and examined by the court deposes and says:-

Q What do you know about these premises 117 West 24th Street?

A I went to that house with a lady on the 7th of this month.

Q Who was the woman?

A A lady by the name of Wilson,

Q Was she a prostitute?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Whom did you see there?

A I asked for a room and this lady here gave me a room.

Q Did you pay her for it?

A She said two dollars and I paid her two dollars and she let me have the top floor back room.

Q What did you do when you

- went there?
- A. I went there for the purpose of ascertaining some evidence to see whether it was an assignation house or not.
- Q. Did you see any person about the premises?
- A. At the time I went in - Yes Sir - not in the room I got.
- Q. In the building?
- A. Yes, Sir.
- Q. Who were they?
- A. A gentleman and lady sitting in the back room.
- Q. Did you know them?
- A. No, Sir.
- Q. Did you know the defendant?
- A. I saw her there.
- Q. Do you know anything of the character of the persons who frequent the place?
- A. No, Sir.
- Q. All that you know about the house is you going there with this woman?
- A. Yes, Sir.
- Q. Did you have any conversation with the defendant at that time about the room?
- A. Yes, Sir.
- Q. What was it?
- A. She asked me who sent me.

there. I told her that a friend of mine sent me. She asked me who it was. I said it was a man named Reagan belonging to the 22nd Regiment.

Q - Did you tell her what you wanted the room for

A - I told her "to stop a little while"

Q - Have you stated the whole conversation?

A - She said she wanted to know what kind of a looking man he was; to give her a description; that he might be a gentleman who was there the other night. The conversation stopped with that. He went up stairs and came down and told me the room was ready. I then paid her two dollars. I then went up stairs with the woman and went to bed for an hour or three quarters, when I came down stairs. When I got there I asked the defendant for one of her cards and she gave it to me.

Q - Did you have connection with the woman there?

A - Yes.

Q - More than once?

(objected to)

Cross examined by Mr. McClelland.

Q You are an officer?

A Yes

Q Did you get your instructions from anybody?

A Yes

Q From whom?

A My superior officer Captain Williams

Q — Did he tell you to go into this house of assignation and have sexual intercourse with a prostitute in order to ascertain whether the house was used for the purpose of fornication?

A No, Sir; he did not.

Q He merely told you to go?

A I thought that the best way to get evidence

Q You thought that the best way to get evidence?

A Yes.

Q Are you married?

A Yes — for twenty years.

Q Anything else?

A No — that is all.

Officer George <sup>M.</sup> Krowl, 20th Precinct being sworn says: On October 31/86 about 8.45 P.M. I was on post on 32nd St and 9th Ave, when I heard some people call out that the prisoner John Lamb had stabbed a boy. The prisoner was coming toward me at the time, I started after him about 1/2 the block between 32nd & 33rd St, as I approached near the people called out to me to look out for a knife. When I had got close on to him I grabbed both his arms from behind and held him. I asked him where the knife was and he did not answer. I searched his pocket and found the knife (produced) in his pants pocket. I saw that there was fresh blood on it, I opened it and shut it again. I put it into my pocket and hurried the prisoner to the drug store where the deceased was lying — a distance of two blocks — to have him recognized, but just as I got to the store the doctor pronounced the deceased dead. I took the prisoner to the Station House, where he was locked up. He was taken to Court the next morning (Jefferson Market Court) where he was held without bail. The prisoner was under the influence of liquor when I arrested him.

On Oct 30/86 about <sup>bet.</sup> 8.30 + 8.45 Pm I was sitting in my store at 502 W. 34th St. when my attention was drawn by the cry of "Police". I went to my door, & as I got there I saw the deceased James Conlon having the defendant by the coat collar pushing him past my door, when the deceased & the defendant got up the street at a little I went to the corner with the intention of kicking the deceased & putting him away from the defendant. When I got within 8 or 10 feet of them I saw the defendant make a backward plunge and the deceased cried aloud "I'm stabbed". The deceased ran to the middle of the street. I followed him, I saw him saturated with blood. The defendant went up 34th St. I followed him at a distance of 30 to 40 feet. He turned down 9th Ave. from 34th St. Some boys ran ahead of defendant and told the officer on post at 9th Ave + 32nd St that a man had stabbed a boy. The Officer came up, got a hold of defendant. I am sure the defendant now in Court is the person who did the stabbing. The deceased handled the defendant pretty roughly, he pushed him about 75 feet past my store, there was no crowd when I first saw the deceased + defendant. The defendant was under the influence of liquor at the time.

POLICE COURT,

DISTRICT.

Subscribing Policeman George Frank age 27 years of No. the 20th Street Police Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says that on the 30th day of October 1886

at the City of New York, in the County of New York, John Lamb (now here)

did, by an act immovably dangerous to others and evincing a depraved mind regardless of human life, kill a human being by name James Corbin with a knife, by cutting and slitting the said James Corbin in the abdomen with said knife which the said John Lamb then and there held in his hand - as deponent has been informed and for the following reasons truly believes.

Frank

That deponent has been informed by Harry Secker of No 445-10th St., that about the hour of 8.45 P.M. on the above date he saw the defendant John Lamb and the deceased James Corbin in 34th Street near 10th Avenue, that the deceased James Corbin had a hold of the defendant John Lamb by the coat collar with one hand and was leading him through 34th Street; that immediately on reaching the corner of 10th Avenue and 34th Street he saw the defendant John Lamb make a movement as though drawing something from his pants pocket and at the same instant the said John Lamb defendant struck the deceased James Corbin with the hand with which he had made the above described movement in the abdomen and followed said blow with an upward movement of said hand as though ripping - and immediately thereafter the deceased James Corbin called out and expirations.

For

That deponent is further informed by George M. Fox of No 53rd West 34th Street that about the hour of 8.45 P.M. on the above date, he was seated in his fish-store at the above address, when his attention was attracted to the street by cries of Police, and on going into the street, he Saw the deceased James Carbin having a hold of the defendant John Hunt by the coat-collar with one hand and pushing the defendant ahead of him; that immediately on reaching the corner of 10th Avenue and 84th Street and when he was about six feet from the deceased and the defendant, he saw the defendant John Hunt thrust one hand into his pants pocket and withdraw it and with the other hand make a movement as though opening the blade of a knife and immediately thereafter make a movement with the hand in which he held something and which he had withdrawn from his pocket as though making an upward cut in the abdomen of the deceased, that thereupon the deceased James Carbin called out: I am stabbed;

Deponent further says that about the hour of 8.45 P.M. on the above date as he was on post-and at the corner of 82nd Street that he was informed that the defendant John Hunt who was coming down 9th Avenue towards deponent had stabbed a boy; that he pursued the defendant and overtook him at 83rd Street; that he immediately placed him under arrest and on searching his pockets deponent found a pocket-jack-knife the large blade of which was covered with wet blood and blood also upon the defendant's hands; that he took the defendant to the Morgue at the Cor of 85th Street and 10th Avenue, where deponent saw the dead body of the deceased with a large cut in the right groin; that immediately thereafter took the defendant to the 20th Precinct Station

vs.
John Lamb.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Gildersleeve.

Tuesday, March 29, 1887.

Indictment for murder in the first degree.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Bedford for the people.

Mr. Kingsley for the defence.

A Jury was empanelled and sworn.

George W. Fox sworn and examined. I am in the fish and oyster business, I reside at 502 West 34th St. on the evening of October 30 between eight and nine o'clock I was in my store at 502 West 34th St., I saw the Defendant pass my store between eight and nine o'clock in the evening with the deceased James Conlon, Conlon said he was going to lock the Defendant up for being drunk, they were walking pretty lively, the Defendant ahead and the deceased was about a foot and a half behind him, Conlon had hold of him by the coat collar, they were walking rapidly and he was pushing the Defendant ahead of him, not violently, he had him by the collar just shoving him along easily, no violence was used then; I went towards them with the intention of getting the deceased away from the Defendant, I followed them about twenty-five or thirty feet, I saw the Defendant place his hand in his pocket and withdraw his hand again and make a backward plunge and the boy cried aloud, "I am stabbed"; he just had the knife in his hand, I did not see the knife; the prisoner was running in a stooping position and the boy was pushing at the same time; the Defendant did not look back at all; the boy Conlon ran to the opposite side of the street and I went over, I seen the way he was saturated with blood and I came back and the prisoner was still on the corner, he was just walking towards Ninth Avenue, a pretty lively walk, I followed him about three blocks when he was arrested by Officer Krowl at Ninth Avenue between 32nd and 33rd Streets. The officer caught him and pulled the knife out of his pocket, whether the knife was opened or closed I could not say, I do not remember that, the knife was saturated with blood and the prisoner's hands were saturated with fresh blood. The boy who was stabbed was taken to the drug store at 35th Street and 10th Avenue; after the prisoner was arrested I went back with the officer so that the boy could identify the prisoner but when we got back the boy was dead. I should judge he lived about five or six minutes after the stabbing. I went to the Station House, I saw there Sergeant Brown and a correspondent of the Associated Press, the prisoner had been arraigned before the Sergeant.

Cross Examined. Before this homicide I was not acquainted with any of the Goulon family, the boy's father me when I thought the trial would come off, I told him I was perfectly ignorant of it, I testified before the Coroner that the deceased was handling the defendant so roughly that I ran from the store with the intention of kicking him, that is what I say still, he pushed the Defendant but he was not using violence; the Defendant was crying, "police, murder, watch", that is what attracted me from the store. The night was a rainy, misty night; when I first saw the defendant he was passing my store, going towards 10th Avenue and the deceased held him by the collar, pushing him along the street, he was about twenty-five feet from my place of business when I came out of the sidewalk, I was just walking up lively to get hold of the boy and put him away to save the boy's life if I could, I stated before the coroner I went there to give the boy a kick to put him away from the Defendant, I did not say that I wanted to save the boy, if I had been there a minute sooner I could have saved the boy's life, I did not know whether the boy would be killed or not, I did not know what would happen, the defendant and the deceased were about eight or ten feet ahead of me in front of a liquor saloon; the deceased was on the right side of the Defendant, partly behind him and partly on the side of him, on the right side. I have not got a diagram of the position but I seen the man's elbow moving. From the time I heard the cry of "police, murder", I did not see the deceased use the prisoner roughly or violently. I went there because he was tormenting the man, shoving him ahead, he had no right to shove the man because the man was under the influence of liquor, he was rushing him by the door and the Defendant was calling, "help, police, murder, watch".

William T. Jenkins sworn and examined.

I am a practicing physician and remember the evening of October 31st, I was the coroner's physician, I saw James Conlon, who was alleged to have been killed by John Lamb; when I first saw him he was dead. He was a young man, fairly well nourshed, said to be about eighteen years of age; on the right thigh about in this position, just below the ligament there was an incised wound about four inches in length; it was a wound about three inches in depth and about four inches in length, it was an incised stab wound; it could be caused by a knife like the one shown me; the death was caused by hemorrhage from the wound just described, an artery in the leg was severed and the vein adjacent, he bled to death from hemorrhage, that was the direct cause of death.

Cross Examined. The wound was about four inches in length and seemed to be backward and slightly upwards perhaps. I do not think the point of the knife made such a wound, I think it was more of a triangular shaped wound, the base of the triangle being on the outer surface of the leg, if I remember correctly; the drawing of the knife out would make four inches externally, the point need not have had that much motion. The prolongation of the surface may have been made by drawing out the knife.

George W. Krowl sworn and examined.

I am an officer of the 20th precinct. I was on duty on the evening of October 30th between half past eight and nine o'clock; about a quarter after eight I was at 34th Street between 33rd and 34th Streets on Ninth Avenue; from the distance of a block I seen them running from 34th Street corner and crying out that some man had killed a boy, to stop him; there was several people running after him, it seems that no one would approach him, I was about twenty-five or thirty yards away from the corner and I started to go up to him, I should say he was on a slow run, he was coming towards me when I first saw him, I had my uniform on, I ran towards him, he turned and went back across the street towards the northeast of 33rd Street going towards Eighth Avenue, I caught him by the back of the neck and held his both arms behind him and took the knife away from him; the knife now shown me is the one, it was dripping with blood when I took it off him, I took it from his pocket and it was closed, I searched several pockets at the time and took a pair of shears from him about eight inches long, I took him through 34th Street to the corner of 10th Avenue and 35th Street and took him into a drug store; this boy that was cut was lying on the floor dead, I took the prisoner towards the Station House, he tried to grab the back of his hand to bite it; there was another officer there at the time when the prisoner tried to bite his own hand, he knocked his hand down before I got to it, I took him to the Station House which was four blocks away. Sergeant Brown was in command and after taking the prisoner's pedigree he came from behind the desk to see if there were any marks on him, there were no marks to be discovered on him, I saw him make the examination, he examined his hands and face, I did not notice any marks, the prisoner was taken to the cell and locked up.

Cross Examined. I saw the blood dripping from the knife after I had taken it from his pocket. I never saw the prisoner before that night and know nothing about him, he had the smell of liquor on him, he had been drunk but was not staggering. I had no conversation with him in the Station House, he did not speak anything to me; he gave his name, trade and where he was born to the Sergeant. Just before the doorman had taken him back there was citizens bringing his wife in, I saw his wife brought in the Station House, she was intoxicated, she could not stand, I smelt her breath, I made a charge of intoxication and drunk and disorderly against her. His wife was not with the Defendant when I arrested him, she was coming toward the drug store at the time. The Defendant said when I was taking him to the Station House that he was troubled by those boys. I did not notice that the Defendant's wife's head was cut or that blood was streaming down on her shoulder, I did not notice blood on her shawl, I did not see any doctor examine her, I did not examine her head, I made a charge of intoxication against her in Jefferson Market, she was held for examination and about six or seven days after she was discharged. I never saw the defendant with his wife before that night; he said he was troubled by the little boys before he got to the 34th Street corner. The prisoner had been drinking but he understood everything that was said to him. They had a great deal of trouble to bring his wife in, she fought against it and halloed. A man whom I afterwards learned was an officer told me when I got to the drug store that the party who was killed was a relative of his. He was an officer in the 20th precinct.

Stephen E. Brown sworn. I am a Sergeant under Capt. Washburn and was behind the desk on duty on the evening of October 30 between half past eight and nine o'clock; on that occasion the Defendant now on trial for murder was brought before me by Officer Krowl. About nine o'clock on the evening of the 30th of October Officer Krowl brought John Lamb to the Station House and charged him with killing a boy on Tenth Avenue and 34th Street, I took his pedigree, his name, age, color, nationality, married or single, whether he could read or write and his residence. I asked him why he had done it? He said he had been assaulted. I asked him where; he said they had struck him in the face, he did not know positively who struck him, somebody had struck him. I came from behind the desk and asked him to show me where he was struck. He said it was either in the right or left jaw, I am not positive; but I examined him very carefully and could not see any mark that would be caused by the blow. I saw no evidences of a blow on his face but there was something the matter with the thumb of one of his hands; one of the officers told me that; they said he had tried to bite his finger and they had taken his hand away. Officer Krowl gave me the knife and I marked it; the knife now shown me is the one. I directed him to be locked up; his wife was brought in right afterwards. In my opinion the prisoner had been drinking, but he understood what I said and appeared to answer me intelligently.

Cross Examined. I am certain that I have not stated all that he said to me because I can't remember everything in detail. I did not appear before the Coroner because I had no summons and did not appear before the Committing Magistrate. I am not positive whether the prisoner was at the desk or not when his wife was brought in, I believe three or four young men carried her in, I think I took her pedigree. I had a Roosevelt Surgeon of the ambulance examine Mrs. Lamb, I did not remember whether she was senseless when taken into the Station House. I do not remember the prisoner saying to me anything about a fellow kicking him and running him along the street but he said somebody had struck him in the face. I asked the prisoner why he stabbed that man and he said that he was assaulted, I don't know whether he said he did or did not stab him. I did not know the deceased, I might have seen him but do not remember, I saw him dead in the Station House.

Thomas Hurson sworn and examined. I am an officer of the 22nd precinct, I met Officer Krowl and Lamb on my way to the Station House, a large crowd was following them, I showed my shield to Officer Krowl and told him I was an officer, I was in citizens clothes and I walked along side of him, I saw the prisoner put his hand in his mouth as though to bite it and I grabbed the left hand and pulled it down to his side and held on to his hand all the way to the Station House. I was present when the prisoner was searched by Officer Krowl when he was arraigned before the Sergeant. I was behind the desk but I did not notice what was found on him. The Sergeant asked the prisoner how he come to do the stabbing? He said somebody hit him; the Sergeant said, where? He said, here (pointing his hand to the right cheek); the Sergeant came from behind the desk and examined his face and found no marke of violence on it; I then went behind the desk again looking up the Coroner's address to get a permit for the body because the deceased was a relative, a brother-in-law. I paid no more attention to the prisoner, I went right out then to get a permit to remove the body. I saw the Sergeant examine the prisoner's face and there were no traces of his having received a blow.

Cross Examined. I first heard of the stabbing about five minutes before I met the prisoner and the officer, I ran for the drug store, went in and looked at the body and found he was dead, I did not remain probably more than a minute; on the way to the Station House I showed me shield to Officer Krowl, that is the first time I saw him that night, I did not address him in the drug store but it was outside of the door, corner of 35th Street and Tenth Avenue, I had been in the drug store and was just coming out. I did not give the prisoner a chance to put his hand in his mouth, I caught it before he had a chance to put it in. I did not see Mrs. Lamb at any time, I was present when the Sergeant took the Defendant's pedigree, I did not hear the Sergeant tell Officer Krowl to go out and bring in Mrs. Lamb. The Defendant was taken away from the desk out of my sight within five minutes but I couldnot tell who took him away. I know nothing about the Defendant and never saw him before that night. I should judge he was under the influence of liquor; he seemed to answer questions very intelligently.

Philip Oppenheimer sworn and examined.

I am an officer of the 20th precinct and on the evening of October 30 I saw the prisoner about twenty minutes after eight. As I was patrolling my post going to West 34th St.

right off Tenth Avenue, I come along and I saw him and his wife sitting on a stoop. I says, "my friend, what are you doing there?" He says, "I am just resting myself;" I said, "you will have to find some other place than this to rest"; he says, "All right, Officer, I did not do any harm, did I?" I says, "no, not a bit"; so he got up and he says, good day and I says good day and he and his wife walked up Tenth Avenue towards 35th St. That is all I know about it, I did not see the affray that occurred afterwards.

Cross Examined. They were on the third stoop from the corner on the north side, that was about twenty minutes past eight between Ninth and Tenth Avenues. They did not seem to be drunk; he told me that his wife was very tired, that they had walked a good deal that afternoon and she sat down to rest herself; she did not seem to be very much under the influence of liquor because she did not stagger; there were electric lights there but it was on the dark side of the way, I am sure the defendant is the man, I could not be mistaken; she was a short woman she was dressed in black and had a shabby hat on; I did not see her after that, I do not know anything about the Defendant and never saw him before that day. This thing occurred on my post; after they went away I went on my post which is 34th St. from Tenth to Seventh Ave.; it generally takes from half to three-quarters of an hour to go around my post. I had just been in the middle of the block when I heard an officer had caught him, I run down and they had just left the drugstore, I saw the boy lying on the floor and he was dead. I did not see the Defendant's wife drunk. There was a large crowd; the boy was dead, they had taken him away at that time. The homicide was committed on the outside of my post on the west of the Avenue. A little girl came up and told me that there was a boy stabbed and I ran down and saw him in the drug store, I don't know anything about the case only I ordered the Defendant away from the stoop; after he had gone away I stood on the corner, I could not see them because it was dark and raining.

Henry Ficken sworn and examined. I live at 445 10th Avenue; on the evening of October 30 between half past eight and nine o'clock I was near 34th Street on 10th Avenue, I saw the Defendant and his wife coming down past where I was standing, I was standing at the door where I worked on the west side of Tenth Avenue, They went until they got to the corner when his wife stumbled and when he was trying to pick her up he stumbled over her at the corner of 34th Street; they were both down at the same time. Conlon, the boy who was killed came up to them and he picked the Defendant up; they walked down a little further until they came down to the boiler shop which is about seventy-five feet from the corner, they were walking down and when his wife stumbled some one picked her up, I did not notice who it was; then Conlon came across and took the Defendant by the collar, he was pushing him across the street until he came to the corner when I saw the defendant make a motion as if to draw something from his pants pocket, I saw him make a motion to go down and then up, like that. (Illustrating and pointing towards the stomach) James Conlon cried out, "I am stabbed. I was not watching the prisoner at the time but Conlon crossed over and had his hand to his stomach until he reached the corner when he fell and they carried him up to the drug store and laid him down. I did not know Conlon personally, I knew him before the evening of the stabbing and recognized him as a man I knew by sight.

Cross Examined. It was a dark night, Conlon caught the Defendant by the coat collar and as I remember pushed him with his left hand, he was not walking very slowly but he was pushing him ahead. I remember being before the Coroner. I have not had any conversation with any one about this case since then only they asked me if the trial was coming off. About this upward and backward motion, you did not say anything like that before the Coroner, you said you saw his hand move up and down in his pocket and come out and strike behind him, you did not say anything about the forward or backward motion, who told you to say that? Nobody told me to say it. I was on the side, I could see right between, I could see the man's arm. The other boys were fooling with the deceased I noticed there was something the matter, the way they acted and I went down as far as the corner, there was no boys following him, the boys were in 34th St., I went right behind him. The Defendant called, "police, help, watch, murder"; when I saw the Defendant and his wife I thought they were drunk. At the time that you saw them going along up to the time that you saw the stabbing take place were any of the boys then around him or following him or plaguing him? They were around there, standing around where the wife was; the wife was on the north side of 34th St. behind the prisoner, they were on the south side and the wife was on the north side, the Defendant was ahead and Conlon was behind. When I saw the prisoner stab Conlon there were no other boys with him except Conlon was pushing him along, Conlon said to him, "if you don't go home I will lock you up", he did not say anything else. Why did not you state before the Coroner, "I will lock you up if you don't go home?" I was mixed up then, I did not know what I was saying; nobody told me to say he said that. Before the Coroner you said, "after that I saw the prisoner make a plunge at the deceased, I heard the deceased cry, I am stabbed", do you remember saying that before the Coroner? Yes sir.

Catherine Thomas sworn and examined.

I live 502 West 34th Street, I remember the evening of October 30th between eight and nine o'clock, I saw John Lamb and James Conlon from my window, I saw Conlon catch Lamb by the collar of the coat and shove him from the opposite side of the way across to near the corner, I did not see Lamb stab Conlon. I went back to the kitchen to my baby and when I came out I saw Conlon run across and halloo, "I am stabbed, catch him"; that is all I saw of it.

Cross Examined. My house is 502 West 34th St. between the 10th and 11th Avenues, the second door off the corner from the 10th Avenue on the south side; they were coming from towards 11th Avenue, Conlon ran him across the street by the coat collar, not ran him but pushed him ahead of him.

Garrett Brophy sworn and examined.

I live at 768 Ninth Avenue and on the 30th of October last I was in the neighborhood of Tenth Avenue and 34th St. between eight and nine o'clock at night. I went down to see Mr Fox, he was in the store between eight and nine o'clock and the boy Conlon and this prisoner came past the door, he had hold of him by the shoulder, I went inside again and Mr Fox went out and followed the boy; it was not long after until I heard somebody cry out, "I am stabbed", I seen the boy holding his hand to his thigh like and running across the street. There was a man standing there by the lamp-post and he asked this man to help him. So I run over across the street and the boy fell down, I got hold of him by the arm and helped him up and he commenced to walk and he had not gone far before he fell; so I took one side of him to carry him and some other person took the other side of him and we carried him to the drug store; we laid him down on the floor and they sent for the ambulance and the doctor and the druggist said he could not do anything with him, I remained there I don't know whether he was dead or not. I went back to Mr Fox's place and I washed the blood off my hands and shoes, it was the blood I got from Conlon, the blood which came from his thigh ran down my hand and arm and on my shoes. I came out again and I saw the prisoner coming up with the policeman and went into the drug store again and I believe the boy was dead.

Cross Examined. I do not work for Mr Fox, I was in his store; when I first saw these people they were coming by the door from 11th Avenue on the south side, I did not trouble to look after them.

Patrick Conlon sworn. I live 417 Tenth Ave. and am the father of the boy that was stabbed on the 30th of October; my son lacked four days of seventeen years and eight months, he was born on the 4th of March 1869, the very day that Grant was sworn in. I don't know what his weight was but by his looks he weighed something around one hundred, I think he was about five feet seven, he was slim.

George W. Fox recalled by Counsel for the Defence. These people were coming from 11th Avenue on the south side of the street when I first saw them, my door I guess is about seventy-five or a hundred feet from 10th Avenue on the south side; when I first saw them they were going past my window, they stopped about twenty-five or thirty feet past my store, that is where the boy was stabbed. I did not see Conlon run this man across the street; just as he got in front of my door he halloed "murder, watch, police", something like that; that is what brought me out.

Thursday, March 31, 1887.

The Case for the Defence.

Mr Prior opened the case for the Defendant.

James B. Ryer sworn. I am an importer and manufacturer of upholstery goods at the corner of Canal and Elizabeth Streets and have been there twelve years, I have a partner named Wagner, I know the Defendant Lamb, he was in my employ between three and four years, since 1881, he was a good workman and we never had any trouble with him; he is regarded by others as a quiet, able workman; he was loom boss at our place and he was considered to be the best one we ever had by our foreman, who never made any reports against him.

Cross Examined. I should consider a quiet workman to be one who was attentive to his business and did not interfere with other men. I probably have seen the Defendant slightly under the influence of liquor and on those occasions I never saw him in any way annoying to anyone around him; I smelled his breath probably passing through the factory.

Matthew Salarte sworn. I live 420 West 46th Street and am foreman in the silk factory of Smith & Kaufman in 37th St. between 8th and 9th Aves. I have been there since the 15th of December, I have been in business for myself for six years. I know Lamb, the Defendant since 1876, between ten and eleven years, he worked for me. I remember the day of his arrest, the 30th of October, Saturday, he left off work at five o'clock, he worked for me for eight months as a workman under my control where I was foreman, I was satisfied with him, he was smart in his duties and honest, I consider him a quiet man and during the time he worked for me I had no dispute or trouble with him. He was a steady, sober man in his work, I have never seen him under the influence of drink.

Henry Giroud sworn and examined. I live 146 Christopher Street and am a workman in the silk trimming business, I have been in business for myself but I am not now, I work for Green & Co. corner of prince and Marion Streets. I know John Lamb for sixteen years, he has been working for me, I have been foreman in the place and he has been working two or three years for me, that was in 1871. I know other people who know him and I never heard it said that he was a fighting or a quarrelsome man. I know he had been drinking some but I never saw him intoxicated.

Caroline Wintheimer sworn and examined.

I live 1083 Lexington Avenue and am in business at 504 West 38th St. I was in the upholstery trimming business when Lamb was with me, I guess he was there from 1831 to 1882, nearly two years, I saw him almost every day, he was a very good and quiet man, I never heard anything bad against him, he was the best man I ever got. He called on me once since and he was a little under the influence of liquor but he was very nice and friendly.

Owen H. Barnard sworn. I am a manufacturer of undertakers' trimmings at present, 511 West 30th St. I have been in business about thirty-two years, I have known Lamb about twenty-three years, he went to work for me then and he has worked on and off for me since then,

I have always known him to be quiet and never knew him to be in any brawls, I have only seen him once during the last three years, he worked for me I think about five years ago, I have seen him under the influence of liquor and I have said to him that I could not give him work in that state and discharged him and hired him over again; he has never been boisterous or quarrelsome when under the influence of liquor, he was not an ugly man when he was drunk but always good natured, I never saw the man in a brawl in my life.

George Groatman sworn. I reside 535 Lorimer St., Greenpoint and my business is upholstrey and trimming manufacturer, I am employed as foreman at 812 Broadway, I know the defendant John Lamb for five years, he has worked for me about three years from 1882 to 1885 I know other people who know him and his character for peace and quietness is always pleasant, I have never known him to quarrel with any one, I have never

John Lamb sworn and examined. I am the Defendant and am a weaver, I am between forty-six and forty-seven years old and am a married man; my wife is in the hospital and I have four children, I have been in this country since 1863; my first employment when I came here was in my trade of weaving, Mr Martin was my first employer, his place of business is in 36th St. between Ninth and Tenth Avenues. I was next employed in Yonkers by George P. Skinner about two years; my next employment was in Yonkers with another firm, that firm sold out and I went with the firm that bought the place and remained there about three years. I was next employed by William Rightmeyer in New York on 10th Avenue between 35th and 36th Sts. I was next employed in Patterson by William Hurd and worked there for about four years, I was employed in Patterson also by S. E. Orr & Co., it was sometime around the Centennial, then I returned to New York and was employed by William Rightmeyer again and worked there about three years. I next went to Williamsburgh and was employed by Mr Hopley, I think about 1880 or 1881, I was next employed by Mr Barnard whose factory was in 30th St. between Tenth and Eleventh Avenues; after I left Mr Barnard I went to work for Mrs. Wintheimer and Bassett, they do not keep a factory, they did keep in Green St. near Prince, I worked for Ryer & Wagner in Canal St. and I was last employed by Mr Smith in 14th St. between Ninth and Tenth Avenues, Mr Salarte was my Foreman on the 30th of October last, I have been a Foreman myself, I was discharged by Mr Barnard and others on five or six occasions perhaps during the twenty-five or thirty years for being under the influence of liquor; that is what they discharged me for but they did not tell me at the time what it was for. The knife now shown me is mine, I remember using it on the night of October 30th, I have to use it every day in the shop whittling and adjusting wires as a guide for fringes. I have to use scissors all the time too cutting off threads. I remember the night of my arrest, it was on Saturday but I do not remember the date, I was working in the shop that day in 14th St. between Ninth and Tenth Avenues, I quit work about five o'clock and went straight home to No. 1 Ninth Avenue, I did not stop any place to drink; my wife was home and we had supper, after supper my wife and I went out about seven o'clock, I always go out Saturday night with my wife to buy something for Sunday provision, I went to see a friend of mine, the last I saw of him he was living in 11th Avenue and 35th St., his name is Cox and he is a wheelwright, we walked leisurely up and on the way she bought provisions, some ham and tea and a few things, about two dollars worth, I drank some beer at supper and on my way up to 35th St. I went in and got a drink, we sat on the stoop for a couple of minutes, my wife is a very fat, small woman and she complained of being tired and we sat down; my wife was not intoxicated, I think she only had one glass of beer out of the pint at supper, the officer told us we could not wait there and we got up and went away. I went to 35th St. and 11th Avenue and inquired for Cox, it was a saloon boarding house, my wife did not go in at first but she came in afterwards and I wondered what brought her in, I asked her could not she wait outside a minute, I would not stay a minute, she said there was some fellows out there that insulted her and she didnot like to stay out, I said sit down a little while and they will be gone in a short while, she sat down and had a glass of beer, I drank whiskey because it was a chilly night and I did not feel very well; we might have remained there about ten minutes we waited there long enough to give the parties on the outside a chance to get away; we went up towards Tenth Avenue to go home, a lot of fellows assaulted us there and my wife and I parted, when we got a little ways up going towards Tenth Avenue a party got hold of me and my wife and parted us, dragged my wife's shawl off and knocked her hat off and one of the fellows ran away with the provisions; after I got along with my wife I went back towards 11th Avenue and called "police, help", I got to the middle of the street again on 11th Ave. between 34th and 35th Sts., they attacked me the second time and we got away from them again. A man and woman who were there said, "let the people alone", and the fellows saattered away, I got into 34th St. then and went up to go to 10th Avenue to go home, I live in 10th Ave. The same gang again attacked us in the middle of the block on the uptown side; somebody struck me right in here (pointing to the stomach) and someone struck me from behind on the back of my neck, they pulled and kicked me all over and dragged the coat near off me, I believe t was Conlon, the deceased kicked me in the stomach, I heard some one of the crowd remark that the woman was not my wife; one of them says, "get that son of a b--- out of the way , he aint her husband"; I was wrestling with one fellow at the time, I was calling, "police help" and my wife screamed too, I was trying to get away the best I could and I did get possession of my wife again; there was some person came on the other side and that is the reason why they let me go, they scattered. My wife hollered and fell down, she said she was hit on the head, I put her bonnet on and they knocked the bonnet off, I felt of her head and it was bloody; before I could get her up some one from behind seized me by the collar and ran me along the street I should think the leggth of this court-room, I cannot judge because I was too excited, I was not drunk and was not staggering before that. While he was pushing me along I says, "you had better let up on this, you have gone far enough now and I know all of you and I will get a warrant for you to-morrow morning and get the whole of you arrested; while he was running me along he said, "go on, you son of a b----, you will never see morning"; while he had hold of me I put my hand in my pocket for the knife, I pulled the knife out and opened it and then I cut him, I thought that would make him let go of me and I could get away. I cut him back, that way (showing); he loosed me right away, I shut the knife and put it in my pocket. I looked around for my wife, I could not see where my wife was, I thought she would naturally go towards home, I saw some of the crowd there that assaulted us and I got away as quick as I could. When I left my wife she was on the ground. I did not go to any crossing over to Tenth Avenue, fall down with her, pick her up and fall down again, nothing of that kind, I did not run away from any officer on Ninth Avenue between 32nd and 33rd Sts., the officer came behind me and arrested me, I offered no resistance, I was glad when I saw the officer, the officer took the knife out of my pocket; I offered no insult to any of those young men prior to that, I did not speak to them I did not speak to a soul until I was attacked, I was not staggered and was not drunk, I might have had about five glasses of whiskey that night, I can stand more than that, I have used liquor now for the last twenty years. I saw my wife in the 37th St. Station House that same night, I also saw her in Jefferson Market I do not know what they did with her, they kept her there for examination, they did not do anything to my wife, I have heard that she is now in the hospital but have not seen her there.

Gross Examined. I had a pint of beer for supper but did not drink the whole of it; she was sent to the hospital for being sick but it was not for excessive drinking. I believe I had been discharged several times from my employment for drinking but I was not told I was discharged for being a drinking man. I was never in trouble in Boston for stabbing or shooting a man, I positively swear to that. Conlon did not come over and pick me up when I fell and leave me alone, I did not then walk seventy-five feet, my wife did not then fall and Conlon did not cross the street and say, "you are drunk, I am going to have you locked up. When you went to the Station House why did not you tell Sergeant Brown that your wife had been grossly insulted, that her bonnet had been taken off, that your provisions had been stolen that bad language had been used to you and that Conlon had kicked you in the stomach? He did not ask me, he did not say anything to me, he commenced speaking to the officer. He asked me where I lived and how old I was and I told him. He did not ask me why I stabbed the boy.

I did not at any time voluntarily say that somebody struck me; the Sergeant did not leave the desk and come around to examine my face to see if there was any mark of violence on it to my knowledge, he might have looked at me, I was in such a position that had he done [it I should have known it. Neither the Sergeant nor the officer examined my face to see if there were any bruises upon it; I did not volunteer to tell the Sergeant anything because there seemed to be so much emotion in the Court they did not seem to take much notice of me whether I said anything or not. When this knife which certainly had some blood on it was taken from you and given to the Sergeant did you attempt to make any explanation how you came to stab the young boy? No sir, they did not ask me, I did not say anything about the rough handling I had simply because they did not ask me.

Redirect Examination. When I was taken to the Station House the Sergeant asked me certain questions about my age and where I lived but I have no recollection at the present time of his having referred to the stabbing of the young man; as soon as he asked me those questions I was taken away, I was frightened, I felt so sick, I hardly knew what to do and I was glad when they took me away so that I could lie down. I have always have had something the matter with my side and that kick affected me. I weigh about one hundred and twenty-three pounds and I think my height is five feet four and a half or five, I have not been measured for a long time. I believe Conlon was taller than I.

POOR QUALITY ORIGINAL

Matthew Salarta recalled by Counsel. Look at that knife, are knives of that character and size used in your business? Yes sir, they generally need strong knives for fixing up the machinery, the looms; we also use shears in that business, we have to trim off silk and cotton in weaving.

The Jury retired to deliberate upon their verdict, and failing to agree at ten o'clock in the evening, they were locked up for the night.

Friday, April 1, 1887.

The Jury came into Court and rendered a verdict of guilty of manslaughter in the second degree and on account of the Defendant's good character recommended him to the mercy of the Court. He was sentenced to the State Prison for four years.

 Indictment for burglary in the } Before Recorder Smyth. Nov. 10, 1886 third degree. Hermann Rosenberg sworn.

I live 176 Attorney st. and my place of business is 126. I am a cloak maker, it is a brick building in the rear, three story high and my factory is on the second floor; the stairs are outside the house; there is a carpenter's shop down stairs. I closed my place up on the night of the 24th of Oct. last, the doors were locked and the windows were closed. I had about a thousand dollars worth of property in the place. I closed up about 9 o'clock and came back 11 1/2 the same night; when I returned I found all the doors open, the lock of one of the doors was broke.
 I missed thirty three cloaks worth $250. I saw them that same night at 11 1/2 o'clock
 I saw them on a wagon and at the station house and identified them as my property.
 I saw Charles Levy that night in the station house but had no talk with him. I did not see either of the prisoners in possession of the wagon upon which the cloaks were

Charles Prager sworn. I am a police officer attached to the eleventh precinct; the premises 126 Attorney St. are in the 11th ward
 I was on duty the night of the 24th of October

I arrested Charles Levy on Houston St. I was patroling on Houston towards Attorney St. and as I was going by Pitt St. I saw the defendant chasing down through Houston St., when he saw me he sheared and ran around the wagon. I chased after him two blocks and a half and when I caught him he says, "There was some boys wanted to lick me." I did not believe his story. I says, "You come back with me." When I came back to the corner there was a crowd and Kubiers halloed, "That is the man." I found the goods on the street in Attorney St., two different lots of cloaks, one was thirty three and the other twenty six, belonging to two different firms; the thirty three belonged to Mr. Rosenberg, which he identified and the twenty six to Mr.
Rosenshine. I brought Levy to court on the following morning. I took him over to the Inspector's office and on the way he confessed to me that Moses Simon and Henry Shelter and himself were the three who had committed the burglary. I put the cloaks on a truck; they did not have time to take them away; they were taken to the station house. Officer Brennan arrested Simon. Mr. Rosenberg came to the wagon, looked at the goods and said they belonged to him. I told him he would have to come to the station house and get them there.

Jonas Ruben sworn. I live 255 Houston St. and am a tailor. I remember the night of the 24th of Oct. last, I saw the defendants that night at 11 1/2 on the 24th in Attorney corner of Stanton St. and they ran to the other side of the street. I saw that they had bundles, and I thought they were not honest. I shouted, "Police." The policeman caught Levy and the other one ran away. They threw the bundles away and the bundles were taken to the station house; the bundles were cloaks. Cross Examined. I work for Mr. Levison in Attorney St. I was at a wedding, but I took nothing to drink. I saw Levy running and I saw when the policeman arrested him.

Patrick Brennan sworn. I am a special officer attached to the 11th precinct. I arrested Simon at 8 o'clock on the evening of the 25th in his own house in bed charged with this burglary. When he came out on the street he said, Levy gave me away, didn't he? I says, 'no'; he said, he did; going down he said, I know I was in it I might as well say it. I guess I will plead guilty. I brought him before the Magistrate; he pleaded guilty and said, Levy and Henry Sheflin was with him. I arrested Simon in his own house 184 Stanton St. in bed. This conversation occurred on the way to the station house. I am sure he said he was guilty in the Police Court.

The case for the defence.

Maurice Simon sworn. I am 21 years old and live at 184 Stanton St. I had nothing to do with committing a burglary upon the premises 126 Attorney St. A man who keeps a fruit stand on the corner told me of it the next morning; the officer arrested me the following evening about 8 o'clock. I did not say to the officer that Levy had given me away. The clerk asked me some questions. I was so nervous I do not know what I said. I said, 'yes' to what he asked me. I was never arrested before. I am a silk finisher. I have not been working this last two or three months. I worked in 91st St. corner of First Avenue, Hines and Kippers and also in 673 Broadway Cross Examined. I have known Levy about a year and Shepley five years. I saw Levy that night at 7 o'clock at the corner of Attorney and Stanton Sts. The officer said, "I have got you dead." I said I don't know what you mean. He did not say a word to me nor I to him about Levy. I signed the paper before the Magistrate, "I am guilty of the charge." The night of the supposed robbery I was at the corner of Stanton and Attorney Sts.

Charles Levy sworn. I know nothing of this burglary and had no bundle with me. Ruben told the officer I was the boy that stole the bundle. I did not tell the officer that Simon assisted me in the burglary. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

The People vs
James Burke
Heinrich Lowrey

Examination before Justice Gorman
July 29 1886

For the defendant Mr. Osborn.

James Burke, the complaining witness being cross examined upon his affidavit deposes and says:

Q You say you visited the premises
231 Bowery last Sunday?

A Yes Sir

Q And you saw Heinrich Lowrey?

A Yes

Q What did you see him do?

A I saw him with a great tray of glasses of beer in his hand coming from the bar.
He held a tray of 8 or ten glasses of beer in his hands.
I saw him take two glasses and deposit them on a table and take pay in coin.

Q Was that at 231 Bowery or 293

A 231 - both premises have saloon attached.

Q - How wide is the beer garden?

A - About 25 or 30 feet.

Q - How wide is the other room?

A - About the same

Q - Are not 291 and 293 two separate and distinct lots of ground?

A - Yes

Q - The premises 291 are composed of a bar room are they not?

A - Yes Sir

Q - With a door opening into the street?

A - Yes Sir

Q - The bar room occupies about one third the space?

A - I would not be positive

Q - A portion of it?

A - Yes

Q - The balance is occupied as a music hall?

A - They were playing music when I was in there

Q - Next door to this is another hall way is there not?

A - Yes

Q - You pass into where they have a gravelled walk, chairs and tables?

A - Yes

Q - When you go in - how did you go in - through this hall way that leads to the garden

A Through this door that leads into the garden

Q How did you get in?

A I went in through No 233.

Q From there you passed into the open garden?

A Into the open garden

Q From the open garden you pass into a doorway into a hall?

A Into 231

Q Now when you came to the hall way of 231 is it not true that the bar was covered?

A Well, there was three bar tenders behind the bar, dressed as bar tenders usually are. They were stooping down and filling beer in glasses and putting them on the counter just as quick as they could.

Q Is it not a fact that the bar was closed - covered.

A Well; they were getting beer.

Q Did it cover the bar from view?

A That was on one end - I saw the bar and they got beer at the bar

Q Inside the place?

A In the front hall

- Q Could you see it from the garden?
- A Yes, through the doorway. This canvas covering covered the entrance as you went in.
- Q This tray that you saw you was in the garden when you saw that?
- A I was within fifteen feet of the bar.
- Q Where were the customers to whom he gave it?
- A The second time I went there there was 500 people. There was beer about 15, 16, or 18 waiters going all around carrying beer.
- Q You say you saw him come out with some glasses, and lay down two glasses and take coin in payment?
- A Yes, Sir.
- Q Do you know what was in those glasses?
- A I tasted it, and it was beer.
- Q Will you swear that it was lager?
- A I will, to the best of my knowledge, that it was lager beer.
- Q Will you swear to the best of your knowledge it was not weiss

- beer?
- A I swore before that it was lager beer
- Q Not Weiss beer?
- A I swear it was lager beer.
- Q You swear positively that it was not weiss beer?
- A I swear it was lager beer - beer we usually get for lager

Michael White, being duly sworn deposes and says: - I am a special deputy officer in the house employed by Mr Kraus. I am employed to keep order in the place, I look out for the door. I am 43 years old. I reside at 139 Broome street. I was present last Sunday. I am acquainted with the premises 231 and 233 Bowery.

Q You know that on those premises is a bar room?

- A Yes
- Q And that lot 233, the lot adjoining, has recently been hired by Mr. Kraus?
- A Yes
- Q Was you present at the time of the arrest of this man?

- A Yes
- Q Where was the arrest made?
- A In the hall of 231
- Q What was the condition of the front of these premises?
- A It was effectually closed.
- Q The door locked?
- A They were
- Q Was there a curtain up?
- A The curtain was drawn across the bar across the counter
- Q By Justice Gorman
- Q Did it cover the counter?
- A It covered everything.
- Q Did it cover the counter?
- A Partly
- Q How partly?
- A This cover they had across there
- Q Did it cover the counter?
- A Partly
- Q What part?
- A Ten or twelve feet
- Q How long is the counter?
- A Fifteen or twenty feet.
- Q Leaving eight or ten feet unenclosed?
- A In this way - right across

By Mr. Osborn

- Q Throwing the ball from the bar room?

A Yes.

Q The doors were locked?

A Yes.

Q Do you know what was being given out to customers there?

A No, Sir; I know nothing about that.

Q Nothing sold while you was there?

A I did not pay any attention to it.

Q Was you in the garden at the time?

A I was outside around the door.

Q Could anybody go into the garden except through No 233 Brewery?

A No, Sir.

Q The front doors of No 231 were actually closed?

A They were locked. I saw that they were locked.

Henry Lewes, the defendant, being duly sworn deposes and says: I am 34 years old. I live at 80 Willett Street, I am a waiter employed by Mr.

Kraus in the saloon

Q - Were you selling any beer
on that day?

A - Weiss beer

Justice Gorman - How could they have had the place closed
if they were selling weiss beer

Q - Did you sell any lager beer
on that day?

A - No, We have had strict orders - not to sell any beer on Sunday - nothing but weiss beer, soda water, lemonade and beer called weiss beer.
