PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Frank J. Manora

Assault on 1 & 2 Regt,

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I don't speak the English Language and am now making my statement through an Interpreter who is a friend of mine, and whom I can trust to truthfully translate what I desire to state. - The Interpreter is named Michael Halvella residing in South Brooklyn - 37th St. bet 4th & 5th Ave

I now desired to charge the defendant with stabbing me - I was told by my Quotismen if I did not make this Complaint I would be sent to Prison - The Officer also told me so - The defendant and myself were interlocked and quarreled - The defendant pushed me and I fell and struck my head against the door, - I saw blood and concluded I must have been stabbed - I now meant to charge the defendant with stabbing - The whole matter was simply a drunken quarrel - I was as much to blame as defendant - I ask to have him discharged - I know fully the statement I now make with sign - It has been fully translated true and it is correct -

and carried away by Robert Fisher. (now here) from the fact that on or about said date the said defendant came to deponent's house and told deponent that he had been sent to see deponent by her husband who was confined on Blackwells Island. And after talking with deponent some time he the said defendant asked deponent if he could stay at her house over night as he lived way up in 133rd

City and County } ss.: of New York, }of No. 267-70th Avenue Street, aged 26 years, occupation Baker being duly sworndeposes and says, that on the 26 day of December 1886 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

One Bank Note of the denomination and value of Fifty dollars Two Bank Notes each of the denomination and value of One dollar Good and lawful money of the United States All of the value of Fifty-two dollars the property of Deponent and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Mary Fitzgerald (argued here) for the reason, that about the month of Nov. 30 1886 on the above date, Deponent entered the room at the rear of his baker store at the above address, which room Deponent and his wife occupied as a living room, and placed in the drawer of a bureau which stood in said ^{apartment} room a roll of bank bills amounting to twenty-two dollars, of which the above described was a portion; that at the time he entered said room, and placed the money in the bureau drawer, the defendant and Deponent's wife were in the room; that shortly thereafter Deponent and his wife went into the store to wait on customers, leaving the defendant alone in said room; Deponent is informed by his wife Velie Armstrong that on her return to the room a few afterward, she saw the defendant standing in front of and close to the bureau and the drawer which defendant had closed after placing the money therein partly opened: that shortly thereafter that defendant went away and immediately after her departure defendant missed the above described money. Defendant further says that no other person but the defendant was in said room from the time he placed the above described money in the drawer as above described until he missed the same.

Wherefore defendant charges the said Mary F. Williams with feloniously taking and carrying away the above described property.

Indicted for assault in the second degree.

Before

Hon Henry A. Gildersleeve,
And a Jury.

Tried - January 8th, 1886.

Appearances:

Assistant District Attorney, Gunning S. Bedford, for the People.

Mr Oliver for the defence.

George A. Farnsworth, the complainant, being duly sworn, testified that, he lived at 147 West 54th Street, and is in the stable business at 138 West 54th Street. That he saw the defendant, Flood, from 10 o'clock until half past 2, on the 25th of December 1885. That when Flood returned from his dinner, on that day, about half past 2, he passed through the office, and seemed to be intoxicated. He walked to the lower end of the floor, where other employees of the complainant, were talking, and made considerable noise.

0116

The complainant went to the office door, and said, "Edward, no more of that; any more, you will go out of the building." At that Flood drew his hand up, and shot a pistol at him. Farnsworth could not tell where the ball struck, although the pistol was aimed at him. He was about 45 feet from Flood, at the time of the shooting. He ordered his men to stop the defendant, and he, Farnsworth, went back into his office, and while talking to a gentleman, the defendant came in, and demanded money, which was refused. Flood thereupon said, "I will make you," and with that, he had the revolver in his hand, and showed it. The gentleman in the office took hold of the defendant, and the witness sent for an Officer.

Under cross-examination, by Mr Oliver, the complainant testified that, the defendant had been in his employ five or six years, and that, he had no animosity against him. That up to the time of the shooting, he had a great deal of confidence in him. There were four chambers in the revolver. His brother told him that, he took three cartridge out of the revolver after the shooting; but when witness saw the revolver, it was empty.

Officer John G. Story, of the 22nd Precinct, testified that, he arrested the defendant on the 25th of December, about 3 o'clock. That he did not see the shooting.

Under cross-examination, by Mr Oliver, the witness testified that, the defendant was drunk, but was able to walk. He asked the defendant if he shot Farnsworth, and he said, he did not know anything about it.

For the defence, Edward Flood, the defendant, testified that, his business was as Foreman for Mr Farnsworth, the complainant, and he had charge of the men, as well as the blankets and robes. About 11 o'clock on the 25th of December, one of the men asked him out to have a drink. He did not remember being in Mr Farnsworth's office at all that day, and did not know anything about the shooting until the next morning after he was arrested. He did not remember having a revolver that day.

Under cross-examination, the defendant testified that, he was not in the habit of carrying a revolver, and did not know where he got the pistol on the 25th of December, if he had one. He did not remember anything about asking for money from Mr Farnsworth.

Under the charge of the Court, the Jury considered the case, and found the prisoner guilty of assault in the third degree.

January 19/86
Dear Sir,

Owing to unavoidable duties, by professional duties I will be unable to attend the trial in the case of Flynn, set for the 19th instant.

I therefore submit a written clinical history of Ferrigno's injuries:—

Patient Bernard Ferrigno (Ag), 22 yrs was admitted Dec 6/85, at about 12 M. The patient was much in shock, pulse small and irregular. A superficial wound in the center of the gluteal region, from which there was much hemorrhage.

Over the abdomen were 2 wounds, one situated 3 inches below the fore-border of left ribs, running transversely, for $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. the other one inch below the fore border of right ribs, near the lumbar muscles, than center of abdomen. This wound in the long axis of the body, for $1\frac{1}{2}$ inch.

 piece of omentum protruded, about the size and shape of an oyster. None protruded from other abdominal wound, but could be seen at bottom of wound. Considerable hemorrhage had taken place from both wounds. No feces nor fecal odor detected. Both wounds were incised. There was also a slight incised wound, in left lumbar region, above the crease of the skin, passing through integument, only. On the back, just to the left of the lumbar vertebrae, was an oblique wound about 1 inch long; passing into the muscles of the back directly over the spinous processes of the lumbar vertebrae, was an incised wound $\frac{3}{4}$ in long.

deposes and says, that the premises No 165 Seventh Ave Street, being duly sworn in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a four story brick building the basement of which was occupied by deponent as a Barber shop and in which there was at the time several human beings by name John Lauckman

Mary Hawk and others whose names are unknown to deponent were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking open the door leading into said basement from the entrance on twenty fifth street by forcibly pushing the said door in on the 7th day of January 1886 in the Night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

Two hair Brushes, Two hair Clipping

Machines, Five Razors,

Three Combs, One Safety

Brush and One pair of Shears.

All together of the value of Twenty Dollars

the property of deponent except four razors three Combs and one pair of shears in the Care and Custody of deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by John Foley (now here) for the reasons following, to wit: that the deponent left the said premises at about the hour of nine o'clock PM of the above date and securely locked fastened and bolted the said door of 25th street entrance and went home

When deponent returned the following morning at about seven o'clock he discovered that the said door had been forcibly broken open and upon entering said basement discovering that the property herein described was missing. Depment is informed by Officer James K. Prier that he arrested said defendant who admitted to said officer that he had sold to One Joseph Williams a Barber at 116 West 30th Street said City, four razors, One pair of shears and three Combs, all for the sum of fifty two Cents, said officer went to said Williams place of business and obtained the property he had purchased from defendant and ^{who} identified the defendant in the presence of said officer as being the ^{person} from whom he purchased the said property.

Depment has since seen the said property and fully identifies it as being the property that was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the aforesaid premises at the time and manner herein described.
