2d Last - Police Court -
August - 16th 1844

The People &c on the complaint of William Hawkins
vs
John A. Morand

Complainant; William Hawkins, cross-examined by Mr Gibbons Atty
for Defence.

Qo. How old are you, your residence?
A. 15 years last January. No 147 Madison street.

Qo. Do you know Morand?
A. I knew him at Macy's. My duty was wagon boy. Morand was delivery clerk. It was his duty to take down in a book the addresses of packages going out, which were called off to him by another boy who held the packages.

Qo. Tell the facts about the package in the case

A. This package was with a lot of others in a basket. I brought it up and handed it to the driver. The driver said that it belonged to Morand.
I handed it to Bergen the driver who put it in the wagon saying that it was a package Morand had forgotten to deliver the night before

He first it down via the wagon. This was at about half past ten. We then started away with the wagon - Bergen and I. On 6th Avenue between 12th and 13th Morand jumped on the wagon and rode as far as Commerce street, where he jumped off, taking the package with him. I saw the address Lewis 243 Montgomery St Jersey City" when I first put into the wagon. Mrs Lewis' residence was not in my district. It was in the district of the other driver. The driver, Bergen, said that he was minding the package for Morand. Bergen said that Morand had just put that address on so that the man at the door would let it out. He said that the package belonged to Morand. I thought then that Bergen told the truth. When Morand left the wagon he said he was going to deliver the package. Bergen told me it was a city package. I had no talk with Bergen about it. I stopped working then because it was dusk and time at night more than late. Mr Wheeler of the print sent for me and asked me if I knew anything about a package Marked 243 Montgomery street. I then told him what I saw.

Redirect examination by Mr. A. G. Brown for complainant

Q. What was your duty as a wagon boy?

A. To sit and watch the wagon while the driver delivered goods, or to deliver goods while the driver sat in the wagon. I had nothing to do with accepting or rejecting goods. I brought up a bunch of packages from the packing room and gave it to the driver; and, seeing a package addressed away from our route, I called attention to it. It was then that Bergen told me part of what I have said, the balance was in the drive home.

Q. Did you have a talk with Mr. McCracken who owned these delivery wagons while going to Jersey City?

A. Yes. It was the day before Minard was brought here. I sat between Minard and Mr. McCracken. I then told Mr. McCracken about seeing Minard take the package. Minard pushed me with his arm, not to say anything, to make me stop.

Q. Did you ever see Minard read off addresses to other entry clerks?

A. No sir

Recross Q. Did you ever know Bergen to have friends Notice friends written home on his wages?

A. Only once, when he sent a money order to Hoboken

Q. Do you remember shopping some time at a fuel room with Bergen, learning his wages standing?

A. No, sir. It never occurred.

Q. What time in the morning did you generally get in?

A. About 8 o'clock — sometimes as late as 12 or 1

Q. Do you remember remember why Bergen was discharged?

A. After I left I heard he was discharged for staying out late.

Q. Have you talked with Mr Wheeler, Mr McCracken or any one else about what you should say here?

A. No, sir

Q. Were you ever arrested for stealing with a stove and stealing goods?

A. No, sir. I was three at Macys as wagon boy 7 or 8 months

William Harkins

Q. James Bergen for the prosecution
2. State your name, age, residence and occupation
A. James M. Bergen; 152 East 39th Street, 23 years old, waiter, at present, at No 344 3d Avenue.
2. Were you the driver of Macy's wagon that Hankins has just testified about?
A. Yes
2. State what occurred about the package referred to.
A. John Morand asked me in the morning to take a package out for him. He said that the package belonged to the city and he may just the Jersey lady address on saying his hand in handing. He said he would get in the wagon and take it from me. Morand told me that the package was in my basket. Hankins brought it up. He put it on the seat and I put it under the seat. Between 12th and 13th Street in 6th Avenue Morand got on the wagon. Morand said that he would deliver the package himself.

When he got in the wagon, he took the package in his hand and at Bannie street he got off, saying "So long". That was the last I saw of him that day. I took no particular notice of the address except that Jersey City was on it.

Q. Where did you live now

A. 152 East 39 street

Q. Where before?

A. Jersey City Heights. I then worked at hat sweat bands with A. Stevens + Co - South 5th Avenue. I was there close on to a year. I left because I did not earn enough. I then went to a restaurant - No 394 - 3d Avenue where I am now. I was there 2 years and left because I wanted to change. I then went to work for Mr McCracken who has Macy's Jersey City and Brooklyn store.

Q. Give as nearly as you can the conversation you had with Bergen about the package

A. Bergen said Moran said "Bergen Will you take a package out for me." I said I would and asked where it was. He said "from the basket". I said "All right". I told him I was to take the goods up stairs. He did so. I got in the wagon. The boy handed me the goods. I drove away. When I turned the corner the said "Don't pay any attention to anything and not let him see me notice this package". I said nothing to the boy. He laid the package between me and him, until he took it off. When he got off, I started my horse and stopped. I then went on my trip. I thought it strange that he should not want the boy to know, but said nothing about it.

Q. Were you ever arrested?

A. I was arrested on a charge of embezzlement from Macy's, 2 weeks ago Tuesday. I was locked up in Hoboken for 1 night, taken to Hudson County Jail next day, was there 4 days, was held for trial a week ago to-day. I was convicted and sentence was suspended. I don't know why.

Q. Did you ever talk with Mr. Brackett about this case?

A. No, never.

Q. What were you charged with embezzling?

A. $34.99 in money collected on a package delivered by me.

Q. Did you have any conversation with anyone representing the people of up the street or Mr McGrackenson which they offered to save you in case you testified against Howard

A. No, sir.

Q. Who appeared against you on his embezzlement charge

A. Mr McGrackenson

Q. Did you have any conversation with him then

A. No, none whatsoever.

Q. Did you ever hear why it was that your sentence was suspended?

A. No, sir.

Q. Who employed you on the wagon

A. Mr McGrackenson.

Q. Did you have friends ride on that wagon with you.

A. Only once

Re direct

Q. I understand you had no conversation about your case, but that you had one with Mr McGrackenson about Howard, did you not?

A. Yes. I told him the circumstance of Howard having the package.

20. Q. State briefly the facts and circumstances about the embezzlement case against you.

A. Armand said to me one morning "Here's a package for $34.99". He asked me to collect the money and said that he would like to have the $34, that he wanted to use it specially. I said "I don't like to do that". He said that he would see that it would be all right. That night he wanted for me at the stable, between 11 and 12 o'clock, and asked me again. He said he would get the money from me Monday a week and I could have it in, and he would get it marked off my books as kept. I gave him $29 and kept the remainder. He got it marked off my book. He has never paid me. At the end of the month it was charged against me and the charge of embezzlement was made.

Robert Henry for the Prosecution.

Q. State your name, age, residence and occupation.

A. Robert Henry, 38, No 73 Avenue D., clerk and cashier, Macy & Co. I receive all moneys for goods sold both on delivery. The wagon drivers turn their cash into me.

Q. Was a package sent out to Mrs A.C. Lewis No. 243 Montgomery street, Jersey City, ever paid for?

A. No. If it had been duly paid the money would have come to me.

Cross examined

Q. Do you know whether these goods were delivered, or not?

A. I do not. That is not my business.

Q. How do you know of a C.O.D. package in the first instance?

A. When the driver turns the money in to me. He then brings his book which he takes with the goods. Anything not paid for or returned and so marked on the book is charged to the driver by another clerk. I only credit the cash received. All my information is derived from the driver's book.

Counsel for defence moves to strike out the entire evidence of this witness on ground that it all relates to a book, which should be produced. Decision reserved.

Re-direct

Q. You state from your own knowledge the fact that the money for this particular package was not paid?

A. Yes.

Re-cross

Q. Where do you obtain that knowledge

A. From an book list of unpaid amounts made out from the sales books in my charge.

Police Magistrate

Robert McEvoy

Prosecution Rests

It is admitted that at the time of the alleged larceny it was not the duty of the prisoner to deliver goods.

Counsel for defence moves to dismiss the complaint on the ground of variance between the testimony given on the examination and the affidavit of the complainant and that it is not shown that there were any goods sold to this lady; and that the testimony of the principal witnesses Bergen and Hankins shows that the package was made up by Morand for himself or a city delivery and that the complainant swears that the goods were never delivered to the alleged purchaser. Further that there is no evidence on the part of the complainant, or his witnesses, that said package was not returned to R. H. Macy. Further that the complaint alleges that the complainant was employed by R. H. Macy & Co while the testimony shows that at the date of the alleged larceny he was employed by Wm McCracken It is admitted by complainant and defence that the package alleged to have been stolen was a package of silk belonging to the firm of R. H. Macy & Co of the value of $43.65

In reply to grounds for motion to dismiss Counsel for Prosecution says that on the question of probable cause the variance as to the employment of the witness is immaterial, the witness being a wagon boy in the employ of McCracken who is in the employ of Macy. The package, having gone from the delivery room to a regular delivery wagon, regularly addressed to a customer her residence is prima facie evidence of a sale and attempted delivery of the goods in the package. Bergen's evidence simply is that the prisoner told him that he wanted him to take out a package belonging to him and that he the prisoner would meet him on the road and take it and deliver it. The reference from the statement of the prisoner to Bergen is that the prisoner proposed to take the package and deliver it immediately to the purchasers to whom it was addressed, and so is confirmatory of the theory that the silk had been sold to Mrs Lewis. This being merely a preliminary examination to enable the magistrate to determine whether there is reason to believe that a crime has been committed by the person charged, the evidence required is not as full and specific as to detail as it should and would be upon the trial.

Decision reserved.

Defendant John A. Morand sworn on his own behalf.

Q. Tell all you know if anything about this matter

A. There came a back history. A back list shows what C.O.D. packages have gone out, money not turned in for. I looked on my books and could not find any entry of this package. I turned via my report to Mr Price that there was no entry of this package. The next I knew about it was when Mr McCracken called at my house and left word with my mother that he would like to see me. That was on Monday. I called at Macy's on the following Thursday. Mr McCracken was not there, but I went to his house and did not find him. I returned to the store and waited for him. Then he told me the accusations made against me by this man, Bergen, and that he had Bergen locked up. He then asked me to go up stairs with him and see Mr Wheeler. I did so. Mr Wheeler asked me if there was any truth in Bergen's statement. I told him no, sir. He asked me if I was willing to prove my innocence by going over with Mr McCracken to see this lady. I answered yes, sir. Instead of taking me to Jersey City, I was taken to Hoboken, McCracken saying that he wished to stop there to get a pass to see Bergen in the Hudson County Jail. When I got in the station house, he took the Sergeant aside and had a conversation. The boy Hartnis made an affidavit. I was then locked up, Mr McCracken and the boy Hartnis going away. In an hour or two McCracken returned. I was brought before the judge and told I was held for examination. I was then locked up again. Two hours later I was again called before the judge and discharged. I did not notice the property I am charged with stealing. The testimony of Hartnis about my taking goods from the wagon is entirely untrue. I never took any goods of Mr Bergen's wagon. My duty at Macy's did not take me much of evening clerks. I had nothing to do with putting goods into the delivery wagons or into the baskets to carry them to the wagons. My hours at Macy's were from 8 A.M. until closing time, with 1½ hour for lunch. I could not, at other hours, go out without permission and without having the time taken by the watchman on duty. On the day of the alleged larceny I went to dinner at about 11 40 and returned before 1 o'clock - probably 10 minutes before. I went direct from the store to my home at No 4 6 Avenue, and from there back to the store. I have been in the employ of Macy & Co almost 6 years. I have not yet been notified of discharge.

2d. Were you ever arrested?

A. Once, on charge of intoxication and disorderly conduct.

2d. While in Macy's employ did you have the handling of large sums of money?

A. Yes, Sir - from $30 to $200 at a time according to the size of my books. My accounts were always correct.

2d. Were you in need of money at the time of the alleged larceny?

A. No, sir. I had been paid the day before. I have got money when we need from both the firm and Mr McCracken, as high as $75 at times.

Q. With whom do you live?

A. My father and mother.

Q. Did you have any conversation with Mr McCracken about this man Bergen. He told me that he felt very sorry for Bergen, and that if Bergen could pay him his money back, he would let up on him, that he had lost some money lately and was anxious to recover what Bergen had taken.

A

Q. Did you ever attempt to see any of the firm of R. H. Macy and Co. about this charge?

A. Yes, sir. Mr Wheeler sent out word that he would not see me.

Cross Examined

Q. How many entry clerks were there at that time in that department?

A. Six

Q. Were they called bill clerks also?

A. No; that was a different department.

Q. A package might go out of that department to some address without being entered on your books?

A. It is possible but not probable, because the boy calls off all packages and the drivers are inside. These are one called off and two entry clerks to each desk, three men in a set.

Q. This particular package might have been entered by some other entry clerk of the city.

A. It might, if I did not happen to be at my desk.

Q. When you were discharged in New Jersey you understood that the complaint was withdrawn?

A. I did

Q. Did you never read off from packages to other entry clerks?

A. I have. It was often done when the caller off could not be found.

Q. Did not clerks in that department wear their hats and coats?

A. They did as they pleased about it. Some more than sometimes.

Q. Do you mean to be understood that it was impossible for an entering clerks to go out of that store without being seen by the watchman

at the door

A. At that door, yes sir. He is stationed at the entrance.

Q. Were there other modes of egress from that department?

A. No, sir

Q. Is there a pair of stairs up by the Schultz or short to the Street?

A. Yes

Q. There is no watchman there

A. I don't know sir.

Q. Viewed a person pass up from the Department into the store above.

Q. There was no watchman at those stairs, was there?

A. No, sir.

Q. The watchman you speak of was at the outside door on 13th Street. Was he not?

A. Yes.

Q. You have not been at work at Macy's since this charge was made.

A. No, sir

Q. At the time you say you took from $50 to $200, were you drunk?

A. I was driving a delivery wagon — without bonds.

Q. And goods were charged to you in your books and you were required to account for them or their proceeds.

A. Yes

Q. You say that Tracy Slo and Mr McCracken often lent you money; they were very kind to you were they not, particularly about the time of your wife's death?

A. Yes. sir.

Q. You stated that while entering clerk it was no part of your duty to load the wagons?

A. Yes, sir

Q. Did you ever assist in loading any wagons while entering clerk?

A. Sometimes, yes — only when requested to do so by Mr Price or Mr McCracken. It happened a number of times. I never did it except when asked by one or the other of them

Q. Do you mean to be understood as testifying that the statements given here by the witnesses Bergen and Harkins with reference to conversations between you and me on the other of them, at the store on the morning in question, or on the delivery wagon and with reference to your having a package from the wagon are utterly false and untrue.?

A. I do. They are entirely untrue. I have heard the testimony. It is false

Re-direct.

Q. You stated in your cross examination that you were not at work at Macey's now. Why is that?

A. I went there Monday, asked to see the Superintendent Mr. Ten Broeck and was told that he was on his vacation. Previous to that I was on my vacation, by permission of the firm, and the matter came up during my vacation.

Q. You said you were driving on Thursdays

A. All the drivers give $3.00 a week. I gave more.

Q. Did you ever do services after hours for Mr. McCracken

A. Yes. I have letters heads to Jersey for him and delivered them.

Re Horses

2. Entry clerks do not give loads, do they?

A. No, sir.

2. At the time you drove a wagon, as testified, were you not an entry clerk, sent to drive a wagon in an emergency, when there were not drivers enough?

A. I drove one time almost steady for three months. They talked about having me drive altogether. I considered at that time that I was a driver - not an entry clerk.

2. How were paid then?

A. I got $1.50 additional per day for driving.

2. Before and after you were entry clerk?

A. Yes

Affidavit—Larceny.

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, } ss.

William Hutchins

of No. 147 Madison Street, Wagon Bay, aged 15 years, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 2d day of June 188 4 at the day time in the City of New York,
