The People's Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 Guido Caravanti Before Recorder Smyth.

May 2. 1887. Indictment for assault in 1st degree.
 William O'Brien sworn. I am a coal passer on a steamer; on the 19th of April I was in a saloon 181 North St. and 123 Mulberry Sts., it goes on two streets. A young fellow ran over to where I was sitting and said, "Billy, the Italians are doing up Murphy," who was a friend of mine. I ran to the door and saw an Italian make a pass at Murphy, there were three Italians punching Murphy. I jumped in between them, and as soon as I did to try to separate them, I saw the prisoner pull his knife; he was not in the fight, but he came from the middle of the street and made three or four plunges at me, he struck me twice in the breast, not serious, it punctured me a little and drew a little blood. I turned around to go away from him when he made the two jabs at me. I should judge the blade of the knife was three inches long. This was about eight o'clock in the evening.
 Cross Examined: I was a coal passer on the steamer "Caroline Miller"; she is now in the Erie Basin on the Dry Dock. I had been drinking that day. Murphy belongs in the First ward; he is not here; they call him Frenchy. I only know him from coming into the saloon. I saw the man who stabbed me in the saloon five or six hours before that. I did not see any packages with him and had no trouble with him. I was going to try to get Murphy a place on the ship. The knife now shown me is like the one the prisoner used. I was struck in the back near the bone on the right hip and I was punctured twice in the breast by the prisoner. I made an attempt to get away from him, I was backing off defending myself. I hit him on the neck to guard him off and then he came after me. There were Italians around, I think they are in California, I never saw them since.

John J. Kummer sworn. I am an officer of the Sixth precinct; on the 19th of April I arrested the prisoner. I just happened to turn the corner of North and Mulberry sts. I saw a great crowd running after the young man and I saw the prisoner make two or three plunges at him. I ran over and grabbed the prisoner by the collar, and as I did he threw the knife away. I picked it up and brought it to the station house; a little boy picked the knife up and it was in the condition it is now (bent)

Cross Examined. I saw the complainant running and the prisoner in pursuit of him. I did not see a package in the hand of the complainant and heard nothing of the loss of a package. I could not have any talk with the man because he could not speak English. I examined him; he had a slight cut in the back and a slight cut on his breast, blood coming from both spots. There was a small scratch on his breast and a scratch in the back; his clothes were cut. (Knife offered in evidence)

Guido Cavale^untie sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live in the Gilston house, Chatham Square, I have been in this country eleven months, I work in a mine and have been working in Mount Vernon. I never have been in trouble here or in Italy, I served as a soldier five years in the Italian army. I was in Mulberry St. eating an apple and I had a knife in my hand cutting the apple; then four or five persons near me commenced to fight and they hit each other. One was hitting the other very hard and I told him in Italian not to hit the man so much, it was wrong. All at once I was seized from behind and they hit me twice with the fist on the head and held me by the collar. I tried to get out of his grip and I had at the same time a pair of shoes under my arm; they took the shoes away, and some of those who were in the fight tried to get hold of my watch and chain. I commenced to halloo in Italian, "thieves."

Those who were behind me commenced to run away and the one that was in front me remained. I told him in Italian to give me my shoes, but instead of that he tried to hit me back and at the same time the policeman came over and he talked to him. I did not understand what he said and the policeman arrested me and told me to come to the station house.

Cross Examined. The Knife now shown me belongs to me; in the struggle it got crooked. When my shoes were taken away I tried to get rid of those people. I could not tell if the complainant took my shoes, but he tried to get my watch and chain from me, he got hold of the chain, but I wrenched it out of his hand. I bought the shoes in Canal St.

Mr O'Brien was recalled and said he did not try to take the prisoners watch. The jury rendered a verdict of assault in the third degree.

And the said Edward Ciardi, late of the City and County aforesaid, well knowing the premises, afterwards, to wit, on the twenty-third day of February in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Laurence Deprez of the proper monies and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate same to his own use, did then and there fraudulently and falsely, unlawfully pretend and represent to the said Laurence Deprez, that it was necessary in order to obtain the discharge of the said Annie Wallace from the said Work House to pay the sum of ten dollars, and that if he the said Laurence Deprez would give him, the said Edward Ciardi, the sum of ten dollars, he, the said Edward Ciardi, could and would procure the discharge of the said Annie Wallace from the said Work House, and that the said Annie Wallace could not and would not be discharged from the said Work House unless the said Laurence Deprez paid him, the said Edward Ciardi, the said sum of money, by color and by aid of the said fraudulent pretenses and representations, the said Edward Ciardi, did then and there unlawfully obtain from the possession of the said Laurence Deprez, the sum of ten dollars in money, lawful money of the United States, and of the value of ten dollars, of the proper monies and personal property of the said Laurence Deprez, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Laurence Deprez of the same and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use.

Whereas, in truth and in fact it was not necessary in order to procure such discharge of the said Annie Wallace to pay the sum of ten dollars or any sum whatever; and the said Edward Ciardi could not and would not procure the discharge of the said Annie Wallace from the said Work House if the said Laurence Deprez would give him, the said Edward Ciardi, the said sum of ten dollars; and the said Annie Wallace could be discharged from the said Work House although the said Laurence Deprez did not pay him, the said Edward Ciardi, the said sum of ten dollars.

And whereas, in truth and in fact the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Edward Ciardi to the said Laurence Deprez was and were then and there in all things utterly false and untrue, as he the said Edward Ciardi, at the time of making the same, then and there well knew; and so the Grand Jury aforesaid, do say, that the said Edward Ciardi in manner and form and by the means aforesaid, the said sum of money, of the proper monies and personal property of the said Laurence Deprez then and there feloniously did steal: against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

-----X

Hon. Randolph B. Martine,
District Attorney,

Sir :

The crime charged in the above entitled action is the uttering of a forgery, to wit: the sending, together with the check above annexed, a letter declaring that the endorsement upon the said check was the ^{authentic} signature of Gustav Meninger. The letter was sent to complainant by defendant through a District Messenger boy, who delivered it to complainant. Defendant denies the utterance, and I have tried in vain to have the boy identified. The Detective of the American District Co. cannot discover who the boy was, and cannot identify any call upon which such note was sent. He declares it probable that the boy by whom the message was sent, was picked up in the street by defendant, without any call having been issued.

Without this piece of proof, I am of the opinion that it would be impossible for The People to prove their case, and I recommend that the defendant be discharged on his own recognizance.

Yours respectfully,

June 13/07.
