 The People v. Bernard Lieber } Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 Indictment for attempt at grand larceny. } Before Recorder Smyth. Feb. 25. 1884.

Robert M. Toole sworn. I live 24 East First St. I occupy two rooms. My wife and I went out walking and when I came in I found the prisoner concealed in a dark room; this was after seven in the evening. The place was closed when I went out. There was a silver box and a seal skin cloak there. I presume a hundred dollars or more worth of property. When we got home my wife made a remark that things had been removed in the room. The things were upside down. Nothing had been taken. When I discovered the prisoner I went down for a policeman and had him arrested. He started to run out of the house, but a gentleman who keeps the house caught him going out of the back door. He made no explanation to me of why he went in there. I never saw him before. He does not live in that house. Cross Examined. He told Mr. Linger in my presence that he was looking for a man named Smith or Jones. I don't remember the name exactly. Charlie Smith, I think is the name; he does not live in that house.

I had been out an hour or an hour and ~~took the prisoner~~ was concealed in this dark room; he had the door closed and he was standing in the corner. Mr. Langer is the landlord of these premises; the prisoner was in his room when I came back after looking for a policeman to take him.
 Emmanuel Langer sworn. I am proprietor of the house 24 First St. and Mr. and Mrs. Toole live there; on the 10th of Feb. I saw the defendant there. It was about 9 1/2 o'clock Sunday evening. I thought it was like some one falling down from the first to the second floor. I came out; the hall was dark. I thought there was somebody was in the room; it was this young man. I bring him in the front basement. I says, "What the hell do you do here?" I was up stairs, he said, and called for Smith. "I told you Smith lives no there. I went up into Mr. Toole's dark room after that; there was about twenty matches burned in the bed room and the trunk were open. I went to the station house, and the policeman took him to the station house. Nobody by the name of Smith lives in that house.

Andrew Armstrong sworn. I am an officer of the seventh precinct, on the evening of the 10th of Feb. I was on patrol duty on First St. and I was attracted by a crowd that was in front of the place 24 First St. I don't remember whether it was a man or a woman hallooed out to me, "There is a burglar in this house." I was going down the right ^{hand} side of the way. I ran across and went up stairs and met Mr.
 Toole up there. He says, "There is a young man down stairs in the basement." I went down after him and found the young fellow in the basement. I took him to the station house; we searched him; we did not find anything belonging to the house; we found a few keys and a picture which he said was of his sister.
 Bernard Lieber, sworn and examined in his own defence testified. I am between 17 and 18 years old. I live at 283 East Houston St. I know a man named Charlie Smith; he lives in First St. near Second Ave. I was arrested on the 10th Feb. for going into this man's house. I saw Charlie Smith the Sunday before; he asked me to call and see me. This was Saturday night and this friend of mine (Smith) in Stanton St. he asked me to come to him tomorrow Sunday - he is home between seven and eight o'clock.

 He said he was living in First St. near Second Ave., he did not know the number of the house. The next day I go in First St. near Second Ave.. The door was open.
 I go in, and went on the second floor.
 I knocked, nobody opened. I go right in.
 I knocked at that too. Just as I go in somebody ran away and halloed, "Police".
 I went down in the basement. I saw the landlord go in his room. I asked him if a man lived here of the name of Charlie Smith. I did not go into the room to steal anything. I have never been arrested for stealing. Cross Examined. I did not knock at the outside door, it was open. I went on the second floor and knocked at the door. I did not fall down stairs. Charlie Smith told me he lived in First St. near the Second Ave. I knew Charlie Smith in the old country. I worked for Paul Bauer at a summer hotel in Coney Island and for Mr. Fleischman corner of Sixth St. and Broadway. I stopped working about three months ago.
 The jury rendered a verdict of guilty
