 v. Jeremiah O'Neil
 Indictment for grand larceny from the person.

Court of General Sessions. Before Judge Cowing. Dec. 2, 1879.

Joseph Graham, sworn and examined, testified. I live over in Jersey, I am in a grain exporter's office at 47 Exchange Place, New York. On the 19th of November when I lost the money I was about the middle of the street between Park Row and the Postoffice in Park Row; it was about 1/4 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon. I came out of the Park National Bank with two fifty dollar bills in my pocket. I walked up Park Row and this boy pushed against me and wanted to know if I did not want to buy a paper? I told him, no, that I did not think I wanted it; he pushed me there at that time, I did not notice that. I walked across the street, he came up to me again, he only had one paper and that was the Sun; he kept pushing and pulling at my vest pocket. It was an annoyance because of his coming up to me twice. I told him to get out. I did not want any of his papers; the moment he had gone, I felt my pocket and the two fifty dollar bills were gone. I did not get those bills at the bank, I got them from my employer Mr. M. J. Quinn.

0417

I did not see the prisoner run; the minute after he was tugging at my pocket. The minute after he left me I thought of his tugging but his annoyance at the time did not strike me. How soon after was he arrested?
 About four hours after I believe, seven o'clock Cross Examined. How long had you had these bills? They were given to me about 10 1/2 in the morning; this was about 1/4 to 3. I took the money out in the bank and looked at the bills and put them back. That was about two minutes before I saw this boy, the prisoner.
 He stole them in the middle of the street between the Post Office and Overton. The street was not crowded with cars, and I had no difficulty in crossing at the time. Did you ever see this boy before? I never saw him before. I could not swear how he was dressed, for I noticed his face mostly. The next time I saw the prisoner was in the Tombs police Court when the Judge asked me to pick him out of eight or ten boys there; he did not have the ulster on him when I saw him in Park Row; it strikes me he had a jacket on. I can positively swear he is the boy. I got the bills from my employer to get them changed; he told me to get them changed the next time I went out. I never lost any money before and always had a large amount of money in my pocket too. I did not notice any newsboys around me at the time the money was taken except the prisoner. Why did you not have him arrested then? I would have if I could, if I had seen him; it seems to me he must have vanished in the air almost it was so quick, I did not see him. I went right over to the policeman and asked him what I should do? The policeman told me to look around for the boy. I told him it was all humbug to look around for the boy; he told me to go down to the Fourth Precinct Station House. The second time the prisoner came up to me I took particular notice of him. I went down to the Fourth Precinct and I described the boy and also at the Police Court. I said in the Police Court that he was light complexioned, short and had rather an old look for his size. I said down to the ~~Police~~ Fourth Precinct that he was slightly peckled. I next saw the prisoner at the ~~trials~~ when the Judge told me to pick him out; the Judge told me to look out of the window while the other boys were going past me. I did not tell the Sergeant at the Police station that the boy who took my money was sixteen or seventeen.

years old. I told him I thought he was ^{there} over; when I got to the office in the morning Sergeant Brophy came and said he had arrested a boy and wanted to know whether I would come up and identify him. I went to the Tombs. Between the time the boy thrust a newspaper in your face and you felt the tugging at your pocket was there anybody else near enough you to put their hand in your pocket? No sir.

Jeremiah O'Neil was called and examined but not sworn. How old are you? Seventeen. Did you steal this gentleman's money? did you see him on Park Row? No sir. Where were you arrested? Seven or eight o'clock in the night. I was playing and an officer called me. I went over to him. I thought he wanted to send me on an errand. I walked over; the officer said I was wanted. I thought he was fooling me; they searched me from head to foot. Cross Examined. How long is it since you were sent from this Court for picking a pocket before? I do not know sir, about a year ago. You were convicted of that and sent to the Catholic Protectory? Yes sir; I stayed there three months and my mother took me home. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. He was sent to the House of Refuge.
