Dear Sir,

In the matter of Gabriel Sachs - the above mentioned ascertain something as the character of the young man previous to his arrest. Mr. S. P. Hyman of 477 Broadway St., a silk merchant - says he had Sachs working for him about one year and that during that time he was perfectly honest and trustworthy. Hart, Lewis & Co. - Two merchants of 7 West 3rd St. say that Sachs worked about six months some two years ago - they found him honest and faithful. They heard that the prisoner had an establishment in the Saff business in Greene St near Spring - they found a Mr. Sachs who admitted that he knew the prisoner but refused to be "mixed up" in the case in any way.

We have seen and talked with about ten people who knew the prisoner.

The People
Jacob Schneider } Court of General Sessions Part 7 Before Recorder Smyth. May 20. 1889.
Indictment for assault in the second degree.
Daniel Coffey sworn. I live 32 East 81st St.
I saw the defendant on the 1st of May between First and Second aves in 80th St. between twelve and one o'clock in the night; he spoke to me and I could not understand what he was saying to me. I went to walk away and he spoke again.
I told him I was not able to understand him; so he pushed this knife into my left side.
I did not see the knife at all but I felt it.
Here is the hole in the coat and vest; those are the two stabs he made at me but they did not hurt me - they only tore the clothing on the coat. I am a laborer and do work for John Moore, the architect. I never saw the defendant before. I had drunk some liquor but I was not intoxicated. I was on my way home. I hit this man two or three times and they held him and halloed "murder" until the policeman came and took him away from me. Cross Examined. I have lived in New York twenty nine years and have never been arrested for anything. On this night I had been walking around and had been down to a friend's house playing a game of cards. I had been there an home. I had been in one or two saloons before that; Gilgois in 87th and Second ave. and Murphy in Seventy ninth st. I had been working that day. I drank nothing else but beer, two or three times in each place. The defendant spoke in German; he stabbed me without any provocation on my part. I struck him two or three times after the stabbing but I had no knife. I did not cut him in the eye and did not see anybody else do it. I did not knock him down before he stabbed me. I did not call him a Dutch son of a b- h as he was walking quietly along, and it is not true that when he turned round and asked him why he called him that, that I struck him under the jaw; and it is not true that when he said, "Why dont you go along about your business? let me alone" that I struck him again and followed it up by stabbing.

John Smith sworn. I live 417 East 69th st. and on the 1st of May I heard a shout of "police" between 70th and 80th sts. on First ave. and went there and found Coffey holding Schneider by the coat. Coffey said, "I am cut, I am weak from the loss of blood. I will drop. Hold this man." I said, "he wont run away. Schneider said in German, "Let me alone, I did not do it." He tried to get away from Coffey's grip and ran two or three steps. Coffey shouted "Police" and the officer came and arrested the prisoner. I gave my handkerchief to Coffey to keep the blood from flowing. I did not see the knife; the sergeant took my name as a witness; I saw the knife in the station house, it had blood on it.

The complainant may have had a glass offer but he was able to talk sensibly and to walk straight.

Christian Kroell sworn. I reside 417 East Sixty ninth st; I work in a dry goods store; on the first of May at about one o'clock at night near the corner of First Ave and 80th st. I heard the cry of "murder," "watch," "police". I went across the street I saw Daniel Coffey and the old German man; Coffey said, "he stabbed me"; he was cut, he held the defendant and the defendant tried to get away, he dragged Coffey after him two or three steps. I heard Coffey say, I am weak, I am losing blood. I went up to the station house when the policeman came down. I saw the man searched. I saw the knife taken out of his right pocket and another pen knife, he took that out himself. There was blood on the knife when I saw it. He said it was not his knife. Coffey clung pretty tight and the German was trying to break away. I don't know anything about the fight. I never had seen these people before.

James Keenan sworn and examined.
I am an officer of the 27th precinct; on the 1st of May at about one o'clock at night I was patrolling near the corner of First Avenue and Eightieth St. I heard shouts of "police", and I went from 83rd St to 80th St. I found two men having hold of each other; they were both covered with blood. Daniel Coffey's clothes were all full of blood and Schneider's face was full of blood. I saw the witnesses Smith and Krowl. When they told me he stabbed him I took hold of this man, and I told some of them to put the handkerchief to his side.
They helped him till they got another policeman. Then I got to the station house we sent for an ambulance; the prisoner was taken to the desk. The Sergeant told me to look for the knife in 80th St.; when I was looking for the knife an ambulance came up. I could not find it. Then I went back they were stitching Schneider's eye.
When he was fixed up I had this Coffey fixed up. I was taking him out to the ambulance. I was present when he was searched. When I took Coffey out to the ambulance the Sergeant was in the act of searching him; when I went back to the desk and he was taking the knife out of his pocket he just had the knife out, hold of it one side; the knife was wet with blood at the time; there was two knives; he took it out of his righthand pants pocket.

Cross Examined. I arrested the prisoner at one o'clock and got to the station house a quarter past one and it must have been thirty five minutes before I got back to the station house after looking for the knife. The prisoner after the time I got hold of him ~~he~~ could not have ~~taken~~ the knife out of his pocket. He denied that it was knife which was taken from him at the station house.

Jacob Schneider, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live in Robinson Avenue, Morrisania. I am 25 years old and have been two years in the country. On the night in question I was at my brother's in 78th St. and was going home. On the First Avenue I passed the station in 80th St. I went up to 81st St on my way to Second Ave., and when I turned the corner I asked the complainant if that was the right way to go to the depot. He hit me in the eye and I said, "Leave me alone! I don't want to have anything to do with you." Then he came behind me and hit me in the neck and he say, "you get out of here, you Dutch son of a b. h." Then I turned around and told him to leave me alone. He did not leave me alone; then he came back and he caught me here by the sleeve on the other side; he caught me by the arms and he tore my sleeve and threw me down to the ground. Then another man came up and said, "you leave alone this man, that is enough," and I told him also to leave me alone. When the complainant let go of me I was looking around for my hat, and the complainant said that he was stabbed. Then we went down to the corner; about seven or eight men stood around me and the complainant also; they kept me there till the policeman came and I was taken to the station house; then that knife was found in my pocket. I never had such a knife and I never saw that knife before. The knife shown to me know is my knife. The time the third man came up and said to the complainant to let me go, that is enough, was the time when I was cut over the eye. I never stabbed Coffey that night. I had no other knife with me than the little knife and I could not do anything with it. The complainant commenced to beat me first. The other scratch I have on my face I got in Germany. I fell when I went out and I cut myself. On this night in question I had six glasses of beer. I am a brewer from Germany and I can stand beer.

Kilian Schneider sworn. I am a framer and my place of business is in Fifth St. I am a foreman; the defendant worked for me last summer for about a year; he is a good fellow; he is working every day; he is a quiet and peaceable man. I never heard anything against him.

Cross Examined. I have been in this country two years. The defendant only drinks beer; no liquor; he is very friendly when he gets too much beer.

John Housher, sworn and examined. I am in the framing business and know the defendant; he was working for me since last October 1886 till about three weeks ago; he is a very quiet man and always was so while he was in my employ; he is an industrious young man.

The <sup>defense</sup> ~~people~~ rested their case.

Rebutting Evidence.

James Keenan recalled by Mr. Purdy. Was this man, the defendant, under the influence of liquor that night when you arrested him? Yes sir, slightly. Had he any opportunity, or was it possible for this complainant to have put this knife in the pocket of this defendant after you arrested him? No sir. By the Court. When you arrested this man, the defendant, I understood you to say that you put him on your left side and walked with him to the station house, is not that right? Yes sir. I always do that so as to have control of the right hand. I met a policeman on the way and had him assist the complainant, the stabbed man and he walked behind me and I had the prisoner and the assistance of two citizens, one of whom is in Court. The fight was all over when I got there. Both of the men, the complainant and the defendant were under the influence of liquor; but they were able to walk.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree. He was sent to the penitentiary for one year and fined one hundred dollars.
