My dear Sir:-

Young Samuel Clay who formerly resided in this city, is in your city prison upon an indictment for taking a pocket book from a book-maker, John M. Shannon. I have known young Clay for several years, and from my knowledge of his condition, and from information received from physicians who have examined him, I am confident that he has for some time been suffering from mental aberration, and when in that condition is liable to commit acts for which he is not responsible. Young Shannon, of this place, fully appreciating the circumstances, will not prosecute Clay, and of course the whole matter will then rest with you.

I have taken the liberty to write you regarding young Clay, because I felt assured that when the facts were brought before you you would not feel inclined to pursue the matter any further than your duty absolutely required, and I further feel that any consid-

Dear Sir:-

Samuel Clay, of Kentucky, is now in your city prison charged with the crime of grand larceny. Young Clay belongs to one of the best families in our State, and on account of his parents and brothers, I take great interest in the outcome of the matter.

While I would not for a moment ask from you the slightest departure from your duty as prosecuting attorney, I shall be glad if you can see your way to dealing leniently with the unfortunate boy. It is useless to say I write at the instance of his relatives.

Very Truly Yours,

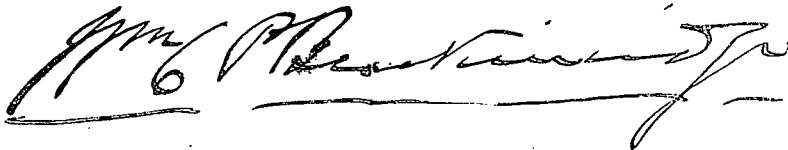

William Lindsay

My dear Sir:-

Young Sam Clay, a son of an old friend of mine of this city, has been indicted at New York for taking a pocket book from one John M. Shannon. Young Clay in early life was addicted to the habit of masturbation, and was sent to Louisville and circumcised by Dr. Morton, of that city, in the hope that it would cure him of this habit. He afterwards attempted to commit suicide, and was confined in a private sanitarium here under the care of Dr. Evans.

Those acquainted with his condition believe him entirely irresponsible. Of course, I appreciate fully the responsibilities of your position, but I am fully convinced that if the duties of your office will allow you any discretion in the matter, young Clay's condition will justify any consideration which you may be able to show him. On account of Clay's condition the Shannons will not prosecute, and I felt that when the facts of the case were brought to your attention, you would not feel inclined to push the matter.

I enclose you a letter just sent me from Senator Blackburn of Kentucky, which explains itself. Will you please telegraph me upon receipt of this to 1822 Jefferson Place Washington, as to whether the case is now in the office, and its status.

As these gentlemen are the direct descendants of Henry Clay they occupy position which naturally arouses a deep sense of mortification and shame that they are likely to experience through one of their family, I should certainly be glad to aid them in any way in my power. I have been confined to my bed since the Inauguration with pleurisy and am just able to be up. I shall return to New York by Saturday or Sunday. Hon, J. C. S. Blackburn,

My dear Mr. Senator:-

As you have probably seen in the papers, my younger brother, Samuel Clay, has been arrested on the charge of taking a pocket book from one John Shannon some time last Fall in New York City. My brother, Bishop Clay, and myself desire to secure some one to defend him. Thinking the matter over, it occurred to me that perhaps Col. John R. Fellows would be the best man to undertake the case, provided his fee would be small enough for us to be able to pay it. Bishop and I have no means, but we could probably raise a reasonable amount.

Sam has been entirely irresponsible for the past three or four years. He is now only nineteen years of age, and for the past four or five years has been addicted to the habit of masturbation. He attempted to commit suicide at one time, and we have had him confined in a Sanitarium here, and had him circumcised and treated for the habit of masturbation. We can furnish depositions of the physicians who attended him, and I believe that a case of insanity could be made out.

I should be glad if you will communicate with Col. Fellows immediately, and find out whether he will undertake the case or not, and if so, what would be his charges.

You will pardon me for worrying you with this matter, but whenever I am in trouble, I feel like coming to you first of all.

Very respectfully, Wm. Rogers Clay

The affiants, J. W. Pryor and R. L. Willis, being first duly sworn, say that they are and have been for several years past practicing physicians in the city of Lexington, Ky., and that J. W. Pryor is Professor of Physiology in the State College of Kentucky; that on the night of March 6, 1892, they were summoned to attend Samuel Clay, III, in Lexington, who had endeavored to commit suicide by the use of morphine.; that they administered to him the necessary antidotes, and he subsequently recovered. Affiants state that at the time he was suffering from emotional insanity, occasioned by masturbation; that the effect of this habit upon his nervous system produces mental aberration which renders him at times entirely irresponsible.

The affiant, Silas Evans, being first duly sworn, says that he is a practicing physician in the city of Lexington, and he now has charge of High Oak Sanitarium for the treatment of mental and nervous diseases, and has been in charge of the same for the past fourteen months; that previous to that time he was connected with the State asylums for a period of seven years; that he is familiar with mental and nervous diseases, having made a specialty of them for the last ten years. He says that he is acquainted with Samuel Clay, III, and that he treated said Clay for a period of six weeks at his sanitarium. Said Clay while under his care was suffering from mental aberration, the form of which trouble was emotional insanity, the result of masturbation. While he somewhat improved under his care, he did not consider him well when he left him. He says that the character of said Clay's mental trouble is such that under any excitement he is liable to commit acts for which he is irresponsible.

Dear Sir:

Young Sam Clay, of Kentucky, is now in your city prison charged with taking a pocketbook from one John M. Shannon. Clay's family are among the best people in our State, and are all personal friends of mine. His case is a very sad one. In early life he was addicted to the habit of masturbation. His family had him circumcised, and treated in a private asylum. Upon one occasion he attempted to commit suicide, and it is thought by those familiar with the circumstances of his life that he is entirely irresponsible. While I would not ask for him any leniency which the law does not permit, still, if the matter comes before you in such shape that you can exercise any discretion, I feel that the circumstances of the case would justify you in being as considerate as the duties of your office will permit.
