v.
Joseph Potasick,
Rosie Jecha
and Maria Jecha

Daniel Hager, special officer, 2<sup>1/2</sup>th precinct. Prior to the 14th of November, 1888, a great many complaints were made by dry goods merchants in the 2<sup>7th</sup> precinct, that goods were frequently stolen from their stores. Captain Connor directed me and officer Cagney to work up the case. Through Mr. Morris Frank, of No. 1523 Second Avenue, I learnt that the defendants Rosie Jecha and Maria Jecha were suspected of buying stolen property. Between six and seven o'clock in the evening of the 14th of November, 1888, officer Cagney and myself went to the residence of said defendants, at No. 435 East 46th Street. I asked Rosie Jecha whether she had a piece of blue flannel in her possession. She answered through an interpreter, a boy of about twelve years of age, selected by said defendant, that she had not. I thereupon said to her, through the interpreter, that I would search her apartments. As soon as this had been communicated to her, the defendant Maria Jecha went into the adjoining room and pulled from the bed a piece of blue flannel. She dropped it to the floor and I picked it up. In response to my question where she got it from, the defendant Maria Jecha said that she got it from the old country. Thereupon I placed her under arrest. Immediately thereafter the defendant Potuscek came into the room with two shirts, one of them was afterwards at the Hotel House identified by the complainant herein as his property and the other was identified by Gershon Heyman as his property. Potuscek handed the two shirts to the defendant Maria Jecha without saying a word. Without being spoken to by me at all, the defendant Potuscek said to me: "I did not take these shirts, they were given to me by another boy and I was sent here." The defendant Maria Jecha then spoke in Bohemian to Poturck and he wrote there and then told me that she requested him to tell me that she paid $2 for said piece of flannel to a boy that brought it to her. I then told her that I would give her $2 for the flannel at the Station House, to induce her to go peacefully to the Station House. On the way to the Station House Poturck told me that the Jechas were in the habit of buying stolen goods from boys. Poturck repeated this statement at the Station House and in the Police Court.

David E. Cagney, Special Officer, 27th Precinct, corroborates the statement of officer Poturck.

Leopold Goldmann, 326 East 84th Street. Dry goods merchant. On the 14th of November, 1888, I identified at the Station House of the 27th Precinct, I identified ~~and~~ a shirt exhibited to use as my property from the label attached thereto. I did not see anybody take said shirt from my store. It was taken from the outside stand. I am positive that it was not sold.

Joseph Patience, one of the defendants herein, at present committed to the Penitentiary, on the 14th of November, 1888, at about six o'clock in the evening, when I had been allowed to go home by my employer, Mr. Cramer, of 31st Street, I was requested by two boys to bring two shirts to the defendants Rose and Maria Jecha. They requested me to sell them to these two women. The boys were known to me as Sam, Ben and Arthur. I refused to go up with the shirts. They thereupon said, that they would kill me, if I would not go. In consequence of this threat I and a boy, called Pete, went to the defendants Jecha and asked <sup>Maria Jecha</sup> whether they wanted to buy the said shirts. The defendant Rose Jecha was not in. Maria Jecha replied to my said question, that she did not want to buy the shirts, but if the boys would ~~steal~~ steal other goods, she would buy them, the boys should bring the said goods to her. Pete and myself went downstairs with the shirts and reported to the other boys what the woman had said to me. Then Kerr took the shirts from me and went with the other boys around the corner into a tenement house. ~~I had~~ When the said boys requested me to go up to the defendants Jecha. I was waiting for a boy by the name of Martin who lives in #37 East 76th Street, and when the boys had gone around the corner I still waited for him, because I wanted to tell him that I was working. They waited about half an hour for the said Martin, when I heard Kerr and the other boys came back again and asked me to go a second time to the defendants Jecha and offer the said shirts for sale. I refused, but I heard Kerr said that I must go, or else he would carry out his former threat. Thereupon I went again up with Pete to the defendants' Jockas. Pete remained outside of the rooms. I went in and handed the shirts to the defendant Maria without saying anything. The two men were there who afterwards turned out to be detectives. One of them asked me, where I got the said shirts from. I told him that some boy gave me the shirts. The door leading to the hallway was open. Pete ran away as soon as he saw that the officer had arrested me. The defendant Maria told me that the officer asked her whether she had a piece of blue flannel, and she requested me to tell the officer that she got it from the old ~~curator~~ and right subsequent thereto she asked me to tell the officer that she got it from a boy and that she paid $2 for it. Pete, who lives in 65th Street told me that the Jockas were in the habit of buying stolen goods from boys. From here
