PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Eugene Gaudiosi

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency, as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself, but that I am not positive the defendant is the person who attempted to strike me. I never knew the defendant until this occurrence, and am informed and believe his character is good.

I am sick, and have been for some time, which has affected my sight and impaired my memory, and desire to withdraw my Complaint.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Rhader W. Fize

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

- Rhader W. Fize -

(Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by
1886, § 3.) of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Rhader W. Fize.

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Twenty day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-~~seven~~, at the City and County aforesaid, Two ounces - of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), unlawfully did intentionally sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one Edmund S. Wilson, as and for butter, the product of the dairy; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SECOND COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8. as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3).

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

- Rhader W. Fize -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Rhader W. Fize.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did unintentionally sell and cause and procure to be sold to one Edmund S. Wilson, Two ounces - of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), as and for butter, the product of the dairy; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

There contained certain substances to the grand jury

aforesaid unknown, which had been introduced added

THIRD COUNT: (Chap. 246, Laws of 1882, § 1).

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Charles W. Fize -

of a Misdemeanor committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Fize.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold, at retail, to one of a certain substance, not being butter, and commonly called oleomargarine, and did then and there falsely represent the same to the said Edmund S. Wilson - to be butter: against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of said people.

FOURTH COUNT: (Section 480, Penal Code)

Charles W. Fize -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Fize.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold, to one

as an article of food, Two ounces of a certain substance in imitation of a certain article of food, to wit: butter, without disclosing such imitation by a suitable and plainly visible mark or brand; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FIFTH COUNT: (Chap. 238, Laws of 1882, § 3.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Charles W. Fize -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Fize.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, a certain parcel containing Two ounces - of a certain article and substance in semblance of butter, not the legitimate product of the dairy, and not made exclusively of milk or cream, but into which divers oils and fats not produced from milk or cream, entered as component parts (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), the same being then and there an article and substance required by law, in case of retail sales in parcels, to be sold from a tub, firkin, box or package, distinctly and durably stamped, branded or marked upon the top and side with the words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, where it could be plainly seen, in Roman letters, burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint, in a straight line, and not less than one-half inch in length, and wherewith the seller was then and there required by law in such case, to deliver to the purchaser thereof, a printed label, bearing the plainly printed words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, in Roman letters not less than one-half inch in length, in a straight line, unlawfully did then and there sell and cause and procure to be sold at retail, to one

from a certain box and box which was not then and there stamped, branded or marked as aforesaid, and unlawfully did not then and there deliver therewith to the said

such purchaser as aforesaid, a label of the kind and description aforesaid, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SIXTH COUNT: (Chap. 215, Laws 1882, § 2.)

Charles W. Fye -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Fye.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one

Edmund S. Wilson, two owners - of a certain article and substance in semblance of natural butter, and known as oleomargarine or imitation butter, the same not being the legitimate product of the dairy, and not being made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with salt or rennet, or both, with or without coloring matter or sage, but into which divers oils, and animal and other fats, not produced from milk or cream, had been introduced (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SEVENTH COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 7, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 2.)

Charles W. Fye -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Fye.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid,

at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one of a certain article, substance and compound in imitation and semblance of natural butter produced from pure, unadulterated milk, or cream of the same, the said article, substance and compound, so sold as aforesaid, being rendered, manufactured and produced out of divers animal fats and oils not produced from unadulterated milk, or cream from the same, the said article substance and compound not having been manufactured prior to, and not being in process of manufacture, on the first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty six, (a more particular description of which said article, substance and compound, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

EIGHTH COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3.)

Charles W. Fize —

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the said twelfth day of March — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold, to one Edmund S. Wilson, two ounces — of a certain compound product and manufacture made in whole from animal fats and animal and vegetable oils, not produced from unadulterated milk or cream, which said compound product and manufacture had been before then, and was then and there colored with coloring matter, whereby the same did then and there resemble butter, the product of the dairy (a more particular description of which said compound, product and manufacture, and of the fats and oils from which the same was so made as aforesaid, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

NINTH COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Charles W. Fize —

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Charles W. Fize,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one of a certain compound, product and manufacture made in part from animal fats and animal and vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated milk or cream, which said compound, product and manufacture had been before then, and was then and there colored with coloring matter, whereby the same did then and there resemble butter, the product of the dairy, (a more particular description of which said compound, and of the ingredients thereof, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given,) against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

South COUNTY. (Chambers Law 1882 42)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

George W. Gee of a misdemeanor,

~~of the County of~~ committed as follows:

The said George W. Gee, late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards to wit: On the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, being then and there the keeper of a certain restaurant there situate, did unlawfully serve as food for one Edmund S. Wilson, who was then and there a guest of him the said George W. Gee as such restaurant keeper, in his said restaurant, ~~keeper aforesaid~~, two ounces of a certain article and substance in semblance of natural butter and known as oleomargarine or imitation butter, the same not being the legitimate product of the dairy and not being made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with salt or rennet, or both, with or without coloring matter or dye, but into which divers oils, and animal and other fats, not produced from milk or cream, had been introduced, and which said article and substance then and there contained certain substances to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, which had been introduced and added thereto and combined therein, for the purpose and with the effect of thereby imparting thereto a color resembling that of yellow butter (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given) against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said People.

The People of Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Henry Gibbon Before Recorder Smyth. July 6. 1887.
Indictment for bigamy.

Lydia Pitman, sworn and examined, testified: I am married to Mr. Pitman, my maiden name was Soule. I knew the prisoner in January 1874. I now reside in Dorchester near Boston. I lived in Duxbury in 1874 and was married to Mr. Gibbon there at a minister's house, his name was ~~Bartholomew~~ William, the witnesses were my brother Edward, who is now in California, and Isabella Freeman, who is in Cohasset, near Boston; the minister is dead. After I was married to Mr.
Gibbons I went to live with my mother a while, a few months, and then I went across the fence to keep house. I lived with him as his wife six or seven years; he then went to sea and came back and then went again. I do not remember what year it was that he went for good; the last time I saw him was six or seven years ago. I was married to him I think seven years when he departed for good. I did not hear from him afterwards. I don't know where he went ~~only~~ I heard a letter stating that he was dead supposing to be from my mother; then I got married to Pitman and I ~~was~~ ^{have been} married four years last December. I don't know where Gibbon was arrested, but I heard of this case I think somewhere about last November or December. I came here at the request of the District Attorney, but I do not wish to hurt the defendant any more than I can help. Cross Examined. I was married to Gibbon in Duxbury as near as I can remember on the 21st of January 1873. I lived with him six or seven years. He was a carpenter by Trade, he could not get much at that business; he went to sea twice during our marriage. When he was at sea I lived at Duxbury all the time, I had one child by him. I was not married to anybody before I was married to Gibbon. I do not remember how long he was away from me the first time he went to sea. I never lived in Essex St. Boston when he was at sea and never did when he came back from sea. I do not know a man named Luselle. When Gibbon came back from sea the second time I was living in Duxbury, keeping house. I do not remember that that was eight years ago. I cannot tell whether it was nine or ten years. I cannot remember. I never circulated rumors to the effect that I was dead. I got married the second time believing that he was dead.

Mary Gibbon sworn. The prisoner married me on the 28th of November 1882 in the City Hall, New York. I do not remember who performed the ceremony. I had the marriage lines and showed them to the District Attorney, but I have not them with me today. I have carried them several times and the District Attorney told me there was no use. The prisoner stole them away from me, but I got them back again. I was manufacturing hand knit goods on Twenty First St. and Sixth Avenue. I was gashed to work in the store any longer, ^{from his lies} and now I have got a little dry goods store. I would not live with him. My maiden name was Mary Lusick, I was a widow when I married, ~~the prisoner~~ ^{the prisoner}, I married Mr. Owens. After I married the defendant I lived with him in Twenty First St. in my own rooms that I had furnished; he took me because I was able to make a living. I was married on Thanksgiving morning and I lived with him four years. I heard he was married through a friend of mine going to Duxbury.

I told him to tell me the truth. He said, I don't know whether she is dead or alive. He denied it; at any rate I would not live with him. I was married by an alderman at the City Hall. I don't remember the name, but I have it. I got a certificate of marriage from him. Then I went to live with the defendant in Twenty First St. for four years; then I learned he had another wife living. He had a conversation with me about it. He denied it; then he told me he got a letter from his mother saying she was living. He asked me if he got a divorce if I would live with him? I said, no. I saw her mother. He told me she was living. He got a letter from her mother and he let me read the letter saying that the lady was living and married to another man. He asked me if he got a divorce if I would live with him? I said, no. He said he made up that letter. I went on and saw her mother and sister and they told me she was living. I found out where this woman who was on the stand was living in Boston. I did not go to see her. She has been living with me a little while. Then I came home from Duxbury I wrote a letter to Gibbon - I left it for him - saying I had been on to Duxbury. The next time I saw him was Thanksgiving morning. He said "So, you went on to Duxbury." I said, "yes!" He said, "If I thought you would have gone on, I would have saved you the trouble." He asked me if it was all up? I said, "Certainly." He asked me if I would make din-ner for the children? and I helped. I have no children by him. I have a little niece of his that we keep - and one child Annie, that he stole from his wife and my two children that I had ~~from my~~ first husband. Then of course I went away.

 I told him I would not annoy him.
 I left the children with him and I took my own with me. He hunted me up where I was living and told a lot of lies and disgraced me. He had a watch and chain of mine. ~~Then~~ he disgraced and annoyed me I swore out a warrant for ~~begamy~~ against him.
 Henry Gibbon, sworn and examined in his own defence testified. I am 36 years old. I have known the last witness since 1873. I married her in January 1874; it is a mistake on her part when she says 1873. I was married in Duxbury 0651 at a minister's house. I lived with her a little over four years. I had one girl by her, she is still living. Business got very dull; it is a small village and I had to go to sea. I was a carpenter in a barge belonging to Boston. I was away that voyage sixteen months, and on my arrival home her father and mother told me she had been going around carousing. I came back to Duxbury. I had two voyages, and the first voyage I had a talk with her and she denied the whole matter. I lived with her three weeks, and of course I gave her the benefit of the doubt; she was my wife, and I could not help but take her word for it. I lived with her three weeks and I went to sea in the same vessel and with the same Captain; the Captain belonged to the same town. I went first to Batavia in Java and from there to Singapore and from Singapore to Bangkok in Siam to Java. We got caught in a typhoon and were wrecked. I was away on that voyage for nearly nineteen months. Shipped in a vessel there; of course I lost everything. Shipped to Liverpool and from Liverpool I came to Brooklyn. We got picked up by a steamer from Singapore chartered by the American government and taken to Bangkok and in the same steamer to Singapore. I worked ashore in Singapore for a month or five weeks and I had a chance to ship in an English barge to Liverpool and then from Liverpool I took ^{and came to} steamer to Brooklyn. I arrived in Brooklyn in the early part of 1880 and went direct to Duxbury. I cannot remember the month. My wife was there. When I arrived in Duxbury of course it was very natural I should make for my own home. You must understand it being a village that the houses are not situated like city houses, they are detached. My house was the very next one to the one in which my wife's parents were living and then I went to my own house. I then went to my first wife's mother. I could see immediately that something had happened. My wife's mother told me then - my wife was not there. I met her in Duxbury that same day; she came back to her house and sent her boy - that was of course my step son - and also my little girl that came from school over to see me. I went over to the house and asked her what she wanted? Of course she wanted to be as free as ever she had been. I told her I was going to apply for a divorce. I went back then to my first wife's mother and the little boy came over. I gave him eight dollars in silver, thinking my wife, perhaps, might be short of money. The next morning I thought I had a chance to get employment on a railroad going from Boston to Lynn. I stayed there two or three days and on going back to Duxbury I found my wife had gone and taken both children; where she had gone no one knew. I found out from a conductor several days after where she was, that she was living in Boston in Essex St. with a man under the name of Mrs. Lussell. I took two detectives with me. I commenced proceedings for divorce in Mass. and Judge Gray gave me possession of my child. I left Mass. in the fall of 1880, and came to New York and went over to Jersey City and worked there. I married the second one in 1882. I had not heard from my first wife. I was married to my second wife four years last November. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

0652

Minister is dead, brother is in California, & Isabel Freeman married one Andrew Prouty since, & has gone witness don't know where, but thinks to Cohasset, Mass.

Marriage license was destroyed by Lydia herself in a fit of passion at Gibbon.
 The marriage & she lived with deft six or seven years, had one child by him - a girl, named Annie - about five or six ^{years} old when deft left witness. Deft introduced witness in society as his wife & everyone when the occasion arose. As these people resided in Mass., & I was not aware of who they were, I could not get them. Witness knows no one in New York to whom such admissions were made, but when she was married she ~~was the widow of a man named Perry~~

My Dear Friend

I have just received your welcome letter. I hope the time is short for I am nearly heartbroken awaiting for it to be settled. I will give you the names of both Ministers the time I was married to J. the Minister's name was Cathman and has been dead for a long time my witnesses were my Brother Edwin and Bill Freeman. The second Minister's name was Meone and he is dead to. My witnesses were Miss Minnie Busby and Mr Al bert Craps. This Person was the man that married me to Mr Putman. I did not know which one you wanted so I sent both of them. When I come on I would rather come on the train it starts from here at nine and gets to N. Y. at three in the afternoon. it is better for the Baby to come in the day. I am, sorry it is going to put you to so much expense but I am unable to pay our fares as we have had a hard struggle to get along this winter it will take my son from his work and that is too again. but with God's help we will get on our feet at some time. if it were ^{for your sake} I would not come on for it is such an under taking. I do not see what he does that poor little Annie from place to place for does he think he can have her again the child does not know where her home is and I hope he cannot have her take any warning if he gets out and look well after your little ones or he will get them for he is so sneaky you cannot be up to him. I have not any marriage lines of his for they were burned a long time ago. I burned them. was he married to that woman in Wales. you say you are the third woman that he has wronged. my dear friend we neither of us know how many he has wronged. when I see you I can tell you lots. I do not quite understand about that woman that got on the train, was she by the name of Eliza. he used to tell one of a woman by that name. and another one by the name of Marshall that lived in North bore. he used to go away from home and stay two or three weeks at a time pretending to look for work. I don't know much about her and the neighbors told me she was a very bad woman. he never was settled he wanted to be going among every little while he did not appreciate the good home I made for him when he was away and when he came home I had his home all nice for him and then in a short time within three months of being together of Annie he obliged me to break up in the month of December and go to England and he was pulled one around until one were separated.

0660

it is a mercy that I need fear him. Shall I have to get up in the forenoon I hope not. for if I do I shall not know what to do. I would like to come on Monday Morning and come back Tuesday if I can for my poor Mother will be alone in the house while I come back be delighted with the idea of Annie. but he is afraid he will come and steal her away. if ever he comes where Sam & shall the place to warm to hold him. do you think that Annie loves him. I am afraid she will not love one as she ought for he has taught her to hate one to bed. he starved her for one and half clothed her ever after. Mourned him and last of all went away to sea and left us in a starving destitute condition. and when he came home he would not give me only five dollars and that I got clothes for the two little ones, now what do you think of him. but this will mind him up for a while write me all particulars of Annie and what your Lawyer says about her and you and ease my mind a

My Dear Friend

I received your letter this evening. I shall come on rather than have the case brought up in Boston for I do not want my little family disgraced. either do I want to be again by that vile man. if it is the will of the all wise that it shall not be so. I pity you from the bottom of my heart for I know by your letters that you are a good woman. it is a great shame that ever you got entangled with a being like him. I think that if the Court allows you the Custody of Annie that you ought to let me have her. I think I should be a queer Mother that would not want my own flesh and blood if I can have it. I have told my husband all. he says that whatever I say to him will be of no avail and more than that he says if he tries to hinder me he will have him

Care for him. did she ever wish to see or live with her Mother again. is it not dreadful that that dear little child is knocked about in the manner that she is by him the miserable man. he must be a wicked man when he would not go to see his poor sister that was dying in Consumption and she not a stone throw away from him. what is it that you want me to say and do against him I hope it is not much for I am so afraid of him. will he be allowed to talk in court.
 I should think that if he is found guilty that he will ^{be} put in Prison a god knows I do not wish to be the means of putting him there for it must be a dreadful place. although he has treated ^{me} in a shameful & ridiculous manner. I never should have troubled him. had it not been that I were obliged to do so, but there everyone has so much to contend with in this world and it seems that I have had a double share it is a ~~of~~ true saying the back is fittest for the burden. I hope he can never break up my home. he never can by scandal but there are so many queer points in the law that one cannot see. I hope that justice will clear out to all of us. ever since I left my home I have been nothing but a slave up ^{to} my time of ~~marriage~~ getting Married to Mr. Pitman. I never should have been Married to my Present Husband if I thought he were living because I should have known that he would trouble me. I have nothing that ever was his or that ever he gave me. I gave the wedding ring away I did not want it. I shall have to close this poorly written and composed letter to close as I think you will be unharmed out by the time you have and all my questions. you will be to meet me would you when I come. don't let him ever get your little ones for if ever he gets the chance he will do so with pleasure good by. Lydia. tell me all in your next arrested. I hope if he gets out he will come to Boston. I am a very poor hand to get up in Court for that is a place I never was. you are sure that he can do me no harm except by word of mouth. he cannot shut me up. let me know in your next letter for I am so anxious. I shall bring my Baby with me as I cannot leave him. I have a son a young man that my Husband says must ~~accompany~~ me as he does not want me to be on the boat alone with the baby. he may be a good service to you to. he J. told me that he had a child in England that was after we were married & ^{short} time did he ever tell you that. it may be that he was married before I ever saw him. at all events by his own talk he must have been a bad man before ever I saw him, where is Annie and does she

 Dear Friend
 I received your letter just now and am ans it with my foot on the cradle. do try in Gods name to prevent one coming as I have a little boy and more than that I do not want my husband to know anything about it for I am afraid it might break up my home and know I have suffered untold hardships until I met my present husband. if there is any thing that I can aid you in I will with all my heart do so for I know your anxiety. I know how I felt when he took Annie from me I nearly went crazy and to this day have not recovered from it. do look out for your little ones that he does not take them from you the same. Mary tell me do will he trouble me and where is he, and what about Annie why is she not with him

I am writing on a piece of your paper as I have no other. you will excuse it about you. I hope to the Merciful Father above you will comfort me in your next letter if it is in your power I know if there is anything that I can do for you I will do it with a willing heart. if I could see you I could tell you all. you say you saw my Mother were it that I could see her and talk to her. as a friend will you talk in my behalf to her but don't let her know of it that I make that request. that Miserable man turned my friends and folks from me still at the same time I know there is a just God and as he with Tengeance is mine and I will repay. my views of this life are much changed. I look upon this world as nothing as I have seen so much trouble. he says I was a drunkard. I never was I never did in my life for I detest it. I am not dead and hope I shall not die until I get my family raised. don't let him bother me will you oh if you were to see me you would pity me I am so frightened don't harm me for I would not harm you.
 we are not very well off so do excuse me

I am an attorney and counsellor at law of the State of New York. I am ^{one of} the attorneys of record in the case of Gibbon v. Gibbon now pending in the Supreme Court of this State. I am ^{attorney} for Mary Gibbon the plaintiff in said action. Pursuant to an order duly made in said action depositions were taken in Massachusetts of Sarah Soule, and Lydia Soule. Said depositions have been returned to said court and are now on file in the office of the clerk of the County of New York. It appears therefrom that the defendant in said action, which is brought to annul a marriage on the ground of a prior marriage between the defendant Henry Gibbon and one Lydia Soule, ~~Henry Gibbon~~ was in July 1873 married to Lydia Soule in Duxbury Mass - achusetts and that the said Lydia Soule was living in November 1882. The depositions purport to be those of Sarah Soule mother of said Lydia Soule, and Mabel Soule a ~~daughter~~ ^{sister} of said Lydia Soule. The mother Sarah Soule, deposes that she never knew of a divorce between her daughter the said Lydia Soule and Henry Gibbon. The Henry Gibbon mentioned ^{in said depositions} is to the best of deponent's knowledge, information and belief the Henry Gibbon mentioned in an affidavit verified April 8th 1887 by Mary Gibbon and presented herewith.

City and County } of New York, } ss.

John W. Gully
 of No. 42 Clarkson Street, aged 22 years, occupation Driver a Delivery Wagon being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 17th day of May 1884 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

One suit of clothes of the value of twenty seven dollars silver watch and gold plated chain of the value of twenty three dollars and a pair of shoes of the value of three ⁵⁰/₁₀₀ dollars together of the value of fifty three ⁵⁰/₁₀₀ dollars ($53.50) the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Daniel Gibbons (now here) from the fact that on Sunday night at the hour of 10.30 O'clock deponent left said property in his bed room. And on Tuesday evening May 17th deponent discovered that they were missing.

 And deponent is informed by Lawrence Cook that at about the hour of 11 O'clock AM May 17th he saw the defendant and an unknown man in West Houston St. and the said unknown man had a quantity of clothing in his arms. Deponent then caused the arrest of the said defendant who occupies a room adjoining deponent's in said premises.
 And deponent is further informed by Officer

Sworn to before me, this 1884 day

Police Justice.

0681

John Vaileau that the defendant admitted and confessed to him that he did take said property also a pair of pants belonging to the aforesaid Lawrence Conn and a suit of clothes belonging to Jeremiah O'Brien all of whom live in the same house with defendant and tried the officer where he had disposed of some of said property. Defendant went with the officer to a pawn shop on Vaick St. designated by the defendant and there saw and fully identified his goods. Wherefore defendant charges the said defendant with feloniously taking stealing and carrying away said property and prays he may be held and dealt with according to law.

Dear Sir,

At your request
I have this day examined at the City Prison Pasquale Kilgus to ascertain his mental condition.

He has insane delusions and frequent attacks of maniacal delirium.

His intelligence is of the lowest order and he does not seem to appreciate the enormity of the crime for which he stands committed.

His disease has progressed since his confinement and from silent insane he has become loud and noisy.
My opinion is that he is not mentally able to understand how serious his offense is.

Very respectfully,

Hon R. B. Martine:
District Atty, New York City:

Dear Sir:

In accordance with your instructions I examined at the Tomb, Trinity, Pasqual Gilgand. I find him to be insane. His mental development is of an exceedingly low type. His answers to questions are irrelevant. Has delusions, mainly, that those about him are going to kill him. Has very indefinite ideas in regard to time and places. Is subject to periods of manic violence during which he attacks his associates and is very belligerent of speech. Suffers from Insomnia. His personal are unnaturally filthy. He is vicious and treacherous. In my opinion he is irresponsible for his actions. Yours Respectfully
