of a false key or pick lock on the 7th day of March 1890 in the Night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

Ten pairs of shoes and slippers, four coats, one overcoat, two pairs of pantalons, two spring overcoats, one alarm clock. All of the value the property of Dependent.

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

Thomas Patterson. (Nowhere)

for the reasons following, to wit:

That at about the hour of 7 O'clock P.M. said date deponent went out leaving said door locked and all of said property in deponent's apartment in the top floor said said premises. And when deponent returned at the hour of 11 O'clock P.M. same day deponent discovered said door open and discovered that said property was missing. Dependent is informed by Jerry Cronin, a Saloon Keeper of no 342 E 63rd Street that between the hours of 9 and 10 O'clock P.M. said date, the said defendant, came into his saloon, and had drinks to the amount of forty five cents and when he Cronin demanded payment from the said defendant he told him Cronin that he had no money and left a pair of cloth top ladies gaiters with him Cronin as security for the payment of the said forty five cents. and on the following day the said defendant again came to his Cronin's saloon, and offered him Cronin a few cents and requested Cronin to return said shoes to him which he Cronin refused to do. Dependent further says that he has since seen said pair of shoes which the defendant left with Cronin.

and fully identifies them as his property and as a portion of the property aforesaid.

Wherefore dependent charges the said defendant with burglariously entering said premises as aforesaid, and feloniously taking, stealing and carrying away said property.
