THIS LICENSE MUST BE KEPT IN A CONSPICUOUS POSITION, AS REQUIRED BY THE EXCISE LAW.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, Henry Lankenau, of the City of New York, for and in consideration of One ($1) Dollar, and other valuable consideration, to me in hand duly paid by Harry Held, of the same place, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have sold, assigned and transferred, and by these presents do sell, assign and transfer, to the said Harry Held, a certain saloon liquor license, No. 5576, made out in my name, licensing me as a saloon keeper to traffic in liquors on the first floor, at No. 87 Fulton Street, New York City, and also my right, title and interest in and to the said license and rights thereunder, and also all my right, title and interest in and to all claims, demands, actions, cause or causes of actions, for any and all rebates due and to become due and owing to me by reason of the aforesaid license, and especially under and by virtue of the Act of the Legislature, known as the Liquor Tax Law, and being Laws of 1896, Chapter 112, and as provided in Section 4, of the said Act.

AND I do hereby give the said Harry Held, his executors, administrators and assigns, full power and authority, for his or their own use and benefit, but at his or their own cost, to ask, demand, collect and receive, for the same or any part thereof and in my name or otherwise to prosecute and withdraw or settle any suits or proceedings at law, or in equity therefor.

AND I do covenant that I have neither done nor will do anything to lessen or discharge the said debt, or hinder the said Harry Held, or his assigns from collecting the same.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 3rd day of July, 1896. Henry Lankenau (seal)
