The People
 Charles Jaffe vs.
 Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Cowing. December 28. 1891.
 Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree.
 Adeline Anderson, sworn and examined. testified. I live at 504 East Eleventh street. I remember the 11th of December last; about half past five o'clock I was walking down Grand street in this city.
 I stood in front of Lichenstein's and all of a sudden a crowd was pushing against me. I turned around and I saw this man, the prisoner and the detective standing in the back of me. I turned around and looked at him, and then I looked at the show again and all of a sudden I felt something in my pocket. I put my hand down and this man took his hand out of my pocket.
 He had hold of my pocket book. I took out my pocket book and turned around and walked out because I was so frightened.
 The officer walked out of the crowd with the defendant. He asked me if the defendant took something off me. I says, I put down my hand and kept hold of my pocket book and took it out and turned around and walked out. How much was in that pocket book? I had twenty one dollars and 50 or 75 cents in it.

Cross Examined: I live at 504 East Eleventh street.
 What were you doing on Grand street that day? I was going to buy some things. I was out on business. I left the post office about five o'clock and took a car. What time did you leave your house 554 East Eleventh street on that day? I cannot exactly tell that. I went down to the Post Office and I left there at five o'clock. I know that is the time because I looked at the clock. I took the car and rode up Grand street and the Bowery and I got out of the car and looked in the show window of Lichenstein's it was around six o'clock. I don't know how long I looked in the window. How long were you looking in the window of Lichenstein's? About fifteen minutes. I was looking at the Christmas things in the window. I cannot exactly say how long I was standing there. Is it not a fact that you did not see this man's hand in your pocket? I put my hand down and as I put my hand down in my pocket he took his hand out. Is it not a fact in your affidavit here made in the Police Court that you felt a fumbling about the pocket of your dress worn by you as a part of your bodily clothing and upon turning around you saw the defendant standing close to you? and that is all you know? No sir, that was the first time I saw the crowd was pushing against me and the second time then I did not look any more.

 The man was going around here and I thought it was only the crowd pushing against me. Was there a big crowd around there? The sidewalk was full how many people were around there about that time? That I do not know. I did not look around there much. There was a crowd there looking into that window? Yes. They pushed into you you say and then you felt a jumbling at your pocket? That is what I thought, that was the first time; the second time the man had his hand in my pocket. Did you see this man's hand in your pocket? No, at that moment I did not. I turned around.
 Is it not a fact that the officer who arrested this man told you that he had it in there? No sir. When you felt the hand in your pocket you put your one hand in and ~~took~~ felt another ~~his~~ hand ~~at~~ coming out? Yes, as I put my hand in he took his hand out; then I took my pocket book out and turned around and walked off.
 He was behind you? Yes sir. This defendant here. Did you feel that man's hand (the defendant) in your pocket with your own hand? Yes, he had hold of my pocket book. I put down my hand, I caught hold of my pocket book. Was his hand on it? Yes sir, his hand was in my pocket. Was his hand on the pocket book at that time? Yes.

 James M. Cafferty sworn and examined.
 I am connected with the Central Office.
 On the 11th of December I was in front of Lichenstein's in Grand Street. I saw the complainant who was on the stand there and I saw the defendant standing behind her. I watched him for I suppose five minutes. The first thing that I saw him do that attracted my attention I saw him step a little to the right, and a few minutes afterwards the lady turned around very flurried in the face and looked around. I still kept the position I was in which was directly behind him, he being behind her. Just at that moment there was a break in the crowd and I saw him draw his hand out of her pocket.

Cross Examined. How many people were around there at that time? I did not count them; there was quite a crowd, enough to fill the sidewalk. There must have been a couple of hundred? No, there was not, I cannot tell you how many I suppose there was twenty five. I don't know how many. Charles Jaffe, sworn and examined in his own defence. testified: I live at Eighth Avenue and Sixteenth street. I lived there for the last nine months. I am a barber. I worked at the barber business for the last five years. I was in Chicago and three years in New York city. On the day in question, the 11th of December I went to Brooklyn to see a gentleman named Taboso; he is a barber's agent. I enquired for work, and the gentleman told me I should come back the next morning; so I took a walk back on the Brooklyn bridge. I saw this man in Brooklyn about two o'clock in the afternoon; then I took the horse car back. I took the Grand street car to Lichenstein's store. I saw some people standing there and I went to take a look; at the same time I saw a girl was behind me and some man pushing me against the girl. The girl looked at me and I looked at her. I then changed and went back the same way. Then she spoke to a man who was a detective. She said to him that I had my hand in the girl's pocket. That man was not there at all, he was away on the end. She says to him that I had my hand in the pocket, and called the officer. "Come," he says to me. I said, "What for?" I was only standing there looking at that window. He says, "Come on along with me." I came to Headquarters, he arrested me and locked me up. I can swear to God Almighty that that man is telling an untruth. Did you ever have your hand in that woman's pocket? I did not. Were you ever arrested before? Never in my life. I have always had a good reputation.

Cross Examined. How did you know what the officer saw? Because he was not there, he was standing on the end, he was not behind me. Did you ever know that officer before? No sir. I never saw him before. He was not dressed in uniform, he was in citizens clothes. He was not amongst the crowd, he was standing on the sidewalk; he was not in front of Lichenstein's window. I can swear to God Almighty I am telling the truth. She told you that you had your hand in her pocket, didn't she? No sir she didn't.

Did not she feel your hand in her pocket that day? No. She went and spoke to that man (the detective) and he said, "Come on, come on with me, and he took me to the Police Headquarters. Did she speak to him without knowing he was an officer?
Yes. After the officer arrested you did not the woman speak to him? The woman did not speak much to him. How did you come over from Brooklyn to New York South Ferry, Hamilton Ferry, Wall street ferry, Fulton ferry, or the Bridge? By the Bridge!
You came over the Bridge? Yes sir My friend lived at 38 Sumner Avenue, Brooklyn.
I took a horse car from Brooklyn at Sumner Avenue. How did you go to Brooklyn that day? Over the Bridge. I only stood at the window of Lichenstein's for three minutes. I got off the car at Rivington street and then I went to Grand street. I was taking a walk back to Grand street. Did you not take the Elevated Railroad at the New York City hall to ride up to Rivington street? No sir. What car did you take after you came over from Brooklyn across the Bridge, what car did you take at the City hall Park to get up to Rivington street? I was walking all the way up from the Brooklyn bridge! Tell us what streets you went through? First I came through Park Row, then I crossed the Borey, and then I went through Grand street. First I was walking to Rivington street and then I came back to Grand street. You went up Park Row and went around Chatham Square and up the Borey how far did you go up the Borey? As far as Rivington St. What did you go to Rivington street for? Taking a walk that way. I wanted to go over to a gentleman's ^{of the} name of Margueth corner of Henry and Grand streets. I did not know Lichensteins store before. I was standing by the window for two or three minutes and no longer.

The jury, after a brief absence from the Court room, rendered a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment.

The prisoner was asked the usual question by the Clerk, and the Judge sentenced the defendant to imprisonment in the State prison for the term of three years.
