STATE OF NEW YORK,
CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK,

ss.

Friton Barrman.

Aged 30 years, a police officer at the City of New York, in the County of New York, at Number 72

North Avenue, he saw there in charge of the place Frederick Schmidt (now here) and that said place was openly, publicly and unlawfully kept and maintained as an office or place for the vending or selling what is commonly known as chances in drawn numbers of Lottery Policy.

This deponent further says that on the said 16th day of August 1882 he entered the premises aforesaid and the said Frederick Schmidt did then and there unlawfully and feloniously sell and vend to this deponent for the sum of ten cents a chance or insurance in the drawing or drawn numbers of a lottery scheme commonly called and known as Lottery Policy, and being in the nature of a bet or wager.

And deponent further says that when he entered the said place deponent said to the said Schmidt that he wanted to play a gig and saying it was against their rules.

It appears by certificate within that the deft. had been an inmate of a lunatic asylum; and it also appears from the certificate and letter from the Chief of Police of Jersey City that he had always borne a very good character; that the amount of property obtained was only one dollar, which was procured rather by trick than otherwise. Would these circumstances justify that the indictment be returned on his own recognizance?

Court of General Sessions. Part II
 Before Recorder Smyth. Sept. 12. 1882 Indictment for carrying concealed weapons.
 George T. Leeson, sworn and examined.
 I am a member of the police, I arrested the prisoner, I saw him on the 21st of August at Washington Park at half past Three or half past four in the morning; he was loitering around the Park. I saw him twice and wanted to know what he was doing. I says, you are acting suspicious around here; he says; "I did not mean to do anything wrong." I says, Have you anything around you that you would commit any burglary with, you look like somebody that would do something wrong. "He says, "I have nothing, and put his hand behind him. I says, "What have you got there?" He says, "Nothing." I had a tussle with his hand and put my hand in his pocket and he had this slung shot. I found it in his pocket - the pistol pocket (slung shot produced) then took him to the station house. [The slung shot was put in evidence by the District Attorney.] William H. Scott, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am a porter in the store of A. W. Bly & Co 213 and 215

Duane St. I was in the employ of the firm at that time. I live at 142 1/2 Thompson St. between Bleeker and Thompson Sts. That is about two blocks from the Park. I was found between three and four o'clock in the ~~morning~~ morning with this slung shot in my possession. The way I came to have that thing in my possession was that afternoon I went out with a little child, who was sick, and who stops where I live. I take him out to walk usually on Sunday mornings, but that morning I slept rather late having been hard to work. His mother asked me to take him to the Park at four or five o'clock. I sat down by the fountain and while I was sitting there about half an hour, he asked me to take a walk.
 I went west from the fountain by Maresfield Place, the female cottage where the ladies go in. I saw that instrument lying on the grass. I put it in my pocket with the intention of leaving it home.
 He said, "Hurry home, I am sick;" he wanted to go to the closet. I partially ran with him to Bleeker and Thompson Sts. and goes in the house. I saw his grand mother and asked her to take him in. I took my hat off; my head was aching, I have been troubled with catarh. This thing entirely slipped my mind. I sat in a doze. A man who drives a truck came in and stayed until a quarter to ten. I got up and <sup>he</sup> started to go home, ~~with~~ I went with him to the corner of Washington and Twelfth St. where he lives and stayed there and talked with him about 20 minutes. I went back to the house. They asked me what time it was I told them it was a quarter past eleven. My head ached and I took a smoke. I went into the Park and smoked the pipe two or three times. I got my head kind of clear and it felt kind of light and dizzy. I went into a sound sleep and I never woke until the officer kicked my foot; he asked me where I belonged. I was putting my pipe in my pocket. I said, "I have nothing, I am no thief, I am a workman." Then he put his hand upon me I happened to think of this thing. The officer said, "Take your hands out, I will take it away, you murdering black son of a b— I will take you in." He repeated that three times, and he took me to the station house; he was going to strike me with his club. I did not intend to use the slung shot on anybody. I had no malicious or felonious purpose at all.

 My employer sent to me for the keys of the store. I do not know whether he is in the city; his home is in Syracuse; his name is A. H. Bly. Cross Examined I found the slung shot between five and six in the evening of the previous day, Sunday evening. A little boy five years old was with me. I put it in my pocket.
 A few Sundays ago near the urinal I picked up a one barrelled pistol, and I also picked up a cane near my house.
 It did not take me more than five or six minutes to go home from the Park.
 Then I went in I sat at the window and fell off in a doze. I slept half or three quarters of an hour and then I sat at the window opposite and went to sleep again. I suppose I slept an hour or more that time; the young man who drives the truck for the store came in and woke me up. I sat and talked with him an hour or so. I afterwards went out with him and walked to his home. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. He was remanded for sentence.

The People } Court of General Sessions, Part I vs. Gustav Seivers } Before Recorder Smyth, Sept. 13, 1882.
Redeline Eckert, sworn and examined through the interpreter. The man who stood up worked in my hotel; the Eagle hotel is where I stopped. I had a room there No 12 on the 24th of August and the prisoner had room No 11. I had $45 American money, three five dollar gold pieces and I could not tell exactly how many silver dollars; the paper money was in an envelope and that was in my memorandum book.
 I had about 14, 15 or 16 bank notes. I cannot give the exact number of two dollar notes I had. I kept the three five dollar gold pieces in my port monnaie and I had it in my right hand pantaloons pocket. It was some time after 11 o'clock when I came home and went to bed. I have a wife and four children; my wife was with me in the room; the children slept in another room. The bar keeper gave me some money which I put with what I had. The door that I went through I locked; there was a door that connected room No 12 with No 11, and in the morning it was open. I did not examine the door before I went to bed; it was not open, but I do not know 0122

if it was locked with a key. I got up in the morning before four o'clock and I found the door a little ajar. Between my bed and the wall there was a trunk and I put my pantaloons upon that trunk on going to bed; it was about six inches from the door. There was nothing in the pockets any more; the prisoner slept in room No 11. I only know this by what the barkeeper told me. I did not see the prisoner in the room. I am sure I had the key: I tried the door leading into the hall in the morning and I found it locked. I made the acquaintance of the prisoner on the 22nd at that hotel, I am the owner of the hotel and I gave him some beer in the saloon. I bought the hotel about four weeks ago; the prisoner slept in room No 11 on the nights of the 22nd and 23<sup>d</sup>. I did not see him in the room. Emile Becker, sworn. I was clerk in the Eagle hotel; the last witness is my boss, I know the prisoner, I saw him at that hotel on the 24th of August; he occupied room No 11 two nights. On the night of the 24th I closed up the hotel about 11 o'clock and I opened it about five o'clock in the morning. I did not see the prisoner; he could not have gone out of the door without my seeing him. I closed the door of the hotel at 11 o'clock; it is not a hall door, it is from the saloon, the front of the house; the <sup>Key</sup> ~~door~~ is kept in it, it is not a Key, only a sliding bolt; I fastened it with bolts. The bar keeper, myself, and the prisoner went to bed. I got up at five o'clock and went down to the saloon; the door was the same as I left it the night before. I slept in No 9 on the second floor. I did not see the prisoner go into room No 11; the boss slept in No 12; there is a door leading from No 11 to No 12; the lock on No 12 is broken. When I shut up the hotel that night Sievers was in it; he went to bed about 11 o'clock. A person could get out of the hotel by the window; there is a roof on the front of the house near the elevated railroad, there were two poles and one could get down on the roof and then on the poles; the awning or roof was made of wood and it was right under room No 11; the window is about two feet from the roof. Mr. Eckart came down in the morning and said his money was gone. I went to room No 11 and found that the window above the roof was open. That was about  $\frac{1}{4}$  past 5 o'clock Cross Examined. My duty is to fetch the German people to the hotel. I am a runner and I keep the books. I saw the prisoner there on the night of the 23rd. I did not see him after the 24th. I did not see him after he retired to bed on the 23rd; the prisoner never came back to the house, I saw him at the Atlantic Garden the other day. He paid his bill; they have to pay in advance when they have no baggage. I am sure I let the room to the prisoner on the night of the 23rd. It is not possible that the prisoner could have got out of the house after the door was bolted. I remained down stairs until Eckart came down and told me he had lost the money, and from the time that I went down stairs about five o'clock until the time that Eckart came down nobody went out or came in. I went up stairs with Eckart, and we found that the prisoner had gone out of room No. 11; the window was raised up that led out upon the roof. I saw Eckart about 11 o'clock the night before he claims to have lost the money. I did not see Eckart get any money from the barkeeper but I understood that he did get some.

0123

0124

Jonathan Haggerty, sworn and examined. I was a member of the police force on the 24th of last month, I arrested the prisoner on the 29th in Division St; he was pointed out by the witness that has gone down, Emile Becker I took him to the station house and from there to the Court. I went to the house where this larceny was perpetrated on the day that the prisoner was committed; it is 471 Greenwich St. corner of Matt; it is a saloon, what we call an emigrant boarding house. I went up stairs and went to the room occupied by the defendant. There was a door leading from that to the adjoining room; there was a window leading out on the roof - there was a wooden awning leading out to the pillars of the Elevated Railroad; it was only about six inches from the window and the pillars are about twelve to fifteen feet from the sidewalk. Officer Shalvey was with me. Cross Examined. There was an officer in uniform in company with me at the time I arrested the prisoner, officer Kennedy; he brought him to the station house, and I followed right after. It was through my instructions that officer Kennedy brought him to the station house. Are you a special officer? Yes sir.

Gustav Sievers, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I have been living in this city since 1874. I went to Boston I live now on Third Avenue, I could not tell you the number. I only stayed there two nights after I got arrested. I have been in the city of New York since the 19th of July. For two years before that I was in Boston attending bar for Englehart on Gerront St. I came here looking for employment. I went to this lodging house first on the 22nd of August in the evening. I could not tell you the number of the room I got, but it was on the first floor.
 A friend from Boston wrote me a letter, and I went to Boston again, and the 22nd of August I came from Boston. I went through this city looking for employment.
 I went over to Hoboken. I slept in that house on the 23<sup>d</sup> of August and occupied the same room I had the night before.
 I got up early in the morning. I think it was five o'clock; the "runner" got up and opened the saloon door. I got up and washed myself and went out of the saloon door. The "runner" was standing back in a kind of little office; he was standing there doing some work. I went out and went to the Staats Zeitung office looking for employment. That is why I came to be up so early, and went away. I did not open the door of the room that led into my room that night. Mr. Eckart I think is the proprietor of the hotel. I saw him there two nights. I could not tell you where he slept on the nights of the 22nd and 23rd. I do not know who was in the next room to me. There was clothes pins on the door and I had my clothes hanging on the same door. Did you go into that man's room and did you take any money out of his pocket? No sir. Were you ever arrested in your life before for any crime? No sir.

Cross Examined: I slept in that hotel one flight up on the 22nd and 23rd of August. I did not sleep there on the 24th - only two nights. I was out of employment and had been in this city since the 19th of July. I had a watch after I left that hotel. I sawed that watch on the morning of the afternoon that I got arrested. I returned from Boston on the 22nd and then I went to this house. I slept there only two nights. The first morning I was there I got up at half past six and the next morning at five o'clock

The night before I did not sleep much, I was on the steamer all night and I was tired. I slept longer the first night. I saw the clerk at the Staats Zeitung office, I bought a paper of him; The clerk is no there. I worked in this city three years ago for Mr. Brown 645 Third Avenue; he has left the city I guess; he sold out his place. I worked a year and a half for him as bar tender. I worked for nobody else in this city. I was in Boston two years. Why did you not go back to that hotel after you left it that morning at 5 o'clock? Because I stayed there the 24th on account I thought I would get work somewhere around there. I found out I could not get work and I did not go back. I hired a room on Third Avenue between Fifteenth and Sixteenth Sts. from a widow woman. I could not tell you, I had been there only two nights after I got arrested. I slept at this place on Third Avenue on the 25th and 26th; on the 27th I went home with a friend. I slept with a friend of mine at No 9 Spring Street. What is his name? His name is Crumstick. Is he here? No sir. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny. The prisoner was remanded till Friday for sentence.
