for defendant - Benig sworn says -

That on the day of December 1883, the defendant above named was indicted by a Grand Jury in the City and County of New York and the indictment forthwith brought into this Court for trial. That the indictment is triable in this Court and the trial has not been postponed on the application of this defendant but that nevertheless the December term of 1883 and the January term of 1884 have expired without this indictment having been brought to trial and the case is now set down for the First says, that on the 7th day of November 1893 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, he was innocently and feloniously assaulted and beaten by Will H. Himmere (nowhere) from the following facts to wit: That while deponent was walking through 74th Street between 2^d & 3^d Avenue toward 1st Avenue in said city at between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock on said morning he deponent heard several shots fired in premises No. 356 East 74th Street ^{which is an Oyster Saloon} where deponent got opposite said premises he stopped a few moments and looked in, then deponent walked toward 1st Avenue when near the corner he saw three men who were unknown to him standing on the South East corner, he then heard a shot fired and a second shot almost immediately afterward, ~~the second~~ Deponent felt that he was struck with a Bullet or Slug immediately after the second shot on the right Hip passing through the fleshy part over the Hip and then said Bullet or Slug fell down into his deponent's Boot, Deponent further says that the shots were fired from behind him and that after he had been struck with said Bullet he immediately turned around and saw the said defendant standing in the doorway of said Oyster Saloon with a Pistol in his hand, that deponent turned around and went back to the store or saloon where said defendant was standing and said to him, "You shot me and why did you do it?" He said defendant replied, "Is that so?" Deponent then went to the Station House in East 59th Street and notified the officers that he had been shot in East 74th Street; He was then conveyed to the Presbyterian Hospital in 4th Avenue and 70th Street; That on the 8th day of November 1883 said defendant was brought to said Hospital where deponent identified him as the man who had shot him. He said defendant said to deponent at the time "I know I fired the shot, if I shot you I will pay you for it."

Deponent then for charges the said defendant with feloniously shooting him with intent to take his life or do him grievous bodily harm without any justification on the part of the said assailant.

Wherefore deponent prays that the said defendant may be held to answer and dealt with according to law.

Five dollars

the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Frederick Hoffman (now here) from the fact that on said day said Frederick Hoffman informed deponent that for the sum of Five dollars he would give him a Rubber Horse which he deponent had lost on the 10th day of October 1883-he said Frederick Hoffman stating to deponent that he knew where said property was-that deponent relying upon the statements of said Hoffman gave him the Five
