deposes and says, that on the 7th day of March 1897 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

One horse, set harness, wagon, whip, robe and blanket together of the value of about four hundred dollars $400.00

the property of The Messart Express Company and in deponent's care and custody and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Walter Clark Moore from the fact that on said date, this deponent came to deponent's place of business at the above address and hired the said property for two hours.

That the deponent promised to return the same, which he failed to do. That deponent is informed by Samuel Price, a detective in the 24th Precinct that he, the detective, found the horse and wagon in the stable at 320 West 118th Street. That deponent is further informed by the detective, that the set of harness was found in the possession of A. Lafin at 2233 St. Armand and that, he, Lafin, informed the detective the property of Sophie Stachel, and in deponent's care and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by John Cosgrove and James Sullivan (both now here) for the reasons following, to wit:

that deponent is informed by Sophie Stachel a domestic employed by deponent that at the hour of 2:15 A.M. on said date she locked and securely fastened the doors of said deponent's apartment which is the first flat in said premises, and went out leaving said apartment alone and said pocket book therein, and
