Tillotson on the foregoing page and knows that it is the same as that sworn to by said Tillotson in the presence of deponent on the 4th day of April, 1884. Deponent further states that on the day said Tillotson made the complaint against William Keegan he was ^{deponent} ~~under~~ ^{under} the influence of liquor, and was in the same condition on the day on which he made the affidavit on the foregoing page. Deponent has been in partnership with said Tillotson for the past three years. During that period said Tillotson has been a heavy drinker and has been almost constantly under the influence of liquor. Said Tillotson, who is a nephew of deponent is now at the point of death and in the opinion of deponent cannot live many days. In relation to the charge of burglary made by said Tillotson against William Keegan deponent states that he knows all the circumstances connected therewith and has an intimate knowledge of the premises No. 18 1/3 Second Avenue. Deponent knows that the front hall door of said premises was kept open at all hours of the night and day and that the door opening into the sleeping apartments on the second floor in which the lodgers of deponent and his partner slept was frequently left open there being very little property of any value in said rooms. That the door leading into said rooms was fastened only by a spring lock and that deponent frequently on finding said door fastened, pushed it open with his hand. Deponent knows that said Keegan entered said rooms for the purpose of getting seven cents with which he purchased beer from a lodger named Thomas Crawford, but it is the firm belief of deponent that no burglary was committed or intended to be committed by said Keegan.
