 The People
 v.
 William Davis
 Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree and receiving stolen goods.

Court of General Sessions. Part I
 Before Judge Gildersleeve. Jan. 22.
 1883

Alice O. Kimball, sworn and examined, testified. I live 215 West Fortieth St. I am of the theatrical profession; upon the 18th of Dec., I lost a trunk containing stage wardrobe in this city. It was taken from the stage entrance of the Alcazar in Broadway.
 There was in the trunk, two full costumes two wigs, twenty printed books, and other property. At that time I was stopping at 215 West Fortieth St. I delivered the trunk to George Mathews, a colored porter to be taken to the theatre. Did you ever get your property back? Some of it, but it was ruined. I know nothing of my own knowledge of Davis taking the trunk. The property I lost, which was in the trunk, was worth between three and four hundred dollars.
 George Mathews, sworn and examined.
 I live at 219 West Fortieth St. I know Miss Kimball; upon the 18th of Dec. she delivered a trunk to me to be taken to the Alcazar theatre. I took it there. I walked from the house over there. It was along toward evening, six or half past six I judge.

0583

I did not go to the stage entrance of the Alcazar first. I was up on the stoop on the Seventh Avenue side and was trying to get in the door but could not. This young gentleman, Davis came up and said, "Do you want to get in with that trunk?" I said, "yes," he said, "you take it to this side and leave it close up to the door. I work there; we are getting up scenery for the theatre; in a hurry, I came out to get a bite, I have got to go right back." I brought the trunk up close to the door to go into the basement to ring the bell to get some one to open the hall door. I left the trunk up to the stage entrance door and walked away. He started across as if he was going to Sherlock's restaurant. I walked up to the basement to get some one. I put the trunk where he told me. When I got a gentleman to open the door I went back and the trunk was gone. What length of time elapsed between the time he told you to put the trunk at the stage door and you found it gone? I should judge it was ten minutes. Was that the trunk Miss Kimball delivered to you that you placed there? Yes sir. You are sure this is the man (the prisoner) that is the gentleman who talked to me where to place the trunk.

Cross Examined. The man who spoke to me was a stranger, he was alone. I was examined before the Police Magistrate. I identified Davis there I did not say, I thought he looked like the man. It was dark when I spoke to the man. I did not see the trunk taken away. I know the witness, Sherlock. I have not spoken to him about this case. I have been in Sherlock's brother's liquor saloon frequently.

James Sherlock sworn and examined. I live 262 West Forty first St. on the night of the 18th of Dec. I passed the Alcazar. I know Davis I think since about three nights before the election. I saw a trunk taken away from the door of the theatre about a quarter to six. I did not see the colored man deposit the trunk; there was somebody on the stoop beside Davis but I do not know who it was; they went from the South east corner of Forty first St. to the north west corner of Seventh Avenue and Fortieth St.; he did not take it into the theatre. He is not employed in the theatre to my knowledge. Cross Examined. ~~He is not~~ before election I assaulted one of Davis' friends at the Rossmore for insulting me. I have never spoken to the prisoner; my brother keeps a saloon corner of Seventh Ave. and 41st St. I have never seen Davis there to my knowledge.

I was arrested once for being drunk and disorderly. I told Officer Schmitzberger in the Alcazar that night about the stealing of the trunk. I told him I thought he could find the people about ten o'clock. The prisoner passed within two feet of me. I did not give any alarm because there was nobody in the street.

David Ferrar sworn. I am an officer of the Central Station; this matter was reported to the police. I went around Forty first St. and Seventh Ave. making enquiries about the trunk. I stepped into Mr. Sherlock's saloon and saw the last witness, who told me who took the trunk and where they could be found, but he said he did not wish to be a witness. My partner and I arrested Davis in a saloon on Seventh Ave. between 40 and 41st St. I understand that some of the officers of the 29th precinct recovered some of the property. William Davis, sworn and examined in his own behalf. I did not take the trunk of the complainant on the evening of the 18th, never saw the colored man Matthews until I saw him in the Central office. On the evening of the 18th I was with my father in the stocks. Cross Examined I learned mauling in Sing Sing prison I was accused of burglary and kept there two years. I got out the 25th of Oct. and have been working with my father ever since.

James O. Davis, the father of the defendant, testified that he worked at Mr. Moore's stables 571 Seventh Ave; that on the 15th of Dec. his son was with him from four o'clock until half past nine.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Michael Begley
Thomas Deignan

I Anthony Massaro,

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I do not wish any further proceedings taken in this case and wish the defendants discharged for the following reasons.

- I. They were both drunk when the affair occurred. They took the carpet to a stable and left it there which proves they did not know what they were doing.
- II They have both had good characters heretofore.
- III They have relatives depending upon them for support.
- IV The goods are worth $30 and I have them now.

Your prompt and satisfactory manner of dealing with criminals encourages me to write to you in the name of justice that you may Investigate the record of the two persons named Beglum and Begley who are charged with stealing a Carpet from Paton & Mossop - on 3 Ave bet 77 & 78 St. Begley has been arrested several times once lately for knocking down and Rolling a negro of his watch and he is also a terror to the neighborhood. Hitherto his influence with the Liquor dealer has been sufficiently strong to overcome justice. And even now the Liquor Influence has retarded the trial and would have again overcome justice only for your refusal to let the Case be withdrawn. I do not write to impugn your Honor against the prisoners but that you may Investigate the Character of the defendants and enforce the law.
