Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

AGAINST

Moses Kadon

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Moses Kadon

attempting to commit
of the CRIME OF Refrand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Moses Kadon, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Twenty-fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-Three, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Simon Agendbaum, who was then and there indebted to one Peter Seesh in the sum of fifty dollars.

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

Simon Agendbaum.

That the said Moses Kadon had been sent by the said Peter Seesh to the said Simon Agendbaum, then and there to collect and receive from him the amount of the said indebtedness for and on behalf of the said Peter Seesh.

By color and by aid of which said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations, the said

Moses Kahn
 did then and there feloniously and fraudulently obtain from the possession of the said

Simon Greenbaum, the sum of fifty dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of fifty dollars;

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Simon Greenbaum.

with intent to deprive and defraud the said Simon Greenbaum.

of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Moses Kahn had not been sent by the said Peter Desch to the said Simon Greenbaum, then and there to collect and receive from him the amount of the said indebtedness for and on behalf of the said Peter Desch.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Moses Kalam to the said Simon Greenbaum was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said Moses Kalam at the time of making the same then and there well knew;

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said Moses Kalam in the manner and form aforesaid and by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Simon Greenbaum, ^{attempt to} then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

being duly sworn,

deposes and says, that on the 28th day of November 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:

One coat and vest, one overcoat, and a gold ring, all together of the value of about thirty dollars the property of Deponent

and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by William Henry, now here from the fact that deponent left said property hanging over a chair in said premises, the door leading into said premises was not locked.

Defendant confessed in open court with taking and stealing said property, and retaining the same.

Therefore deponent charges defendant with taking and stealing said property, and prays that he may be dealt with according to law.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County
of New York, ss:

Albert Roke

of No. 266 West 33rd Street, aged 20 years, occupation Prisoner being duly sworn,deposes and says; that on the 24 day of November 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the Day time, the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States - of the amount of thirty eight dollars and seventy eight cents

($ 38 ⁷⁸/₁₀₀)

the property of Roke & Brother - and in deponent's Care and custody -

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Edward Kleespieis (now here) from the following facts to wit: That the defendant was in the employ of deponent as Driver and Collector - and by virtue of said employment was entrusted by deponent with the collections of moneys from customers of deponent, and in the collections of said money to turn the same over to deponent, and that deponent is informed by Charles Bordenmeyer of No 57 - Avenue B. that on the aforesaid date he paid over and handed to the defendant the aforesaid sum of money in payment of goods received from deponent, and that the defendant after receiving said money went away with the aforesaid property in his possession

Deponent further says that the defendant has failed to return the aforesaid property; but has feloniously appropriated the same to his own use and benefit - Deponent therefore charges the defendant with having committed a Larceny and asks that he may be held and dealt with as the Law may direct.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Edward Kleespies

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse of the CRIME OF Edward Kleespies Grand LARCENY, in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said

Edward Kleespies

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 24th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, at the City and County aforesaid, being then and there the clerk and servant of Florian Rohe and Charles Rohe, copartners and as such clerk and servant then and there having in his possession, custody and control certain goods, chattels and personal property of the said

Florian Rohe and Charles Rohe
the true owner thereof, to wit:

the sum of thirty-eight dollars and seventy-eight cents in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of thirty-eight dollars and seventy-eight cents;

the said Edward Kleespies afterwards, to wit:

-----X

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment accuse Richard D. Kyle of the felony of escaping from lawful custody, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: on the seventeenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, at the City of New York in the County of New York aforesaid, Thomas F. Grady, Esquire, then and yet being one of the Police Justices of the said City of New York, duly and lawfully authorized and qualified to discharge and perform the duties of that office, did duly make out and sign with his name of office a commitment in due form of law, bearing date the day and year aforesaid directed to the Warden and Keeper of the City Prison of the City of New York, whereby the said Warden and Keeper was required and commanded to receive into his custody the said Richard D. Kyle in the said commitment named and described as Richard Kyle (an order having been on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, made by the said Thomas F. Grady, Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, that the said Richard D. Kyle, by the name and description of Richard D. Kyle, be held to answer to the Court of General Sessions of the Peace of the said City and County of New York upon a charge of larceny of property valued at three hundred and sixty-five dollars on the oath and complaint of Sigemund Wachsman, committed by the said Richard D. Kyle in the said City and County on the twenty-ninth day of October in the year aforesaid) and detain him until he was legally discharged, which said commitment is as follows, that is to say:

"1 District Police Court.

City and County of New York SS.

In the name of the People of the State of New York,

To the Warden and Keeper of the City Prison of the City of New York:

An order having been this day made by me that Richard D. Kyle be held to answer to the Court of General Sessions in said City and County, upon a charge of larceny of property valued at Three hundred and sixty-five dollars, on the oath and complaint of Sigemund Wachsman committed by said Richard Kyle in the City and County of New York on the 29th day of October 1892, you are commanded to receive said Richard Kyle into your custody, and detain him until he is legally discharged.

Dated at the City of New York, this 17th day of November 1892.

Thomas F. Grady, Police Justice."

by virtue of which said commitment the said Richard D. Kyle afterwards, to wit: on the same day and year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, was duly conveyed, committed and delivered to the City Prison of the said City of New York, there situate, and to the Warden and Keeper thereof for the cause aforesaid, to wit: for the felony and larceny aforesaid, and the said Richard D. Kyle was then and there lawfully detained and kept a prisoner in the said City Prison under the custody of John Fallon, Esquire, then and at all times herein mentioned being the Warden and Keeper thereof under and by virtue of the said commitment for the felony and larceny aforesaid.

And afterwards, to wit: on the fourteenth day of December in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, and whilst the said Richard D. Kyle was then yet lawfully detained and kept a prisoner in the said City Prison under and by virtue of the said commitment and under the custody of the said John Fallon, Esquire, Warden and Keeper as aforesaid, a writ of habeas corpus was, in due form of law, granted and allowed by the Honorable George L. Ingraham, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and issued out of the said Supreme Court in due form of law and according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, in the name of the People of the State of New York, directed to the said John Fallon, Esquire, Warden and Keeper as aforesaid, by the description of the Warden of the Toombs City Prison, commanding him that he have the body of the said Richard D. Kyle by him imprisoned and detained as it was said together with the time and cause of such imprisonment and detention by whatsoever name the said Richard D. Kyle should be called or charged, before the said Honorable George L. Ingraham, Justice as aforesaid, or one of the justices of the said Supreme Court, at the Court of Oyer and Terminer of the said City and County of New York, at the County Court House in the said City of New York, on the fifteenth day of December in the year aforesaid, at the hour of half-past ten in the morning of the said day, to do and receive what should then and there be considered concerning the said Richard D. Kyle, and that the said Warden and Keeper have then and there the said writ, which said writ of habeas corpus is as follows, that is to say:

"The People of the State of New York

To the Warden of the Toombs City prison,

Greeting:

We command you, that you have the body of Richard D. Kyle by you imprisoned and detained, as it is said, together with the time and cause of such imprisonment and detention, by whatsoever name Richard D.
