Josiah Shan, 32 years old, shoemaker of No. 39 Carmine Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that the premises No. 11 Sixth Avenue Street, 9th Ward, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a brick building and which was occupied by deponent as a shoe store were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means forcing open a window in said basement and breaking fastenings of said window, in the night time on the morning of the 27th day of April 1882 and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz: Thirty seven pairs of shoes of the value, altogether, of seventy-five dollars the property of deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by John Reilly, now here, for the reasons following, to wit: At about 9 o'clock on the night of the 26th day of April 1882 deponent closed said store and fastened the bolt on the inside of said window. Deponent is informed by a tenant in the rear portion of said basement that about one o'clock on the morning of the 27th day of April 1882 a noise was heard in the basement occupied by deponent as a shoe store. About seven o'clock on the said morning deponent found the said window in said basement broken open as hereinbefore described and missed said shoes from said premises. Defendant is informed by Officer Deltke of the 9th Precinct Police that on the 28th day of May 1882 ^{in the City of New York} he arrested said John Reilly who at the time of such arrest was wearing a pair of shoes which defendant identifies as portion of the property taken stolen and carried away as aforesaid. Defendant is further informed by John Fox that on said morning of the 27th day of April 1882 at about half past six o'clock he saw said John Reilly on the docks at the foot of Becharlton Street in conversation with one Timothy Desmond who is now confined in the City Prison on a charge of participation in said burglary and that at the time of said conversation said Desmond had in his possession four pairs of shoes and showed them to said John Reilly

0222
