York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession and from the person of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

One leather pocket book containing good and lawful money of the United States of the amount and value of Twelve 99/100 Dollars ($12.99) the property of deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by

John Alonahue and Annie Alonahue (nowhere) with the intent to deprive the true owner of said property from the fact that previous to the said larceny the said property was in a pocket of a dress then and there worn by deponent while deponent was on Avenue B of said City and deponent is informed by Detective Sergeant Joseph D.

Woodruff found and discovered the said property in his Donohue's possession.

And deponent further says that the said property so found and discovered in the possession of said Donohue when so arrested, is the same which deponent had in her deponent's possession and an deponent's person previous to said
