I have examined the papers in this case and have also examined the defendant, who is a young man about 24 years of age; mentally & physically weak. It appears that the sale was made through a letter to Deft. and it does not appear to me that there was a deliberate intention to defraud on the part of the Deft. in making the purchase and that complainant should be left to his civil remedy.

Dec 9th 1877. Chas A Pirnie

The claim is for only $82.00 and it is entirely for the purpose of enforcing collection of the amount that complaint was made

Morris Weiss of No 149 East Fourth street in the City of New York being duly sworn deposes and says; That on or about the 12th day of May 1881 in the City and County of New York, Charles Segge with intent to cheat and defraud this deponent by false and fraudulent representations and by other false pretenses, did knowingly, designedly, wilfully and unlawfully obtain from this deponent a quantity of Leaf Tobacco to the amount due of the value of Eighty two Dollars. That in order to obtain said goods on a credit the said Charles Segge represented to this deponent, that he Segge was the owner of a large stock of Segars and the fixtures contained in the store left by him said Segge at No 347 Grand street in the City of Brooklyn E.D. of the value of about fifteen hundred Dollars which with the exception of One hundred Dollars due to S.K. Munger was free and clear from all encumbrances not owing anything else. That deponent having known said Segge previously, and having no reason to doubt said representations, and relying thereon were thereby induced to sell and deliver to said Legge the Tobacco aforesaid, and as more specifically shown by the Statement hereto annexed.

That said Charles Legge soon thereafter came before the authority of deponents said Claim disposed of all his property, and informed deponent that he had sold everything he had for the sum of five hundred Dollars, that he had paid said money to his father on account of an indebtedness of Eight hundred Dollars or even more which he owed to his said Legge father before and at the time he made the representations aforesaid.

That deponent was also informed by the said Mr. Lauer that at the time of making said representation the said Legge was indebted to his said Lauer in a sum of five hundred and Eighty seven Dollars and for which he Lauer has since been obtained a judgment.

That said acts and matters deponent believes to be true and therefore prays, that the said Charles Legge may be apprehended and held to answer said charge of the said

Morris Louis

of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said

Morris Louis

by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said of the same.

Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Charles Legge was, then and there, indebted and liable to, as he the said Charles Legge, then and there, well knew, divers persons besides the said Simon K. Sanger in divers large sums of money, to wit, to one Ferdinand Legge of Williamsburgh in the city of Brooklyn, County of Kings and State of New York, in the sum of three hundred dollars: to one Simon K. Sanger of the city and County of New York in the sum of three hundred dollars: to one Louis Hoenigsfeld of the said city and County of New York in the sum of twenty five dollars, and to divers other persons whose names are to the ~~jurors~~ grand jury aforesaid unknown in a sum exceeding in the aggregate the sum of one ~~hundred~~ thousand dollars, all which he the said Charles Legge, then and there, well knew.

Whereas in truth and in fact he the said Charles Legge was then ~~and~~ there indebted to and owed the said Simon K. Sanger a sum exceeding one hundred dollars in money, to wit, the sum of three hundred dollars in money, as he the said Charles Legge, then and there, well knew.

Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Charles Legge did not, then and there, possess goods, wares, and merchandise of a value exceeding five hundred dollars in money as he the said Charles Legge, then and there, well knew.

Whereas in truth and in fact he the said Charles Legge was, then and there, indebted and liable to the said Ferdinand Legge in the sum of three hundred dollars for and on account of goods, wares and merchandise and the purchase thereof by him the said Charles Legge from him the said Ferdinand Legge as he the said Charles Legge, then and there, well knew.

Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Charles Legge was, then and there, indebted and liable to the said Simon R. Sanger in the sum of three hundred dollars for goods, wares and merchandise and the purchase thereof by him the said Charles Legge from him the said Simon R. Sanger as he the said Charles Legge, then and there, well knew.

Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Charles Legge was, then and there, indebted and liable to the said Louis Hoenigsfeld in the sum of twenty five dollars for goods, wares and merchandise and the purchase thereof by him the said Charles Legge from him the said Louis Hoenigsfeld as he the said Charles Legge then and there well knew,

And Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Charles Legge was, then and there, indebted and liable to divers persons whose names are to the grand jury aforesaid unknown in a sum amounting in the aggregate to one thousand dollars for goods, wares and merchandise and the purchase thereof by him the said Charles Legge from them as he the said Charles Legge, then and there, well knew.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Charles Segge to the said Morris Louis in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year ~~last~~ first aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid. was and were as at the time of making the same

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Charles Segge well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Morris Louis to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the ~~Jurors~~ grand jury aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said Charles Segge by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the ~~day and year last aforesaid~~ twelfth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Morris Louis the said goods, wares and merchandise (a more particular description of which is to the ~~jurors~~ grand jury aforesaid unknown) of the value of eighty-two dollars
