Doubts Prison 3/19-87.

Honored Judge.

I feel you will read these lines from an effort to Prison, Monday the 21st inst, and the anniversary of my birth. I have just learned is the day fixed for my trial before your Honor. I earnestly & with a heart of sadness appeal to your mercy to act generous as in your kindness of heart you can possibly do, it is the first time in my life I stand before a Court to be punished for a misdoing, and as sure as there is an Almighty Being to come will it never never occur again, bowed down with shame & disgrace my speech can hardly find words to express, my heart is heavy if one would only stop a few moments to think what great wrong a crime is, even if mistreated, it would do far better never to do a deed to be ashamed of. I therefore ask your Honor as a child of to Parent, to be most lenient in my case, so when I have served the sentence of the Law in your all wise judgement pronounced, I can make amends & go far far away, be the man I should, shall be, I was Lockport. I have a wife with whom I lived happy for 16 years, who through misfortune & riches she became Insane, Death in a family is a terrible blow whenever it comes, especially when robbed of one whom I loved in life, but when Insanity comes it is a two fold death & heart rendering calamity.

I engaged with Ramoth of this city Jan. 13th to take position as Dekeeman for this Michigan the sheriff only, members of the House were confined to the House next, had several consultations with his son who came to see that he was not used, I was to go on a trial trip of two months, however signing an agreement that if I did not conduct myself as a gentleman or made any traps on the House I could be recalled at any time. I was gone not 3 weeks when I received a dispatch at Detroit Michigan (which I knew) recalling me home, thinking same was over I asked to have it corrected. It came as before. I then joined the house what dispatch me and, as same was not to agreement. (I will have state I was doing quite a nice business making money trade at once, but) answer came, that for home. I was to have no business cannot fill orders, it was the season. where messages had to be busy and wired for money. The real trouble was the house was cramped for credit. I asked money, I was to be allowed 5.00 per day travelling expenses + 50% Commission on Sales, I then wanted a settlement of my acct; stating I was not willing to hear 15.00 expense travelling to Cleveland + 15.00 coming from Detroit. Mr. Russell Jr. thought it was also not fair, but he found an agreement. I signed an agreement. That must be binding, but I gave him to know that I had a right to call me back for otherwise. He stated would be more than well. Mr. Russell agreed to allow me $1000 but when settlement came I never got it. I then thought Mr Rawat had made another arrangement to take city trade & receive no salary but 7 1/2% commission, & to receive enough every week to live on, & I felt well.

Knowing I could make a living although the house was not well let.
The first week, I made $2000 & as nothing for 1000 was told to wait until to-morrow which was Saturday, that being an inclement day storm & raining. Mr Rawat did not come down, & on asking the young man for a few dollars, said he had it not, although I seen him have at least twenty five dollars.
Fifteen minutes before hand, I concluded as soon as I could get another place & a final settlement to quit, in acting as City Clerkman I will state I carried about 200 sample rods of silk & 500 dozen Little made up, I took about 3 to 3 1/2 dozen for our use as when

In conclusion permit me to state Your Honor that I never was a bad boy either at home or school always standing highest at the latter, & in growing into manhood I was looked upon as an exemplary one, I have never in all my life kept bad company ^{was} never a disgrace, & when I think of those days & now I cannot help but feeling disgraced & dishonored, but I will as sure as the sun shines get back again to the days of my younger manhood & in throwing myself upon your Mercy as I shall & ask for a plea of petit larceny of which I am guilty & ask your kind heart to assist leniently with me I pray. Your obedient servant & warm hearted slave Edward. Rose.

Saturday came 7th inst I had a dozen & a half which is included in the 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ of mentioned heretofore. I was arrested by the Senior Partner, who did not wish to detain me but the Senior did, the following Monday my trial came off & they did not prosecute me as young Mr Rawat said they did not wish, & so was discharged, but four days afterwards was rearrested on same charge, at twelve o'clock at night in my room I understood young Rawat took offence in my sending his Father a statement of my ab. due me, asking for a settlement as I wanted to leave New York for all times.

This Your Honor is the truth so help me God, it seems hard after being discharged, to be rearrested on the same offence
