Geo R. Leghorn

of No. 480 West 22nd Street, aged 35 years, occupation Asst Clerk, Cap Store being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 24 day of February 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

One silk skirt of the value of thirty five dollars and one silk waist of the value of twelve dollars and fifty cent. all of the value of forty seven dollars and fifty cents.

$ 47.50

the property of Ehrich Brothers, and in deponent's care and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Kate Kelly and Jennie Wilson now seen.

The said property was part of the property of Ehrich Brothers in their store at No 371 Fifth Avenue New York. Deponent is informed by Mrs Julia Dutcher, who is a saleslady of said store, that she saw the defendants on said date in said store acting in concert together going from one department to another, conversing together and evidently in each other's company, and that she saw them take the said property and that she detained them as they were leaving the store with the said property. York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

One Diamond
Ring of the value of One Diamond Collar and money to the amount of Five dollars & fifty cents together of the value of $105.50

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Lois Kent (now here)

from the fact that said defendant was in the employ of deponent as domestic and left deponent's employ on said date after the departure of said defendant deponent missed the said property. Deponent is informed by Officer John J. Luff of the 23 Precinct that he arrested the said defendant and that said defendant admitted and confessed that she did take said property and gave to said Officer a Diamond Ring which deponent identifies as the property taken

the property of deponent
and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY ^{attempted to be} was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

James King, (now here)

for the reasons following, to wit:

That at about the hour of 11 o'clock P.M. on the 4th day of March deponent locked and securely fastened the doors and windows leading into the premises. That the said property was therein. That deponent is informed by Henry Smith, that at about the hour of 12 o'clock P.M. on the 8th day of March, he Smith saw the going along, ask that we take into consideration all the circumstances. That this is not an aggravated case of (Prostitution); There is a distinction in this case — Where a man or perhaps a woman, deliberately takes a girl into his or her house, or brings her into the house — of Prostitution — when the evidence goes

 must conclude there
 was no acquaintance, till the girl went into the house on a cold night and was

Given a notice; There is, some evidence by the part of the girl to show that the Defendant tried to visit her; she (the girl)
says that the Defendant gave her money to buy clothing, and that (from that) with the evidence bears it out, that the girl had frequented
the Denery "Doves"

NEW YORK, March 24th 1892.

Hon. Delancy Nicoll,
District Attorney of New York.

Dear Sir:-

About January 28th this year, Louisa Knecht was arrested for alleged violation of Section 282 of the Penal Code, in that she "had unlawfully taken, received, employed, harbored and used- - - Emma McCartney, who was of the age of fifteen years, for the purpose of prostitution, &c. The arrest was made upon the affidavit of Mr. ^{Alv. Henry} Gormerly one of your agents. An examination was had before Mr. Justice Taintor, a copy of which we send herewith for your examination. the matter was referred to the Grand Jury, and an indictment found and a plea of not guilty has been entered. The evidence as to the girl's age was as follows:

1. A leaf from the family Bible of an uncle of the girl, containing an entry showing the birth of the girl's mother. That entry was immediately followed by an entry showing the birth of the girl in question on March 24th, 1876, and following that entry was an entry of a birth in 1876. On its face it appears that the entry relating to the girl's birth was made irregularly. No other entry of a birth or death of any of the children of the girl's mother was contained in the Bible, so far as investigation has developed, although the girl's mother gave birth to eleven children.

2. A certificate from Dr. Wickham of Port Jervis was produced, and that certificate showed the birth to have been March 24th 1876. We have now in our possession the affidavit of Dr. Wickham showing that that certificate was obtained from him ten days prior to the examination before the Police Magistrate by Frank C. Bond, a brother of the girl's mother, from whom the leaf in the family Bible was also obtained. Dr. Wickham swears that he has no knowledge or memorandum to fix the date of birth and is anxious to retract the said certificate, he having given the same upon the pretence that same was to be used within the family circle, and Dr. Wickham swears that he has no recollection - - - - - of the birth of a child to Mrs. McCartney. It seems clear beyond a doubt that Dr. Wickham does not know the date of birth. Dr. Wickham has stated that he has no record showing that he attended the mother of the child during her confinements, nor is there any entry in his book showing that he has rendered or was ever paid for such services. We enclose a copy of the affidavit.

3. The mother and father were examined as witnesses and their testimony we commend to your careful consideration. The girl has been thrice arrested and her examination will clearly show to you that she was not led into the house in question, but rather that she came there about two o'clock in the morning in the absence of Mrs. Knecht and sought and obtained shelter from the cold. Whatever we could show as to her career between January 2nd, 1892, and January 27, 1892, is shown by her testimony on cross-examination.

It will be noticed that on the occasion of each arrest, the girl stated that she was sixteen years of age, and so the entry was made in the New Jersey Courts. To Mrs. Hayward of 356 West 16th Street, the girl stated she was eighteen years of age. We ask you to make a careful investigation of the papers we send you, and in such direction as you feel you can obtain a true statement of the girl's age, and if you become convinced, as we feel you must, that the girl is beyond the age of sixteen, or that there is more than a reasonable doubt as to her age, and that an attempt was made by the entry in the family Bible, and by procuring a certificate from Dr. Wickham to mislead the Court, respecting the age of the girl, to discontinue the present prosecution. If on the other hand you believe that there has been a technical violation we ask you for an interview so that we may consider the best method of avoiding the expenses of a trial.

Respectfully.

State of New York

County of Orange, S.S.

David D. Wickham being duly sworn says he is a practicing physician residing at Port Jervis in said county and has been such at that place for many years that he has known Frank C. Bond for many years and was a physician in his family and that of his mother in 1876 and that at about that period a married sister of said Bond whose name was McCartney lived with said Frank Bond and his mother but that he has no recollection of Samuel McCartney or of the birth of a child to Mrs. McCartney; that during the week commencing February 1st., 1892 Frank C. Bond called upon deponent and requested him to give him some certificate relative to the birth of Emma C. Mc Carthney stating that it was in March 1876 and further stating it was for some family purpose; that deponent told him he had no recollection of the date of said birth or any record which would enable him to fix the same but upon his assurance that it was of the date named by said Bond he would give him a paper stating the fact for the purpose he stated he wished it and thereupon he did so; that said Bond came to deponent again in the week commencing February 8th, and said they would like to have a regular child birth certificate and deponent at his request filled out and signed such certificate and gave it to him; that deponent had no knowledge that it was intended to make use of said paper or either of them in any legal proceedings; that he had and has no recollection of the date of said birth and has no record or memorandum to which he can refer for fixing the same; and that the date named in said papers is the one given to him by said Frank C. Bond and he has no knowledge or information as to whether the same was correct or not, except such information as he received from said Bond who, to deponent's knowledge must have personal knowledge as to said fact.

Deponent further says he supposed said Bond wished the papers in connection with the making up of some family record as to which it was not essential that deponent should be able to fix the date with any certainty from his own recollection and knowledge; and that had he supposed the papers were required and sought for use in any legal proceeding he would not have given the same as he was then and is now unable to fix the time of the birth of said Emma C. McCarthney from his own recollection or records.

A. Yes sir.

Q. Whom did you say you were?

A. I made no representations at all, she conversed with me.

Q. Was there anyone there?

A. There was another man.

Q. Is there anyone here who was present when these admissions

were made to you?

A. There was a man there.

Q. Was she arrested then?

A. Yes sir, for keeping a disorderly house and abduction, on both charges, it was in the station house I had that conversation with her.

Q. Did you take any pains to find the name of the man who was present?

A. No sir.

Q. Can you find out who the man was?

A. Perhaps by inquiry.

Q. Was he a policeman?

A. He was not dressed that way; he was 5 feet ten inches, he had a derby hat, - that is the only description I can give.

Q. Can you tell whether he was German or American?

A. I cannot, the room was dark, the light was low.

Q. The light was turned down low, the room quite dark?

A. It was about 11 eleven o'clock at night time, she was a prisoner.

Q. You went in and did not tell her who you were though she was a helpless prisoner you got her into conversation, in the course of that conversation she made the alleged statement?

A. Yes sir. There was one person present but I cannot identify him.

Q. Who did you get this certificate of birth from?

A. From the girl's mother, I sent for it through her, she handed that to me.

10.

Q. You were not present when this was written?

A. I was not.

FRIEND. I ask you in the interest of justice that this be marked, and take special pains that it be kept in the same condition.

COURT. It was given to you by the girl's mother (a leaf from the family Bible)?

A. Yes sir, she is here.

Q. When you went to the house in Stanton Street, who were present?

A. The two girls, no one else was there.

Q. Did you see anything disorderly? When you were there?

A. I did not.

Q. You know nothing about this birth record?

A. I do not, I do not know where it came from.

Q. From whom did you receive it?

A. The mother of the girl.

Q. You have been with the Society?

A. I am at the House of Mercy.

Q. Have you had any conversation about this case?

A. No sir.

Q. Did Mr. Gormely tell you what to say?

A. He told me to tell the truth.

12.

- Q. Did he tell you what to testify to and if the Counsel asked you you should say that he (Gormerly) told you to tell the truth? Did anyone tell you you should get out of the House of Mercy for that?
- A. I did expect to get out.
- Q. You do expect to be discharged for giving testimony?
- A. No sir, I do not expect to be discharged at all.
- Q. Did you say a few moments ago that you expected to be discharged?
- A. No sir.
- Q. What was said to you about testifying here?
- A. Nothing was said.
- Q. You were told to come here?
- A. I was told by the Defendant to say she was not in the house.
- Q. I mean what did the Society people tell you to testify to?
- A. To tell the truth.
- Q. What did they say they would do for you?
- A. Nothing.
- Q. Will you swear to that?
- A. Yes sir.

- A. Yes sir, soda, I never drink intoxicating drinks.
- Q. Did you go out with men?
- A. Never out side of the Defendant's house.
- Q. You were in several other places?
- A. Not with men.
- Q. Do you know McGurke?
- A. No, I never spoke to him but once in his own place in the Bowery.
- Q. It is called a "Dive"?
- A. Yes sir, I was in there four times altogether day and night both.
- Q. How long did you stay there?
- A. I never stayed as late as at Stagers, the first place I went in was "Gambossys", that was the day after New Years, the day after I ran away, I never met gentlemen there.
- Q. How late were you there at night?
- A. Never in any of these places after 12 at night.

- Q. That was before you were in the Defendant's house?
- A. Yes sir, before and after too.
- Q. Before you were in her house you were in the Bowery "dives"?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. The night you were brought from Eldorado, what did your father do?
- A. He said I was a bad girl and took me to the Station House and he left me there over night to scare me.
- Q. When was that --- you were reprovved the next morning and you were discharged?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Do you remember what time was this?
- A. In the morning.
- Q. Was it after midnight?
- A. No sir.
- Q. Was it not 1:20 A. M. when you were brought to the Recorder's Court, and in answer to questions you said your name Emma McCartney, of 16 Newark Street, age 16, born in the United States, single, charged with being a Disorderly Person -- time 1:20?
- A. That was the third time I was arrested, this makes the fourth time, my mother was at Coney Island or Rockaway.
- Q. There were no men around?
- A. No, but the cook, she punched me and my mother was angry because my sister was sick.
- Q. Had you been out that night?
- A. Yes sir, to the Boat House and rowing with the young lady that brought me to New York, we were out rowing alone from

A. I was arrested three times in Hoboken, N. J.

Q. How long were you in the Reform School?

A. I never was in a Reform School.

Q. Where were you arrested from? Were you committed to a Reform School?

A. Not there, I do not think it was, he was going to put me in a good place.

Q. You were a bad girl, that was the reason?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You do not pretend that you were a good girl when you came to New York?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you consider yourself a good girl when you ran around and your mother had to call in the Police?

A. They took me to the station house themselves.

Q. Did they on three occasions bring you to the station house?

A. The first time I was arrested by a Policeman.

Q. Do you consider yourself a good girl under these circumstances?

A. I never did wrong, I was a wild girl.

Q. If they did right, you were a bad girl?

A. No sir.

- Q. You came over here on the First or Second of January?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you have any money?
- A. Not a cent, that day.
- Q. After New Years where did you get your meals?
- A. The young lady took me into a Restaurant.
- Q. Did she give you money?
- A. Yes sir, 50 cents, that was all the money I had.
- Q. You paid that for your lodging?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Where did you have your breakfast?
- A. I did not have any.
- Q. Where did you have dinner?
- A. I did not have any, then I met this young lady.

A. I do not remember that, I never was in any place up there.

Q. You came down the Bowery?

A. We came home and went to bed about ten o'clock,

Q. What did you do next morning?

A. We sewed on the dress.

Q. Did you eat your meals there?

A. I did.

Q. Did you go out that night?

A. Yes sir, we took a walk before we went to bed up the Bowery to 14th Street.

Q. Did you stop anywhere?

A. No, we may have looked into windows?

Q. When did you leave her?

A. The night before I went to the house of the Defendant.

Q. The third night you were in her house?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Where did you sleep the second night, before you slept in her house?

A. We ran around to McGuirks other place, I met this young lady (Haynard) and we went to her house.

Q. Who went up?

A. We two.

Q. Where was she living?

A. I cannot say where it is.

Q. Did you sleep there that night?

A. Yes sir.

25.

Q. Where do you live Miss Haynard?

A. 356 West 16th St.

Q. Did you get any new clothes since you are here?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you sleep in any other house but the ones you have named?

A. No, I never did.

Q. Did you make any other money than that you have mentioned?

A. I never did.

COURT. When you say you were not a bad girl before you came to New York, what do you mean?

A. I never did wrong, I used to go out, I mean I never had sexual intercourse with men, at that time I had sexual intercourse with men, but in her house.

Q. The money you made in the Defendant's house you bought clothes with?

A. No, she gave me money to buy clothes.

- A. I will not swear to that?
- Q. Does it read that I ask you?
- A. Born Aug. 23, 1866.
- Q. It is as true as anything else on that paper, -- Whose handwriting is that?
- A. Pretty near the same writing.
- Q. You would swear to that?
- A. It is pretty near it.
- Q. Is it in the same handwriting as the rest?
- A. I know his handwriting. I never paid any attention to him, I saw him sitting down writing.
- Q. You say that is his handwriting?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Are the words "William Brennan" in his handwriting?
- A. It looks very much like it, he lives in Port Jarvis, he is a Hostler.
- Q. You cannot account for the fact that a child born in 1866 (according to memorandum) should be made at the bottom of the page, and there is a period of ten years between the birth of your wife and that child?
- A. He could explain that better than I can.
- Q. You have always been in business for yourself?

Police Justice.

Robert Henry being duly sworn deposes and says:

Q. Did you arrest the Defendant?

A. No sir.

Q. Who did?

A. Sergeant Halpin, I was sent from the Station House to 30 Stanton Street to see if she (Emma) was there.

Q. Did you see her there?

A. Yes sir, I found her in the house.

Q. Had the Defendant been arrested before that?

A. No, afterward I took the girl to the station house, and the Defendant was arrested afterwards.

Q. Did you have this warrant to arrest the Defendant?

A. No, I went for the girl, the arrest of the Defendant, I had nothing to do with.

Q. Did you know the Defendant lived in that house?

A. She was there that night, I was never in there before.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

Q. Did you ever see her before that night?

A. No sir, I was between Broome and Division Street; this is on Stanton Street; I never had that beat, I never had any conversation with her.

Q. Did you ever make any arrests in that house?

A. No sir, I know nothing about the house.

FRIEND. I move to dismiss because there is not sufficient evidence to hold-- there is no proof that the Defendant, took or received this female for the purpose of prostitution, the proof being that she went there when the Defendant was absent.

COURT. Motion denied.

FRIEND. We waive further examination, and in fixing Bail, we ask that you take into consideration all the circumstances -- that this is not an aggravated case of abduction; there is a distinction in this case -- Where a man or perhaps a woman deliberately takes a girl into his or her house, or brings her into the house, -- of prostitution -- From the evidence you must conclude there was no acquaintance, till the girl went into the house on a cold night and was given a room; there is, some evidence on the part of the girl to show that the Defendant tried to aid her; she (the girl) says that the Defendant gave her money to buy clothing, she had been told, and the evidence bears it out, that the girl had frequented the Bowery "Dives"---- Under the circumstances, I ask you to fix a reasonable sum.

COURT. She is held in one thousand dollars to answer.

^{Agst}
Antonio Kowalski

State of New York
City and County of New York ss:
Simon Yankacker
being duly sworn says that he resides at Cto. 288 Wythe
Avenue in the City of Brooklyn
E. D. That he is the duly elected and qualified Cashier of the "St. Casimir Society", a benevolent organization duly incorporated under the laws of this State and which has its place of business at No.
16 Rivington Street in the City of New York.

That on or about the 7th day of October 1890 in the City of New York divers goods, chattels money and property of the said Society of the value and description as follows to wit: Seventy five Dollars in good and lawful money of the United States, were feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of said Society by said Antonio Kawalski as follows to wit:

That in his capacity as Cashier of such Society, deponent receives the monies paid in by the members of such Society for dues &c. That the said Society deposits its monies in the Williamsburgh Savings Bank and that such deposit is made in the name of Joseph Katylee and Vincenty Jablinski as trustees of said Society. That on or about the 7th day of October 1890 deponent delivered to said Antonio Kawalski, as president of said Society, the above mentioned sum of Seventy five Dollars for the purpose of depositing the same in said Bank and gave him the Bank Book for the purpose of having the said deposit entered. That at said time the said Kowalski signed a receipt for said money which is in deponents possession. That thereafter the said Kowalski returned said Book with the statement that he had made such deposit and in said Book appeared the following entry which purported to be made by said Bank of said deposit to wit:

"Oct. 13 Seventy five D. 75."

That thereafter and in the month of January 1892 the said Book was taken to said Bank to have the interest entered, when the discovery was made that the above entry was fraudulent and had not been made by said Bank and that the above mentioned sum of money had not been deposited in said Bank and the said entry was erased from said Bank by the officials of said Bank and it was discovered that the said Kowalski had feloniously converted the said money to his own use.

That said Antonio Kowalski
during the early part of the year 1891 left the city of New York and is now at Boston in the state of Massachusetts.

Wherefore deponent prays
that said Antonio Kowalski
may be apprehended and dealt with according to law.
