 Charles Cameron Indictment for burglary in the third degree and receiving stolen goods. Robert C. Kennedy, sworn and examined, testified.

Court of General Sessions. Part F Before Judge Goldenshere. March 16, 1891 Where do you live? No 124 West Sixteenth street.
 What is your business? Optician. Where is your place of business? No 432 Fifth Avenue.
 I don't know in what Ward it is. Were you in your premises the afternoon of the 3<sup>d</sup> of March?
 I was. I saw the prisoner on that day at the window in front of the store. I was standing in the middle of the store on the 3<sup>d</sup> of March about 11 o'clock and noticed two boys standing in front of the window. Of course it being usual for people to stand in front of the window I paid no attention to it at first. I noticed a drumming on top and finally paid no attention to that, but afterwards I heard scratching like glass scratching and went out after the boy was gone. I had noticed this boy standing directly where the window had been cracked before and his accomplice was standing further out, probably for a more convenient way of passing the goods to him. I made a start towards the window and noticed some goods had been gone. - four pairs of glasses, a magnifying glass and an eye glass and Cameron's face was toward the window and 0316

I saw his face plainly. I asked my friend who came in if he would wait a minute. I got my hat and went out. I looked to see which they went to see whether they turned the corner of Twenty ninth St. or not. I saw them between Twenty eighth and Twenty ninth Sts. I did not run after them. I walked pretty lively after them till I got down. I saw the two boys talking and laughing together. I still followed them as they struck Twenty seventh St. where they stepped up to the grating, where there was quite a number of other boys. I saw the other one with glasses on his face and recognized them as mine; the other boy was about the same size as the prisoner. I grabbed him, he turned around and dodged and before I could grab him he was off. Then I grabbed this boy Cameron and the moment I grabbed them he made the remark "I did not do anything." I did not accuse him of doing anything. Going further on he said, "I was not up there." Nobody said you were anywhere yet, I did not say you were up anywhere. The officer came along and I handed him to him. On the way to the station he would not disclose anything until within a block or so of the 29th precinct station house, and he wanted to know if I would let him go if he told who the other boy was? I told him he had said he did not know where the other boy was or where he lived. He said, "I don't know where he lives, I think he lives in Twenty ninth or Thirty first St." but of course we held him. I found no property on the person of the prisoner. Cross Examined. I went through two of the prisoner's pockets in the street, but did not make a thorough search until we got to the station house. Did you do that at his request? Yes sir; he asked me to search him. What was he doing in front of the store? He was standing there apparently looking into the window. What attracted my attention was the rapping on the glass. I saw only the side face of the other boy, not enough to recognize him. Cameron was standing directly in front of where the glass was broken. The window was broken down in the corner and Cameron was standing directly in front of that; I broke the glass about a week ago and I fastened it on the inside. I did not have time to fix it; there was paper pasted on it; part of the paper had been pushed off and the glass had been pushed in. I saw the window about 15 minutes before the boys were at it. I had been putting things in the window. I grabbed the boy who was with the prisoner; he broke away from me and ran; this prisoner tried to run; he dodged from the side; he did not get beyond my reach because I was too quick for him. They were so close together they did not discover I was close behind him until I had one. There was not any running done at all.

James Smith sworn. I am a member of the steamboat squad of police and was on duty the 3<sup>d</sup> of March at Gibbons' garden. I arrested the prisoner; he was in charge of Mr. Kennedy; he first denied all knowledge of the stealing; he said he had nothing to do with it and knew nothing of it. I finally asked him, "Are you going to shoulder the whole of this thing?" He told Mr. Kennedy if we would let him go he would tell who the boy was and where he could be got; he gave the name of a boy but I do not remember it.
Cross Examined. I searched the prisoner in the presence of Mr. Kennedy but did not find anything. When the boy said to Mr. Kennedy that he would tell him who the other boy was if he <sup>would</sup> let him go, he (Mr. K.) said it was out of his power; he could not do anything with him while he was under arrest. Charles Cameron, sworn and examined testified. I am going on 14 years, I black boots for a living. I worked for A. J. Ferry, a brass funder three months. I heard Mr. Kennedy's evidence. I was standing outside the door but I did not take anything. I did not push in and break the window; there was another boy there. Patrick Mahoney pushed the window in. I did not know exactly what he was going to do; he told me to stand there, I stood there and he went a little way up from there, pushed in the window and took the things. I made no effort to run.

0319

The prisoner pleaded guilty to petty larceny. He was sent to the Catholic Protectory.

TESTIMONY.

Mr. S. Raper, M.D. living room, says: I have made an autopsy on the body of Ann Cunningham at the New-York Hospital on the 29th day of January 1881. The body presented extensive burns over lower part of trunk; left thigh, knee and leg; right thigh, knee and leg down to ankle, and a slight burn on left elbow.

Examination of the inner organs revealed general congestion of left lung with some mucus in bronchi; the right lung was congested in its lower lobe only. Perimeter over urinary was found slightly thickened but the brain otherwise normal. The liver was large and fatty. All other organs were perfectly normal.

Death was caused by the Burns above referred to.

TESTIMONY.

Anthony M. Gilligan, being sworn says:
 I am an officer of the 8th Precinct. On January 19th at 8.15 A.M. I was going on post <sup>when</sup> Officer Eunkor of 8 Precinct informed me of the case of Ann Cunningham and told me to look out for Peter Langfield and bring him in as he was charged ~~to~~ with setting fire to her clothes. I looked for him and found him in a bar room on Broadway at a King St. I took him to the station-house after considerable trouble as he resisted arrest. Before I could move him out of the store another Officer had come along and we both took him to the station-house. Before that he told me that he touched a match to the clothes of the woman to get her out. From there I took him to the New-York Hospital for identification. I took him into the ward where the woman was lying and asked her whether she knew him. She said she did and that he was the man who had set fire to her clothes. The prisoner said nothing, but <sup>previously</sup> had acknowledged in my hearing in the office to the Superintendent that he had set fire to her clothes to get rid of her as she was drunk and he could not get her out. From the Hospital I took him to the Court, where he made a similar statement and was committed.

Lizzie Hegarty, being sworn, says: I live at 82 King St. Was in bed asleep on the <sup>early</sup> morning of January 19th and was woken up by hearing two screams coming from the yard of our house. After listening a moment I arose and in my night-gown I went to the window and looked out. Saw the deceased woman come up the steps of the rear-building and the prisoner with a pile in his hand behind her. I heard the prisoner say to the woman that if she came into the yard again he would scold her as she had been drunk all day. The woman made no reply but went into the rear-house. I then opened my room door and found the house full of smoke. After it subsided in a short time I again went to bed again. My husband was in bed sound asleep and never knew any thing about it until I told him in the morning.

Sarah Ann Connors, being sworn says: I live in rear house of 82 King St. On January 19th between 3 and 4 in the morning I heard the woman's screams and looking out of the window into the <sup>yard</sup> saw the prisoner jump down out of the hall into the yard. Her clothes were burnt and I could still see sparks of fire about her clothes. I called out to the prisoner "that he must have done it" to which he replied "that she done it herself". He also said that he did not know where the hydrant was and I said to him that he knew quite well where the water was. He then got a pail and threw two pails of water onto the woman who was lying in the yard. He then remarked to me, that the deceased was "an old bawd that came off of the street". The woman then got up and went into the house followed by the man. I noticed considerable smoke in the house, but I went to bed again soon after.

 Susanna Druis, being sworn, says: I reside in rear apartments of front building of 82 King St on the second floor. On January 19th at 2 A.M. I heard a noise in the yard. I got up and looked out of the window when I saw sparks of fire and saw a man with a pail in his hands about 2 feet away from the sparks. Did not see the woman because it was too dark and too far. Could not see the man's face and did not <sup>know</sup> him. Heard him throw water but did not know what on except the sparks of fire which disappeared afterwards. Heard a man's talk in the yard. Also heard <sup>a</sup> woman's voice, but did <sup>not</sup> see any woman. Next morning I heard what had happened.

TESTIMONY.

Julia Canfield being sworn says: I reside at 82 King St. Room building on January 19th. I know deceased woman for 8 or 9 years, who was in the habit to come to my house during my absence. On January 18th in the morning I went out to work and returned at about 4 P.M. when I found deceased lying down on the floor of my room in front of a red-hot stove. She was all alone, my husband being absent. The woman remained lying on the floor asleep until 11 P.M. About 5 P.M. I went out for a short time and when I returned I met the woman coming back with a pail of beer. I took the pail away from her and threw the beer into slop pail. The woman then took the floor again and went to sleep. At about 11 P.M. I went out to sleep at my sister's in 64 Charleston St. I expected my husband to be drunk and I concluded to leave rather than to be at home. Next morning at between 4 and 5 I was called by my husband who knocked at my sister's window. My sister opened the window and he said to her: "That woman got burnt." I knew what he meant but did not believe it. I dressed myself and went ~~home~~<sup>down</sup> alone. My husband had left and I did not see him again until I saw him in prison. When I got home I found deceased lying in my bed. I asked her what was the matter and she said that she got burnt.

WHEREAS, the said Thomas Curran was charged before the undersigned, Police Justice as aforesaid, on the oath of William H. H. with Misdemeanor, for having, on the 10th day of March 1887, in the City and County of New York, aforesaid, sold and disposed of strong, spirituous and intoxicating liquors, in a quantity less than five gallons thereof, without License, and in violation of the law in such cases made and provided.

AND WHEREAS, he has been brought before said Justice to answer said charge and upon examination of the whole matter pursuant to the statute it appearing to the said Justice that the said offence has been committed and that there is probable cause to believe said defendant to be guilty thereof; and the said offence being bailable by said Justice, he did thereupon order the said defendant to find Sufficient Bail in the sum of One Hundred Dollars, for his appearance at the next Court of General Sessions, to be held in said City and County, to answer to any indictment to be preferred against him for said offence.

Now, therefore, the condition of this Recognizance is such, That if the above named at the next Court of General Sessions, to be held in said City and County, on the First Monday next to answer to any indictment that may be preferred against him for said offence, and abide the order of the said Court, and not depart therefrom, without leave then this Recognizance to be void; otherwise to remain in full force.

Taken and acknowledged before me, the }
and hear aforesaid.

One cloth Coat, One cloth vest, Two pair of cloth pantaloons, one muslin shirt and one pair of Opera glasses, said property being in all of the value of about Forty Dollars the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Joseph Cherry (now here) for the reasons following to wit:

That said clothing was hanging a rack in a room on the third floor of said premises on the morning of the above date. That on said morning deponent left said Cherry in said room when he was going to work in the morning and when deponent returned in the evening he found that the aforesaid property had been stolen. That one Mrs. Peel of No 61 Monroe Street informed deponent that she saw said Cherry
