The Court of General Sessions of the Peace.
Hon Recorder Smythe.

Dear Sir:

The prisoner Geo. Dunkelhoff indicted for Grand Larceny on my complaint is by trade a machinist and has worked for me nearly 3 years but not steadily.

He is a good mechanic and I paid him 3 + 4 dollars a day, his family ought to have been in better circumstances and would have been had he always been provident.

I believe he has been addicted to drink when away from his work, he was always sober and industrious when at my place of business.

In view of the destitution of his family (wife and 4 children) and the promises he himself makes to reform and be a better man I would suggest if your honor could suspend judgment and hold it over him it would be a greater incentive to reform, than the prison punishment.

Yours Respectly. J. H. Browne
