CLERK OF COURT

0854

Police Office, First District.

City and County of New-York, ss.

1881. I, William Regan

deposes and says, that the premises No. 19 Ann Street, being duly sworn,

2d Ward, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a House and which was occupied by deponent as a place of business and office for bill factoring were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of climbing a fire escape and forcibly breaking a pane of glass in the front window of the third floor and removing a piece of wood that was fastened said window and forcibly raising said window leading into said premises on the 11th day of September 1881 and the following property feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, viz.:

578 tickets of admission to theatres

80 of said tickets being for Booths Theatre

in the City of New York all of said

tickets being of the value of Two hundred and seventy dollars

the property of deponent who is 43 old and a bill folder by occupation and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by Edward Vincillette (now here)

for the reasons following, to wit:

That deponent is informed by Ashtu M. Sachs that he purchased from Edward Vincillette 205 tickets for various theatres on the night of September 11-1881. Deponent further says that said Vincillette admitted to him that he broke in said premises and took and carried away said tickets
