APPENDIX A

For the People,

Assoc. Placemat-Asstn. [unclear] [unclear]

For the Defendants,

Dr. F. F. Price.

JOHN BRENN, a witness for the Fed 1s, sworn, testified:

I am a farmer living on Bear Island. On the 7th. of September I was at No. 25 Washington Street in this city. I had spent the previous night at my brother's house in Manhattanville and I came down to Washington Street in the morning. At 12 o'clock I got a pint of beer and got some cheese and bread in the saloon at No. 25 Washington Street. After I had eaten the bread and cheese I went out from the saloon into the yard. On returning from the yard I was met by these two defendants. I had $27 in my vest pocket on the right side. It consisted of five five-dollar bills and one dollar bill. I am positive that it was ^{the} two men now at the bar who ap-preached me, as I came from the yard back to the saloon. I heard one of these men say to the other "Keep his mouth shut". Then Jarrett said to the other man "You shut up his mouth so that I can get his money". Then they took my money and they ran away. Hickey is the man who held his hand over my mouth while the defendant Jarrett put his hand into my pocket and took my money. After the defendant Jarrett had taken my money they both ran away. They ran through the hall of the house and up stairs in the next house. I went out into the street and looked for a policeman. The defendant Hickey did nothing more than put his hand over my mouth. I followed them out into the street, but as they went into another house I lost sight of them. I walked about a block and got a policeman. I complained to him of what had been done to me. I went with the policeman back to the house, but we could not find either of the defendants. On the same afternoon I saw one of the defendants and when I saw him I went down to the Station House and got a policeman to come with me. I waited there until after six o'clock and finally I got the policeman. He came with me and arrested both of the defendants at about nine o'clock that night.

Cross-examination:

- Q What time was the arrest made ?
 A Nine o'clock in the evening .
 Q Now, at the time that the officer came to arrest them,

3.

Where did he arrest them? A One flight of stairs up.

Q In No. 27 Washington Street? A In a saloon. It was a saloon where they were.

Q Did the other man run away from the saloon? A Yes, sir. When we entered the saloon, myself and the policeman, the younger man left the saloon and went upstairs one flight and it was there he was caught.

Q How many times did you go to the Police Station? A Five times I went to the Station house.

Q You saw these men around the same place after they had robbed you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did either of them speak to you? A At five o'clock one of them shook hands with me.

Q Did you drink together? A Not at five o'clock.

Q Did you drink with him at any time? A That was at about 12 o'clock.

Q How much did you drink with him? A Three pints.

Q Did you know these defendants before that day? A No, sir.

WILLIAM SHANAHAN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a member of the Municipal Police Force of this city, assigned to duty in the Second Precinct. On the 7th. of September the complainant who was last on the stand came and spoke to me on the street at about quarter past six in the evening. He made a complaint to me that he had been robbed of the sum of $27. I went with him to the house No. 25 Washington Street, but could find no trace of the defendants. I kept on my beat until about nine o'clock in the evening and then this man came to me again and told me something. In consequence of what he told me I went to the house No. 27 Washington Street and also to No. 29 Washington Street. We entered No. 29, which is a saloon, looking for the parties. I had another officer along with me and placed him in the doorway. I went in the liquor store. When I got into the liquor store these two men who at the bar ran out. I followed one of them into No. 31 Washington Street. He ran upstairs one flight and I arrested him in the room of a witness by the name of Mrs. Murphy. That man was Barrett. I brought him downstairs and the complainant identified him as the man who had taken his money. He afterwards identified Hickey as the man who had held his mouth.

Cross-examination:

I found the defendant concealed between the bed and the wall in Mrs. Murphy's room. I did not notice any other man in the room at the time I arrested him. The complainant and I were both together when I went into the saloon and saw these men run out.

KATE MURPHY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 29 Washington Street. On the 7th. of September last I was in my room. The defendant Barrett came into my apartments on that evening at about nine o'clock. I do not know him personally. I am positive he is the man that came in. Shortly after he came in two officers came to the door and one ran into my bedroom and arrested the defendant. They took him out of my apartments and that is all the knowledge I have of the case.

MARY SPINNER, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 25 Washington Street and resided there on the 7th. of September last. I saw the complainant in my lodging house at that number at about nine o'clock in the morning. I also saw the two defendants Barrett and Hickey in his company. They were talking together for a couple of hours and drinking. Then I saw the complainant leave the bar-room to go into the yard, and shortly afterwards the two defendants followed him out. Then the complainant came in and said to me that his money was gone. I didn't see these men after that until late in the evening.

JOHN H. LYONS, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a Police Officer of this city, assigned to duty in the Second Precinct. I arrested the defendant Hickey and took him to the Station House.

The plea of "not guilty" was withdrawn and the prisoner Barrett pleaded "guilty of the crime of robbery in the second degree".

Ans 1

I am an oysterman and cook employed in No. 3 and 5 Exchange Place, Jersey City, at the present time. On the 17th. of August last I lived at 178 Thomson St. I saw the defendant on that day in front of No. 188 Thomson Street. That is a lager beer saloon. I met him on the sidewalk and he called to me and said he had a pool check and he offered to sell it to me for three cents. He said it was good for a drink or a cigar or anything I wanted to get, and I says: "All right; I will go in and see whether it is good or not". I went inside and asked the bar-keeper if it was good and he says: "Yes; it is good for a beer or ginger ale or a cigar or whatever you want". I spent it in there and I came out and when I got out on the sidewalk again the defendant asked me:

2.

"Do you think you are going to get the best of me?" and I says: "No; I am going to give you three cents". I put my hand in my pocket to give it to him and when I was doing that he raised his left hand up like that. There was a soda water wagon standing right alongside of the gutter. He threw my head back against it and cut me twice across the forehead. I tried to get away from him and the third time he got my right hand and I have the three scars on my face yet. I did not go for a policeman then, but I went home. I did not come to the Station House at all. When I saw the defendant the next day I had an officer arrest him. He told the officer that he did not hit me with any knife; that he hit me with his hand.

Cross-examination:

- Q Where did you say you lived? A 178 Thomson Street.
- Q What sort of a house is that? A It is a furnished room house.
- Q How many checks did the defendant give you? A One.
- Q You said you would pay him three cents for it? A Yes, sir.
- Q And you refused to pay him? A No sir; I did not.
- Q Did you attempt to pay him? A Yes, sir.
- Q Would you have paid him? A Yes, sir. I put my hand in my pocket to give it to him and he cut me with the knife.
- Q Do you mean to tell the jury that you saw a knife in this man's hand? A Yes, sir; I will swear to that.

3.

- Q What kind of a knife ? A A pen-knife.
- Q It was an ordinary pen-knife ? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did you first see this knife ? A After he cut me.
- Q You testify that this man threw you against a wagon?
- A Yes, sir. He put his hand on me and shoved me.
- Q And after he did that, didn't your head commence to bleed almost immediately? A Yes, sir.
- Q From the place where you struck against the wagon? A No, sir; where he cut me with the knife.

JOHN HAYNES, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a waiter in the restaurant of Mr. Johnson in Bleecker Street. I was in front of 178 Thomson St. on the 21st. of August last. I saw the complainant there and I saw the defendant there. It was in the evening when I saw them after 8 o'clock. This young man was on the side of the door going downstairs and I saw Sheridan up at the bar taking a glass of beer. I went in. A few moments afterwards a young man said there was somebody cut outside. I walked outside and the complainant asked me if I would not please wash him off. He was all bleeding when I saw him. That is all I saw. I did not see the actual cutting take place.

Cross-examination:

- Q Did you, at any time, see anything of a knife ? A No, sir; I did not. I did not see even the man cut. I seen him after he was cut.
- Q Did this man look to you as if he had been cut by a knife ? A As far as I could see he was; but I could not tell you whether it was made with a knife or what it was made with. I knew he was bleeding freely and always putting water on his forehead.

PETER J. ELANCHE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an officer of the Municipal Police assigned to duty in the 15th. Precinct. I first saw the complainant in this case on the 19th. day of August. He came to me in Thomson Street. I could not tell you the number. He told me he wanted a certain man arrested. I went up to him and I told him what he was arrested for, for cutting this man, and he said he did not cut him. Then I asked him what was the trouble which he had with the complainant and he said he had a pool ticket and he offered to sell it for three cents to this man and that this man went in to see whether it was good and drank the pool ticket, came out and would not pay him. And he said if anybody tried to do him he would do them.

Cross-examination:

I have seen the prisoner in this locality for about a week. He is a stranger there.

DEFENSE:

WILLIAM E. HOLIDAY, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I have been in this city a little over a month. Before that I resided in Philadelphia for several years. I was born in Alexandria, Virginia. Since I have been in this city I have been at work. On the evening of the 17th. of August I came from work at about six o'clock. I was working then at the Empire Steam Laundry. I came to this saloon where they played pool. I went in there and stayed quite a while and had several drinks. I came out and found the complainant lying down beside the saloon. I supposed he was drunk and was lying there asleep. There were several other white fellows there with him. I asked him if he would buy two pool tickets, two for five cents. He raised up at that time and he says: "Let me look at them". I handed them to him. He took the two and went into the saloon. I stayed outside and by looking in through the door I could see him taking a drink of beer. He came out. I held my hand out and I says: "Are you going to pay me?" and he says: "Oh, go away. I am not going to give you anything." I says: "You know it is not right to take anything like that and not pay for it"; and he says: "Well, you are a man and I am a man. If you can, why take it out of me"; so I followed him up. This time quite a crowd collected and I followed him up quite a little ways. He called me several vile names and pushed me and when he pushed me the second time I struck at him and he grabbed my arms. He was standing near a wagon and after he grabbed my arms he fell back and knocked his head against this wagon. When he rose up again the blood was flowing all over his face and I got away from him at that time. Afterwards I went into the saloon when they were washing the blood off his face. I went to work as usual and on Tuesday and Wednesday when I was not doing anything I was around in this vicinity. On Wednesday the officer arrested me. I do not carry a knife. I had no knife in my pocket on that evening. I did not use a knife on the person of the complainant. I did not touch him until after he had pushed me.

Cross-examination:

- Q When he refused to give you the money for the tickets you pushed him, is that it? A He pushed me.
- Q He pushed you away from him? A Yes, sir.
- Q Then you struck at him? A I struck at him.
- Q You knocked him down? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where did you strike him when you knocked him down? A I struck him on the cheek.
- Q You knocked him right over? A Yes, sir. He was under the influence of liquor.
- Q Had you ever seen this man before? A I had seen him around there several times drunk.
- Q From the time this complainant says you stabbed him until the time you had him arrested, did you see him at all? A No, sir.
- Q You had not seen him? A No, sir. I came back when he was washing his face.
- Q He saw you there? A I don't know whether he saw me or not. I was in there.

HENRY SHERIDAN, the complainant, recalled in rebuttal:

- Q You saw this man after this fight occurred and before you had him arrested, didn't you? A No, sir. I seen him the first time and I seen him the day I had him arrested.
- Q Didn't you see him that same night? A No, sir.
- Q Were you taken back into the saloon? A No, sir.

Q Where was the blood washed off your face ? A It was washed off in the saloon.

The jury returned a verdict of "guilty of assault in the second degree".

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

AGAINST

Charles North

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

Charles North —

The said Charles North, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fourteenth day of August — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Charles F. Rodolph — of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said Charles F. Rodolph, —

That a certain paper writing in the words and figures following, to wit:

"No. 76 New York, Aug 4th 1891

New York County National Bank,

Pay to the order of C. North & Co.

Fifty Five ⁶³/₁₀₀

Dollars

$ 55. ⁶³/₁₀₀ #

W. H. Allen"

and upon the date of which there was seen and there written a certain endorsement as follows, to wit: "R. North & Co," which said paper containing the said Chester North then and there produced and delivered to the said Charles E. Rodachson, was then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money and of the value of thirty five dollars and sixty three cents.

And the said Charles E. Rodachson — then and there believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Chester North — and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Chester North the sum of thirty five dollars and sixty three cents in money, lawful money of the United States of America and of the value of thirty five dollars and sixty three cents,

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said

— Charles E. Rodachson —

And the said Chester North — did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property, from the possession of the said Charles E. Rodachson, by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Charles E. Rodachson, — of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said paper containing which the said Chester North as aforesaid then and there produced and delivered to the said Charles E. Rodachson, was not then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money, and was not of the value of thirty five dollars and fifty three cents, or of any value whatever, but was wholly worthless.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Charles North — to the said Charles E. Roddick — was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said
Charles North —
 at the time of making the same then and there well knew ;

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said
Charles North — in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Charles E. Roddick — then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

New York, Sept. 10, 1891.

Indictment filed September 14, 1891.

Indicted for grand larceny in the second degree.

Appearances:

For the People,

Asst. Dist-Atty. Henry E. Stapler;

For the Defendant,

Jacob Berlinger, Esq.

SAMUEL ADAMS, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am engaged in the dry goods business at the corner of 21st. Street and Sixth Avenue. My store is located on the northwest corner. On the 24th. day of August I had three gold watches in the show-case in front of my store. In the case was a lot of other valuable jewelry. The show-case was right outside of the main entrance to our store. I was at my place of business on the 24th. day of August. I heard a lady on the sidewalk shout out that somebody had robbed our case. This was somewhere between four and five o'clock in the evening. I immediately ran out and saw this fellow disappearing around the corner of 22d. Street. He must have run up the Avenue and was just disappearing around the corner, running towards Broadway. I followed to the corner, but did not follow any further. One of my employes followed the defendant and saw him arrested by the officer. He was brought back to our store and identified by the lady I have spoken of as the individual who had robbed our case. I heard the prisoner say that he did not do it. I did not go to the Station House. The value of the property taken was $52. I did not see the man's face as he disappeared around the corner.

DENIS MULCAHY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a window-dresser in the employ of Adams & Company at 21st. Street and 6th. Avenue. I was so employed by them on the 24th. of August last. Between 4 and 5 o'clock on the afternoon of that day my attention was attracted by a lady who shouted: "Look out here, your show-case is broken open and robbed". I did look out and I saw a man disappear towards 22nd. Street. I followed in pursuit and shouted: "Stop thief". The person whom I was following went up 22nd. Street to 5th. Avenue, down 5th. Avenue to 21st. Street. I lost sight of him for a moment. He went into Park & Tilford's side door and came out the front door. The officer saw him coming out and stopped him. The nearest I got to the prisoner at any time was half a block. I saw his face when he was turning around the corner of 22nd. Street. I am positive that the defendant is the same man whom I saw turning the corner of 22nd. Street. When I returned to the store I examined the showcase and found that the padlock had been broken off.

Cross-examination:

Q You saw this man's face at the corner of 22nd. Street and Fifth Avenue ? A No, sir; 22d. Street and 6th. Avenue.

Q That was within half a block of your store ? A Yes, sir.

Q What time was this ? A Five o'clock in the afternoon.

Q That is the first time you saw his face ? A Yes, sir; that was the first time I saw his face.

Q That was about a hundred feet from where the show-case was ? A About a hundred feet.

Q How did you find out that this was the man who broke the show-case ? A A lady who was here called my attention to it.

ELIZABETH NICHOLS, witness for the People, sworn, testified :

I reside at No. 88 Bond Street, Brooklyn. On the 24th. of August I was on Sixth Avenue in front of the store of Adams & Company at five o'clock in the afternoon. I was looking in the window and I came by the show-case that is outside of the main entrance. I saw this young fellow standing by the case. He acted rather suspiciously. I saw something in his hand opening the case and I knew he was breaking it. It was a key. I stepped inside to see what he would do and he saw me. He looked right at me and I at him. He broke the case and took something out. I saw it glitter. I knew it was gold. I immediately called a floor-walker who was standing right in the doorway and told him that the case had been broken open. I then waited to see if they would bring him back.

Q This is the man whom you saw (pointing to the defendant)?

A Yes; he ran right away to 22nd. Street and turned up 22nd. Street. He went pretty lively.

Q Did you see Mr. Mulcahy, the man who was just on the stand ? A Yes, sir.

Q And he was the man whom you called out ? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see him pursue the defendant ? A Yes, sir.

Q And you saw this young man brought back to the store ?

A Yes, sir.

Q And you identified him as the man who was in the case ? A Yes, sir.

Cross-examination:

Q Had you ever seen this young man before that day ?

A Never.

Q Did you go to the Station House ? A No, sir.

Q Did you go to the Police Court ? A No, sir. I identified him in the store.

Q Did you say in the store at that time that you thought the man who was at the show-case was a clerk in the establishment ? A Yes, sir. I did say it, that it looked to me as if it was a clerk; but, I said that the man having his hat on attracted my attention directly to him. I knew that if he was a clerk in the store he would not have his hat on.

HENRY AITKEN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a Police Officer assigned to duty in the 17th. Precinct. On the afternoon of the 24th. of August at about five o'clock I was on post at the corner of Broadway and 21st. St. My attention was attracted by a crowd chasing this prisoner and crying out "Stop thief". I saw him enter Park & Tilford's grocery store at the corner of 21st. Street and Broadway. I went in there and one of the employes had caught him. I brought him immediately out. I met Mr. Mulcahy who was in pursuit of him and he informed me then that the defendant had broken open a show-case at Mr. Adams' store and stolen something out of it. I searched the defendant at that time and found nothing on his person. I took him immediately back to Mr. Adams' store and Mrs. Nichols was waiting there and she said to me: "That is the man". I then ascertained the full particulars of the case and on examination I found that the lock had been wrenched off Mr. Adams' show-case. I took the defendant to the Station House. A charge was made against him the following morning in the Police Court. The defendant made a statement to me that he did not commit this offense, and he knew that if Mrs. Nichols was ^{not} there he would not be convicted. He said if Mrs. Nichols could be kept away there would nothing happen to him.

The prisoner withdrew his plea of not guilty and tendered the plea of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree, which was accepted by the Court.
