Court of General Sessions, Part 1.

Before Judge Martine.

Thursday, June 21, 1888.

Indictment for robbery.

Ives Kerandum sworn and examined. I live 200 South Street and am a sailor, on the 15th of June I saw the defendants shortly after midnight, it might be a quarter past twelve close to Castle Garden underneath a tree; I was smoking my pipe and was sitting on a bench getting fresh air, I was alone; they came and spoke to me familiarly both of them, they asked me what I was doing and I told them I was smoking my pipe before I went to bed. I questioned them and asked them if they were emigrants and they told me yes, they were trying to get work in the United States, Hogan said that; after I had been a while in their company I asked them if they would have a glass of beer with me and they said they did not mind, I treated them twice to a glass of beer; it might be a quarter of an hour that we were talking there, we were all sitting down. We went to a saloon near Castle Garden. I paid for the beer, I took the money from my right hand vest pocket, I had six dollars and three cents, I took out a dollar and a half and a few small pieces, I could not swear they saw it, I suppose they did for they were close by me. Hogan said if I was willing he would take me along and he would show me where he was boarding. I went with them and did not pay much attention where I was going, I was busy talking with them on friendly terms until they got to the boarding house, I walked maybe half an hour or three-quarters, I did not pay attention to the streets. Hogan talked with me but the Italian could not speak a word, I am a Frenchman. I had no suspicion at all that I was in bad company. I went into the courtyard, I saw a woman standing on the step of the door in front of me in the courtyard and as soon as we came inside in view of that woman, the Italian was behind my back and he held both of my arms behind my back as tight as he could, I tried to get free from him but Hogan came in front of me and he put his hand in my pocket, my watch was in that pocket and he held my watch up, I saw that, I tried to defend myself the best I could but both of them knocked me down and when I was down Hogan stepped on my stomach and kicked me with both of his heels and this woman was there, I screamed like a man in distress and she came with both of her hands and kept them upon my mouth.

I heard Hogan say before he kicked me in the stomach, "you son of a bitch, you have got a pistol on you." I had no consciousness at all after that. Hogan took my watch away from me which was fastened with a plated chain, it was worth five dollars. I did not get the watch back; they took my money but I do not remember of it being taken away, they robbed me of all my property. It was dark when this occurred; the pistol which was taken from me was worth three dollars. The first thing I found out when I came to consciousness was that I was dragged out of the courtyard by the officer, the policeman helped me to get up and I remember giving some explanation about a woman but I do not remember what was said because I was not quite sensible yet, I was very much afraid the officer would take me to be the wrong man. I told the officer about it the same morning I saw the defendants in the Police Court. I am attached to the ship George Taylor sailing from New York on the 15th of June, she sailed without me, I have been in the House of Detention ever since this occurred.

Cross Examined I have been in this country one year, I had a bed-room at 200 South Street and took my meals in restaurants. On the morning of the robbery I left home at ten o'clock, I did not visit many saloons during the day, I had been walking around the city, I met some friends that day and treated them a few times but they did not treat me, I only met two of my ship-mates and were in their company a couple of hours from six to half past seven

I drink a glass of beer once in a while but I do not drink whiskey. Before I met ~~my two~~ ~~all~~ these men I drank three glasses of beer but I was perfectly sober. I am sure Hogan had a short coat. I did not ride on a street car that night with them; it seemed to me that Hogan had a black round hat and the other man also. I saw them afterward in the Police Court. I did not see Hogan arrested but as soon as they came in the Police Court I knew them. I do not remember that I gave a description of them to the policeman, I told him in substance what I have told here, I did not hear the Italian talk to Hogan. The Italian never spoke a word when he held me down to the ground; the woman when she clapped both hands on my mouth said, "shut up, what are you going to do, you silly fool." I have no doubt but the defendants are the men who robbed me.

James Ryan sworn and examined. I am an officer of the eighth precinct and arrested James Merritt on the 15th of this month about half past one o'clock in the morning as he was running down the street from this alley in Thompson Street, No. 18; there are two alleys there built at each side of a tenement house, then there is a courtyard, a rear building, I suppose the lower alley is thirty or fifty feet probably. That was not my post but I heard the cries of murder, stop them fellows; there is a building in course of erection on the opposite side of the street and there was a watchman taking care of this place; it was he that was hallooing to stop them but he could not identify any person, James Maretti was running down on the same side I was coming up and some other man was running on the other side and I stood before him and called on him to stop and made to strike my club at him and he did not stop, he ran past me and I ran after him down Thompson into Broome and he ran up the stoop in Broome Street and took hold of the knob to shove the door in and while he was doing that I ran up the stoop and caught him and as he was about half way down the stoop he twisted himself to get away, I followed him through Sullivan and caught him; he struggled to get away, I held him by the collar of the coat and he finally twisted himself out of his coat and ran away and he left the coat in my hand, I threw the coat down on the street and ran after him, an officer in Watt Street threw himself in front of him and I ran up and caught him the second time; the other person was running on the other side of the street, I will not swear it was Hogan. Maretti knew me, I asked him why he did not stop when he saw me? He said, "if I thought it was you I would have stopped." I brought him up to where I heard the cries coming from and I found the complainant in the alley, moaning, I took hold of the prisoner and I shoved him in the alley ahead of me and I called on the complainant to come out and he came out with his hand to his stomach groaning and complaining of being kicked. I asked him if this was the man that beat him and he told me then that he was robbed of his money and things taken by two fellows, he identified James Maretti as one of the men right there. Maretti denied it, the Roundsman came up the street shortly afterwards with Hogan and the complainant identified him as the other one and also in the Station House; the Roundsman came up from the direction in which I saw this other man Hogan running. I heard no conversation between Maretti and Hogan. Hogan had no coat and no hat, his sleeves were rolled up above his elbows and he looked as if he had been working hard, he was all black and dirty. The complainant complained of being injured, he put his hand on his stomach and his chest, he said he was kicked and if I had not come in time they would have killed him; he appeared to me as if he had been drinking but I would not have made a charge of intoxication against him, he was able to take care of himself.

Cross Examined. I know a man in that neighborhood by sight called "Jumbo", he has rather a dark skin.

There was a woman came to me I believe on the day of the arrest and asked me if I was Officer Ryan, I said yes; she asked me if I arrested such a man, she said I had the wrong one, I did not pay any attention to her.

Jumbo is in appearance something about the same size as Hogan but stouter and fuller in the face and probably of somewhat darker skin. I told this woman who came to see me that I arrested the parties and only did my duty and that the complainant identified him. I have been on the force a little over eleven years. There was only one other person running except Maretti and the watchman running behind him, three altogether when my attention was called to it.

Ernest Linderman sworn. I am a roundsman in the eighth precinct, the same precinct as Officer Ryan, I arrested Hogan about half past one o'clock in the morning on the 15th of June in an alley running from Sullivan to Watt Sts. between Grand and Broome. I came near the corner of Varick and Watt Sts. and I heard several raps of a policeman's club, I immediately returned to the spot where I thought the rap had occurred and looked into the alley and saw Hogan inside, he was standing in the alley, he told me that he was going down stairs; he had no collar, no vest, coat or hat but had a white shirt on. I asked him what he was doing. He said he had been working the growler on the outside in the street. When I saw him he was standing in the alley about twenty-five feet from Sullivan Street, there was no light in the alley, he was all alone, there was no places open around there, I brought him to Officer Ryan corner of Broome and Thompson Sts. and the officer had the other prisoner, Maretti, the complainant said that he was the man that had assaulted him. I searched him in the Station House, or rather Officer Ryan searched him, I do not believe that any money was found on him.

The house at the side of this alley is No.41 and the prisoner claims that he lives there but I do not know that he does. After he was arrested he told me to go there and inform his friends that he was arrested but I left that to the Sergeant to attend to, I went out on patrol again.

The Case for the Defence.

Peter Donnelly sworn. I reside 541 Hudson St. and am a furniture dealer, I know the defendant Hogan two or three years, he worked about twelve months for me, he was a salesman and bought and sold goods and handled hundreds of dollars of my money, I never found him dishonest, I would be willing to take him back in my employ. He was working for me on the 15th of June up to nine o'clock in the evening, I heard the next day of his arrest.

Francis Donnelly sworn. I live in 106 Mott St. I am no relative of the last witness, I know the Defendant Hogan about a couple of years, I have seen him frequently and saw him on the night this happened, I do not know the other defendant, I heard of Hogan's arrest the next morning. Hogan sent a young man down for a pint of beer and I gave it to him, I keep a liquor store corner of Grand and Sullivan Sts. I saw Hogan outside of my store at twelve o'clock. I said to him, "did you send for any beer?" and he said yes; he had no coat on, he was in his shirt sleeves.

As long as I have known Hogan he has been a hard working young man.

Cross Examined. I was told the next day of Hogan's arrest around dinner time.

Joseph Abrahams sworn. I live 330 Hudson St. and am a milk dealer, I know Hogan, he has worked for me two years, I always found him honest and never heard of anything wrong against him.

Frederick Herzberg sworn. I am a buyer and seller of furniture at 294 Hudson St., I have known Hogan five or six years and know that he works for Mr. Donnelly, I never knew of anything to be brought against him, I heard of his arrest early in the morning about half past seven o'clock, I saw him going past my store about twenty minutes past nine the evening before, he asked me how soon I would be closing up and I said in fifteen or twenty minutes, I closed up and went home and when I went home Hogan and two or three more were sitting on the stoop; I should judge it was a quarter or ten minutes of ten I saw Hogan on the stoop, he was in his shirt sleeves. I told my wife to tell him to come in and get a glass of beer and we drank the beer; they were singing out there by the windows, the last time I saw him I think it was around twelve o'clock: I took his coat the next day to Jefferson Market and gave it to the Keeper. I informed Mr. Donnelly around dinner time of Hogan's arrest, I was present in the Police Court when he was examined, I was not asked anything, he was simply put under bail.

Louis Buglioli sworn. I live at 43 Sullivan St., next door to Hogan, I was in his company on the night that he was arrested, I was sitting on the stoop 41 Sullivan Street in front of his own house, I met him on that night about a quarter to ten, I went away about half past one or two o'clock, I heard the rapping of clubs, I was with Hogan from ten that night up to half past one in the morning and he only left the stoop and my company when he fetched the can of beer back for his uncle, he was not out of my presence more than three or four minutes, he had no coat on, he was in his shirt sleeves. I know the other man by sight, I saw him in Sullivan Street about a quarter after one passing through the arch with a man, a short stout fellow, I do not know who he was. I did not notice Hogan and Maretti walking together.

Stephen Harrington sworn. I know Hogan, he worked for me a year and a half, he was an honest workman, he worked for my father.

Thomas Maddison sworn. I live 41 Sullivan St. and work at tin roofing, I remember the night Hogan was arrested, I first saw him about ten o'clock, I was with him till about half past one, until the officer came along on that post, he told us we were making too much noise and to stop, Hogan had no coat on him that night, he only left me when he went down to Donnelly's to get the beer, he was gone about five minutes and came back with the beer. I was arrested once for being drunk.

William Hogan sworn and examined. I live 41 Sullivan St. and am in the second hand furniture business, I work for Peter Donnelly and for Joseph Abrahams, I also worked for my uncle Thomas Hogan. I had been working the day of my arrest up to nine o'clock, I judge I got home about half past nine and after eating supper I went out on the stoop, I had no coat, vest or hat on me. I was on the stoop with the man who testified, I think I sent for three pints of beer, I left that stoop to go down to Donnelly's once, I heard the raps of clubs that night, I went into the arch to put the can away, the officer arrested the man opposite the bakery and I followed the officer up and he handed the prisoner over I believe, to Mr Ryan. It must have been Maretti but I won't be positive, I am not acquainted with Maretti, I never saw him before until I was in the station House, previous to that I never spoke to him. I was arrested once by Officer Gardner for running over a child, I was discharged the next morning, I was a driver and it was carelessness on the part of the child and her godfather had me discharged. I never was arrested for stealing. I never saw the complainant before, I was not down at the battery that night, I think I was down to the battery the first week of Buffalo Bill's show.

James Maretti sworn. I live 51 South Fifth Avenue and was arrested on the night of the 15th, the officer stopped me in Sullivan Street, I was up to the 4th Street park and came down and stood along Spring St. little while and afterward went down to Thompson Street.

I never saw at any time the complainant who was on the stand, I was not down at the battery on that night in question, I did not walk up any street with him and committed no robbery. I never was arrested charged with any crime before, I used to black boots up at Jefferson Market Police Court for a year and a half, I then went down to Coney Island in a barber shop at the West Brighton Hotel, I was not doing anything at the time of my arrest, I expected to go down to Coney Island, I was not engaged with the Kierally Brothers, the man up in Niblo's Garden took a couple of people down and he asked me to go down but I said no, I could make more money than to go down there, he took a fellow named Jumbo down to Staten Island, I know Jumbo by sight, I saw him the night of my arrest in Thompson and Broome Sts., he asked me if I would not go to the theater and I told him I had no money, he is an Italian but speak a little English, he is a king of a short, stout man about the size of Hogan and a dark skin, I never knew Hogan before I was arrested, the first time I saw Hogan was up in the station House when the man made a complaint against us. It is true that the officer clased me and that he caught my coat and I left it in his hands and got away from him, I was standing at 64 Thompson St. by the stoop with an Italian man and saw a couple of men passing, they were trying to pick my pocket, I told them I had not anything in my pocket, I was sitting there asleep and about fifteen or twenty minutes after I heard some people holloa robbery, stop thief! and I heard the clubs, I went down through Thompson St. to the corner of Thompson and Broome and saw the cop come after me, I was kind of staggered and ran away, I had my coat on my arms and was in my shirt sleeves, he grabbed my coat and it went out of my arm, so when I saw he did not get me I ran away, I was afraid that he was going to club me, I never had been clubbed before. I was then brought up, to where the complainant was by the officer and the complainant identified me. I told the officer he could fetch me up where this man was and see if anybody has got anything against me, I had not my coat on me but on my arm, I heard this man was robbed at 68 Thompson St. I was at 64, three or four doors below that, I saw Jumbo about half past seven or eight o'clock in the evening: the complainant said I was the man that robbed him.

James Ryan recalled by Mr Davis. The prisoner Maretti had his coat on his back, I caught him by the back of the neck, he went off and left the coat in my hands, I did not know what he had done at that time. I never heard anything against Hogan's character, I heard he has a good character, I never saw Maretti with Hogan.

~~The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of robbery in the first degree.~~

One of his employers named Harrington told me he worked for him and he never found fault ~~say~~ with him except he used to drink, that was all the fault he had to find with him. I first saw Hogan that night when the Roundsman brought him to me after finding him in the alleyway on Thompson Street, I was a little over half a block from the alleyway, Maretti saw Hogan at that time, I do not remember they had any conversation. I have been doing duty around that neighborhood for some time, I never saw these defendants in company, but I have seen Maretti frequently, he has not done anything within the last five or six months.

Hogan was not found in the alleyway where I found the complainant. When I first saw Hogan that night he was not near the alleyway where the man was robbed, the first I saw of Hogan was when the Roundsman brought him a prisoner, I was in the act of getting this injured man, the complainant out of the alleyway at the time, Hogan was brought up by the Roundsman; the alleyway where the man was robbed is between Broome and Spring Sts.

James Maretti recalled. I have been living at 51 South Fifth Avenue but had no home when I was arrested.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of robbery in the first degree.
