THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Benjamin Jackson

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Benjamin Jackson

of the CRIME OF GRAND LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Benjamin Jackson

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the 27th on the day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- two , at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms one coat of the value of twenty five dollars, one pair of trousers of the value of eleven dollars, and one vest of the value of four dollars

of the goods, chattels and personal property of one

Martin

Charles

then and there being found, then and there

Feb. 6th 1882

Dear Sir

Referring to the case of Bishop against Jackson (grand larceny) may I ask that you will send a
sub. poena to Charles Martin 412 West 57th St. Second flat?

He is the owner of the clothing stolen by Jackson. He promised to be at court this morning but was not, and is apparently indisposed to give himself much trouble in the matter. I did not know his present address till last night.

The negro Jackson has stolen
a long list of other articles besides. the clothing from Martin's trunk. By his plea of Not Guilty this morning it appears that 0329

he intends to be perverse and make what trouble he can, though he confessed the robbery to the sergeant at the 30th St station and again to Judge Patterson at the Jefferson Market Court the last being a written statement signed by Jackson with his own name.

Two of the smaller articles stolen by Jackson have been discovered, together with a pawn ticket for a frock coat from Martin's trunk, ^{the} coat at Lemon's pawnshop on Sixth Avenue. Detective Schmittberger is searching for the remaining articles. I have been obliged to give the case several days of my own time which is valuable, with little prospective good except to protect the community from further depredetention of Jackson. As he is a hardened case I trust that you will see that he does not escape his dues through possible informalities.

If Martin be a material witness I would respectfully suggest that the trial be postponed till he be served.
I should think this might be done however tomorrow evening or probably in the morning without difficulty at the address given. He is a "curb stone broker" and could perhaps be found also about No 5 Wall St office of H.C. Cross, or in New Street opposite the Exchange.

Respectfully and truly yours
Anti-Slavery W.H. Bishop

Q Did you ever try the shoes in question on your children?

A Yes sir, on both of them. They have never worn them. I put them away after trying them on them. I think my memory is good, I guess I can remember what took place three months ago.

Q What else do you claim you lost?

A Socks; underwear, for the Q What kind of socks, were they?

A ^(Socks of spun cotton) All kinds of socks. ^{They belong to} my children. I identify them because I bought them - that is the only reason I can identify them - there is no private mark on them by which I can identify them. There are many more like them in the market I suppose. The next

- Q Did you ever have any trouble with this defendant?
 A None at all.
 Q Why did she leave you?
 A Mr. McGowan, the detective took her away. She was in the house when we examined the valise. It was not opened when she was out; she was in the room when it was opened.
 I saw her valise before it was opened, I knew she had one manner in which they are folded.

By The Court

Q. Could you identify them from articles of the same kind?

A. Yes sir, I know them positively.

Cross-Examination resumed, by Mr. Levy

Q. Have you a peculiar way of folding these things?

A. Yes.

By The Court

Q. What is that peculiarity - Explain what it is.

A. I fold them just as they do in the old country - in Germany - I can't tell what the peculiarity is.

Q. How long have you been in this country?

A. Ten months. During my time here I was only with German families.

By Mr. Levy.

Q. Did you have any conversation with Mr. Joseph before you became Indictment for burglary in the third degree. Before Judge Cowing. Feb. 8. 1883.

Joseph F. Seery, sworn and examined, testified: Where do you live? No. 418 Canal St. Do you know this defendant? No sir. You lived there on the 24th of January last? Yes sir. I occupy the whole of the premises, both as to the living and as to the store. What kind of a store? Rubber goods, on the first floor. Did you sleep in the upper portion of the building? Yes. Did you lock up the store the evening of the 23rd? Yes sir, about 10 1/2 or 11 o'clock. I secured the place myself before I went. How was it secured, by a door leading into the street and shutters on the front of the house over the windows? Yes sir; the window was broken; there is no entrance from the rear to the store. I next saw the place in the morning about 8 1/2 or 9 o'clock. I found the shutter on the side of the window lying down when I got outside to put the show case on and the glass was all broken. Sometime previous to this the bar broke and I had a strong heavy string to tie it around until I got it fixed and that was evidently cut with a

Knife or some other instrument. I afterwards saw where it was cut. I do not think that the hole which was made for the window was large enough for a man to enter. I do not think it is over ten inches wide. I guess nine by 36 inches the pane of glass was. There was no other evidence of a burglarious entry of the store. I lost a pair of boys rubber boots No 6 and a pair of Alaska overshoes, that is all I missed. I am certain they were there the night before, the value of the two pairs was $4.25. I don't know anything as to who took them. I saw them in the station house that evening. I went there and identified them. A policeman came to my place and told me. Cross Examined. I may have had five or six pairs more of boots like the ones I missed in the store that night. I had no particular mark upon the shoes. The way I identified them at the station house was because they exactly tallied with the goods that I lost. The boots were of the same size. I also oiled the boots to get some sulphur off that came through the rubber, it was in the manufacture of it, and the oil is still on the boots. I can swear positively that they were my boots. There was no mark on these boots, which is an unusual thing, for all boots are marked. When I last saw the boots that were taken I saw them in the show window. If the window were broken a person could reach in and easily get them; They were together. Jacob H. Doess, sworn and examined, testified. I am a police officer of the 8th precinct. I saw the defendant on the 24th of January last on the corner of Sullivan and Grand st. I saw him coming up Sullivan st, he had a pair of rubber boots and of Artic overshoes, he was walking along the street, I asked him where he got them; he could not account for them. I said, "Where did you get the boots?" He said, "That is for you to find out." I said, "I will have to arrest you." On the way up to the station house he showed fight; he gave me a blow on the stomach and he attempted to run away, I captured him and took him to the station house. I know the complainant. I found out afterwards that this burglary was committed in Canal st. I was not in the station house when the complainant went there. I found the prisoner in the street about five o'clock in the morning. Cross Examined. This was the morning of the burglary; he was carrying the boots openly; he did not say that the boots belonged to him.

Isaac Johnson, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live 132 Baxter St. I go with Bardens' minstrels. I worked for them last on the night of the 24th of Jan. About 7 o'clock in the night of the 24th of Jan. I returned from Newark, N.J. and went to No 2 York St. where there was a wedding party. I was employed as a singer. After that was over, it was rather late in the evening. I came out of there and on the corner of St. John's Lane and Laight St. I met a man who told me a long story, that he had been drinking and lived across the river and had not means to get home. I gave him ten cents; he then took these boots and shoes out of a handkerchief and asked me to buy them. I said I never used a pair of India rubber boots in my life; he still continued to beg me, he wanted to go home and if I would give him the number of my residence he would return and get the property. Under those circumstances I took the property and was arrested corner of Grand and Sullivan Streets.

Cross Examined: I told the officer that ~~the~~ boots and shoes belonged to me.
He struck me over the head with a club. I was on my way to my cousin's house, ^{Mr} Morris, 25 Clark St. I have never been convicted of any crime.
The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
