And delivered to the

Michael Brady, of the Thirty fourth precinct, states as follows: I was informed by the Inspectors of the 20th Election District of the 24th Assembly District and by Captain Robbins of the Thirty fourth precinct that Patrick Doyle of Madison Avenue, near 172nd Street, had voted on his cousin, Patrick Doyle's name, ~~with~~ ^{South} ~~East~~ side of 172nd Street, near Washington Avenue, and was arrested by me and is now held without bail. When I arrested him he told me that one ^{and} Joseph ^{Jones, Railroad Ave. near 152nd} Groghan, took him to Muller's saloon, in 177th Street, near Washington Avenue, and there with a man named Jones assisted in making him drunk; that he then left with Groghan and went towards the polling place between Washington and Railroad Avenues, and there met Dr. R. A. Joyce, who asked him to vote, gave him a set of tickets, and told him he would give him a dollar if he would vote them, and that he told Joyce that he could not vote, that he was not registered; and Joyce then said he could, that it was all right, and that Joyce went in with him and he voted on his cousin's name. Joyce paid him the dollar after he voted. In addition to this

He told Justice Gardner at the Sixth Dist. Police Court this morning that Joyce promised ^{him} a job. He said that the Inspectors Cornelius F. Collins and Henry Heller said when one of the other Inspectors was questioning his right to vote that they knew him and that it was all right; he says further that they do know him and have known him for twelve or thirteen years and also knew that he had no right to vote, and that they have been living within a couple of blocks of him for years. ~~and are~~

Michael Brady also says that when Doyle presented himself to vote ^{the Chairman of the Board} McDrade tells him that he was accompanied by Joyce, and when he asked Doyle his residence he hesitated a good deal which caused him to be doubtful about his right to vote, but Collins and Heller saying they knew him and that it was all right he accepted the vote. Samuel ^{one of the Inspectors} Carpenter, also informs him that Doyle came in accompanied by Joyce, and that he (Carpenter) asked Doyle where he lived. He first said he lived in 171st, then in Washington Ave., and finally on Madison Avenue. He then asked him if he was not the son of Doyle the milkman who recently died on Madison Avenue, and he said yes. Inspectors Collins and Heller then said to him (Carpenter) that he was all right, that they knew him, and that on the strength of their statements that he was all right to accept his vote which he otherwise would not have done. Mr. Brady also states that ^{Washington one - between 174 & 175 str.} Henry J. Ford told him that the rightful Patrick Doyle presented himself twice and the Inspectors refused both times to accept his vote, and that he (Ford) insisted that Doyle's vote should be accepted; and that Doyle became frightened after presenting himself twice and after learning that his cousin had voted in his name, and went away.

 Ford also informs me that he had Captain Robbins of the 34th Precinct, go to the polls and inform the Inspectors that according to law and the instructions sent from the Dist. Atty's Office they must accept the vote. That they then agreed to accept it but Doyle had gone and did not return.

Patrick Doyle, of Madison Ave.
 & 172nd St. will not be 21 years of age until the 6th of August, 1883.

I reside at 179 Street 8 Valentin Ave. in the 24th Ward thirty (30) years. I am acquainted and have been for many years acquainted with the defendant on this indictment.

I am acquainted with the Patrick Doyle, who is the complainant herein and have been acquainted with him also for many years. I am acquainted with the ^{Patrick} Robert Doyle who it is declared was personated at the polls by the complainant herein, and have known him since his boyhood.

I remember the circumstances attending the casting of the complainant's vote on the election day in November 1882, mentioned in the indictment. I was on that day one of the Supervisors of election for the district in which said vote was cast, the election of a representative in Congress being then in progress. When the complainant herein offered his vote to the poll clerks in attendance, and his residence was demanded by the Chairman of the Board of Inspectors, Complainant gave his correct residence in answer thereto, namely: Madison Avenue near 0682

I72nd Street. Thereupon one of the inspectors stated that there was no record upon the books of registry of a Patrick Doyle resident as aforesaid, but that there was inscribed upon the registry the name of one Patrick Doyle resident on I7Ist Street, near by. Thereupon Samuel Gar- pent^{er}, who then resided and now resides in said 24th Ward at 173rd Street & Madison Avenue, stated that complainant was the Patrick Doyle whose name was inscribed upon the registry as aforesaid, and that the premises on which he lived ran back to I7Ist Street;—that the cow yard of said premises touched on I7Ist Street.

Thereupon William McDade, who was chairman of the Board of Inspectors in said district on that day, stated that he was acquainted with the complainant and that he knew him well, as he said, complainant had worked for him, McDade, for six months, and that the said McDade knew it was all right. Thereupon the vote of said complainant was accepted as and for the vote of the said Patrick Doyle, whose name was inscribed upon the registry of election as aforesaid.

I saw Dr. Joyce in the polling place at the time said vote was offered and accepted. I am positive that he did not, from the beginning to the end of said complainant's stay in said polling place, utter one word to the complainant, or make any statement to the inspectors or poll clerks concerning the identity of said complainant.

Joseph Grogan being duly sworn deposes and says:
I reside at 179th Street and Third Avenue, in the 24th Ward of said City. I am acquainted with the defendant on this indictment, and have been for many years. I am also acquainted both with the complainant Patrick Doyle in this case and the Patrick Doyle, whom it is charged he personated upon the day mentioned in said indictment.
Upon the day in question I was present in the election district where the vote of the said complainant was cast and took considerable interest on that day in the success of the candidate who was advocated by Dr. Joyce. At about eleven o'clock on said election day, I informed Dr. Joyce, who was at that time in Eichwort's Drug Store on 177th - Street, near Washington Avenue, in the said ward, that Patrick Doyle, the complainant herein, wanted to vote the ticket in which he, Dr. Joyce, was interested and that I would bring said complainant to Dr. Joyce for tickets. I did so at Dr. Joyce's suggestion, and he furnished him with tickets. I was present with Dr. Joyce and the complainant from the time complainant received the tickets aforesaid, from Dr. Joyce, until the time his vote was cast in the polling place in said district, and I am positive that Dr. Joyce never suggested or directed him that he should personate the Patrick Doyle resident in 171st St., or any other person; that Dr. Joyce did not offer him an money consideration whatsoever for his vote; that he, the said complainant, did not declare to said Joyce that he was not registered, and therefore could not vote, and that Dr. Joyce did not declare to him that his omission to register was of no account and would not prevent him from voting.

At the polling place, I was present when the complainant's vote was cast. I am positive that Dr. Joyce made no statement while in said polling place as to the identity of defendant. I have read the affidavit of Ferdinand Meyer of 179 Street & Valentia Ave. in the said 24th Ward, made in this matter, and verified on the *27*th day of April 1887, the circumstances and statements declared by him to have occurred and to have been made in said polling place on the occasion referred to, are true to my own knowledge.

Patrick Doyle being duly sworn deposes and says:

I reside a_t Railroad Avenue between I77th & I78th Sts. in the 24th Ward of said city. I am the complainant in the above entitled case. I, at the time of making said complaint, resided on the corner of I72nd Street and Madison Avenue, in the said ward. At the time I met Dr. Joyce previous to casting my vote, as in said complaint alleged, and from then until the time I was arrested on said election day on a charge of illegal voting, I was extremely under the influence of liquor. I was arrested at home on that day about two hours after the casting of my vote. I had been asleep just before I was arrested and that sleep was induced by my intoxicated condition.

I had been intoxicated all that day from half-past seven in the morning and remained under the influence of liquor until I was arrested as aforesaid, - I had been drinking liquor and beer. .

Robert A. Joyce

Violation of Election
Law

-----X
City and County of New York, SS:

Robert A. Joyce, the defendant on the above mentioned indictment, being duly sworn, deposes and says: I reside at 1803 Washington Avenue, in the Twenty-fourth Ward of this City. On the day of election, in said indictment specified, I resided at 1793 Washington Avenue in said Ward. I was at that time, and had for between three and four years before that been acquainted with one Patrick Doyle, who then resided on the North side of 171st St. between Washington and Railroad Avenues, in said Ward. I had not before that day been acquainted with the Patrick Doyle upon whose statement I am informed this indictment is founded, nor have I been acquainted with him since that time, although I have seen him from time to time. The substance of said last mentioned Doyle's statement has been communicated to me. I absolutely deny that on the day in question, or on any other day, I influenced or endeavored to influence him in regard to the casting of his vote, at that or any election, or that I procured or endeavored to procure him in any way to personate the said Doyle resident in 171st Street aforesaid. I absolutely deny that I ever offered or gave him the money consideration specified by him or any money consideration whatsoever, for such or any other purpose. I absolutely deny that I ever stated to him that he could vote at such or any election without previous registration. I absolutely deny that he informed me at all on that day or any day that he had not been registered as an elector for that or any election.

The Patrick Doyle, who as aforesaid, lived at the time of the said election in 171st Street in said twenty-fourth ward, was, prior to said time and ever since has been a warm friend of mine, and always had and has since consulted me in reference to the most judicious manner of casting his vote at elections. At the election mentioned I could, merely by my personal advice, have obtained the said last mentioned Patrick Doyle to vote at said election, as I desired or advised. If I had intended to procure the complainant in this case to personate the said Doyle resident in 171st Street, as aforesaid, it would only have been with the intention to secure his vote in addition to that of said Doyle resident in 171st Street, which I was confident I could procure by my advice to him.

As matter of fact, as may be more definitely ascertained by an inspection of the election returns for the election aforesaid, the said Doyle resident in 171st St. did not vote upon the day in question, although he had been previously registered, as appears from the books of registry of said election district, and although he was present or in the neighborhood of said polling place during the time that said polling place was open for the reception of votes, and was able to appear and cast his vote.

As matter of fact the circumstances attending the casting of his vote by the complainant, so far as I had any knowledge of or connection with the same, are as follows:

Upon the said election day, at about eleven A.M. while I was in Eichwort's drug store, 177th Street near Washington Avenue, I was informed by one Joseph Grogan, who resides at 179th Street and Third Avenue, in said ward, that the said complainant Doyle wanted to vote the ticket in whose success I was interested, and that he would bring him to me for tickets. He brought him to me in a few moments after said conversation, and I furnished him with a set of tickets for the purpose of voting the ticket in question. I did not at that time perceive that he was intoxicated, although I believe from his subsequent condition that he was already, to some extent, under the influence of liquor, which did not manifest itself plainly until some time after my interview with him. I had no conversation with him concerning the fact of his registration or concerning his identity, or concerning any personation of a voter, nor did I hear any proposition of that kind made to him. I was present in the polling place at the time that the said complainant cast his vote as aforesaid, and I heard him, when his residence was inquired of by the chairman of the Board of Inspectors, give his correct residence in answer thereto, to wit: Madison Avenue near 172nd Street. I made no statement while in said polling place, as to the identity or residence or registry of said complainant.
