PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Henry Gaul.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. but my reasons for so doing are that the defendant had been in my employ for about two months prior to his arrest and I always found him honest, and trustworthy, and industrious. And I am fully satisfied that Tracy was the real thief, and that Gaul was not guilty of any criminal act, at the time of the larceny by Tracy. Gaul was under the influence of liquor, and was not aware of the theft by Tracy. He is a married man and has two children. And I believe that the ends of justice have been satisfied by the punishment of ~~the guilty~~ Tracy, who was really the guilty party.
