Dear Sir
I came home to late to stop at

you. The matter seems to me to be out of your or my control
now and all I can do is to ask of you to request the Court for mercy on the part of my unfortunate nephew. I will do all I can to hunt up the others
my own son included and if I know his whereabouts will tell you at once. I understand the Judge can send Henry to Prison
or to the Reformatory or suspend

can call upon him at any time
you need him as a witness.
I have seen my attorney about informs me if I do you as well as I are liable for what the District attorney would call:

Compounding a felony & I don't for one wish to have any such trouble.

Henry tells me he will come at your call at any time if he is left to go on his own recognizance
and you would do an act of Charity by asking the Court to do so. It may be impossible Indictment filed November 6, 1890.

Indicted for burglary in the third degree.

New York, November 10, 1890.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Assistant District-Attorney A. D. Parker;

For the Defendants,

Mr. N. S. Levy.

S I M O N B R A N D T, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 79 Clinton Street in this city.
 I deal in butter and eggs. My business place was at that number on the 30th. day of October last. It is in a basement four steps down from the street. I saw my working man lock the door of those premises at half past ten o'clock on the night of the 30th. of October. On that same night some hours later I was awakened by the police.
 When I got to my store I found that the door had been broken open and thirty dozen of eggs were missing. I afterwards saw the eggs in boxes and identified them as my property.

S E L I G G O O D M A N, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 161 Rivington Street in this city. I work in a bakery shop directly opposite the store of the last witness. On the night of the 30th. of October the defendant Schaefer came into the bake-shop and wanted to sell me three or four boxes of eggs at a dollar a box. I told him to wait in the bakery a few moments and I went over to Mr. Brandt's place and woke him up. When I was going over I saw the defendant Muller coming out of Brandt's place. I am positive that those are the two men I saw. I then went and notified a policeman and he arrested one of the men.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

I didn't see Muller in company with Schaefer. I went to work on that night at about two o'clock. It was about half past two when the defendant Schaefer came into my premises. I suspected at once that the eggs were stolen when he wanted to sell them to me.

J O H N J. B O W E, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an officer attached to the Twelfth Precinct in this city. On the 30th. of October last at about 2:30 A. M. I arrested the defendant Schaefer. I brought him to the Station House, left him there and went back to investigate the case. When I got back I found the defendant Muller about four doors below Brandt's store standing near a wagon in which there was a box of eggs. I then arrested him on suspicion and brought him to the Station House.

J A M E S   R O G E R S,   a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the Thirteenth Precinct which adjoins the Twelfth. On the 30th. of October I was on post in Clinton Street. On that night I saw the defendant Muller standing near a wagon. I went up and spoke to him and in the wagon I saw a box of eggs. I afterwards turned him over to the officer coming from the Twelfth Precinct. He denied stealing the eggs when I asked him where they came from. He told me he didn't know they were in the wagon.

S A M U E L   H A L L,   a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an officer attached to the Eleventh Precinct. On the 30th. of October I was on duty in the neighborhood of this burglary. I saw the two defendants in company about half an hour before I heard of the burglary. I didn't notice anything particular in their movements.

A D A M   S C H A E F E R,   one of the defendants, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 69 Clinton Street in this city. I have never been arrested before in my life. I have been working steadily up to this occurrence. I didn't break into Mr. Brandt's place on that night. I stole no eggs on that night.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

I was arrested by the officer while I was standing near this wagon. I didn't know that the eggs were in the wagon. I went down into the bakery shop but didn't have such a conversation with the witness as he related.

G E O R G E M U L L E R, one of the defendants, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 57 Norfolk Street in this city. I have never been arrested before. On that night when I was on my way down to the German Newspaper Office I was arrested by one of these officers. I had nothing whatever to do with this burglary. I didn't steal any of the eggs.

The Jury returned a verdict of "guilty of burglary in the third degree".
