the property of deponent

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by John W. Genthies, now here, for the reasons following, to wit;

At about midnight on the night of the 29th day of August 1882 deponent closed said store and securely fastened said doors. At about two o'clock deponent was awakened by officer Michael Hickey of the 16th precinct, who and going down from her room over said store to said store she missed said money and the cash drawer containing the same which deponent had noticed shortly before midnight. Deponent also found deponent 0727

The front door two boxes of cigars which she had left on the cigar counter before closing the store. The fan light over the street door which deponent had closed at ^{about} midnight was open when deponent entered the store as aforesaid. Deponent is informed by officer ~~Michael Kelly~~ Kelly that at said time he saw said Jenkins enter said store, while another man stood outside. On the approach of said officer the man outside ran away, and said officer, going to the door, found it closed. Shortly thereafter it was opened a little and deponent, said officer, going his way in, found said Jenkins in said store.

from the person

~~of No. Hotel Keeper of 319 West 125th Street~~ being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 16th day of September 1882 at the 12th Ward — City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, and from his person; in the night time the following property, viz.: ~~one~~ gold watch, of the value of seventy-five dollars

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by James H. Johnson, (now here), for the reason following, to-wit: That on said day and previous to said larceny, deponent carried said gold watch in the left side pocket of the vest then worn by deponent upon his person, that on said day at about three o'clock in the morning, and while in Lyen Brewery Park on 108th Street and 9th Avenue; deponent missed said watch from said neck pocket and his ^{possession} ~~possession~~, where said watch a few minutes prior was contained. That during the space of time when deponent last saw said watch and when he first ~~noticed~~ missed the same, the prisoner here present named James H. Johnson, was the ~~only~~ person near deponent's person; that immediately prior to when deponent missed said watch said Johnson had approached deponent

0763

~~as soon as~~ as said Johnson had moved away from deponent, deponent noticed the chain which said watch immediately before had been attached, dangling loose from deponent's neck and said watch missing.
 Deponent therefore verily believes and charges that said watch was feloniously taken stolen, and carried away from the nineteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- two, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms two coats of the value of ten dollars each, two pairs of trousers of the value of eight dollars each, two vests of the value of five dollars each, one watch of the value of ten dollars, one pistol of the value of three dollars and one razor of the value of one dollar of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Charles Pearson then and there being found, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

0826

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said

William Jones

of the crime of RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS, committed as follows:

The said

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the nineteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms two coats of the value of ten dollars each, two pairs of trousers of the value of eight dollars each, two vests of the value of five dollars each, one watch of the value of ten dollars each, one pistol of the value of three dollars and one razor of the value of one dollar of the goods, chattels and personal property of

by a certain person or persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen, taken and carried away from the said

unlawfully and unjustly, did feloniously receive and have; he the said

then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels, and personal property to have been feloniously stolen, taken and carried away against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

JOHN McKEON, District Attorney.
