The People v. James Devlin } Court of General Sessions. Part 4
 Before Judge Gildersleeve. Dec. 5, 1889.
 Indictment for felonious assault and battery
 Daniel J. Kiernan, sworn and examined.
 I live 439 West Thirty eighth St. am a driver.
 I drive for a contractor four years. I know Devlin a good while by sight, but only spoke to him two or three times. I met him on the 13th of Nov., the day that he cut me about 3 o'clock. I put my horses in the stable, went up Eighth Avenue and got some thing to eat. We met Devlin at Thirty seventh St. and Ninth Avenue; there was another man with me. We left Devlin. I went with a friend to his house in Fortieth St. I left him in his house and came down 10th Avenue to 38th St. I met Devlin, he says
 "Halloa," I says, "Halloa;" he says, "Who is the two fellows that is going to kick me for Kelly?
 He says, "You lie, you son of a b---h, and then gave me the knife; he stabbed me in the chest between the first and second ribs. It was a white handled knife he cut me with, it looked like an ordinary pen knife. There was a kind of a nick in the end of the blade. I was cut once. I went to the Station house and from there I was taken to the Roosevelt Hospital.

0469

I was there from the 13th of Nov. to Thanksgiving day [Mr. Phelps; Counsel allows me to read this: Nov. 16th Roosevelt Hospital. David Kiernan is under treatment for stab wound of the chest and cannot leave the Hospital without some risk to himself. W. H. House Surgeon.] I cannot read his name. I gave him no provocation. My friend was not near him at the time.

Cross Examined. I was not particularly intimate with the prisoner, but I never was unfriendly with him. I know George Smith, he is a friend of mine. I don't know Walter Eldridge. I never made any threats against the prisoner. I did not tell George Smith and Walter Eldridge that the first time I would catch Devlin at Fifth Avenue and Thirty eighth St. I would lay him out. I never made use of any such expression. I am positive of that. I see George Smith in Court. I remember meeting Devlin at a ball. I am sure I had no words with him there. He asked me who was going to call him for Kelly, a girl of that name. I did not have that lady at the ball. I had my wife. I had no misunderstanding with him about a lady that he was dancing with there.

Morris Fitzgerald testified. I am an officer and arrested the prisoner on the 18th of last month three days after the cutting on complaint of the complainant. I asked the prisoner how he came to cut this man and he told me the complainant assaulted on the corner of Seventh Ave. and thirty eighth et attempting to steal his watch. I searched him and found this knife on him (knife produced). I got the knife from his father; the prisoner said that was the knife he did the cutting with. I arrested him in Walker St. upon the truck he was working on. I know he drives a truck for his father; I know his reputation is not bad. Daniel J. Kiernan recalled the knife now shown to me is not the knife which he cut me with on that night. James Gerlin, sworn and examined in his own behalf. I live 442 West thirty fifth et. I work for my father, he keeps trucks and a stable at 46 Walker St. I have been arrested for throwing snow balls and making a fire in the street, but not for stealing or committing a burglary. I cut Kiernan. I met the complainant at a ball and I saw Lizzie Kelly there. We had no words in the ball room, but afterwards he said to me

0471

"you pass thirty eighth st and 10th ave and it won't be good for you if you don't give that girl her dancing order." I took her dancing order in fun. I did not pay any heed to his remark. On the morning when this happened I went into a place corner of thirty seventh st and Ninth ave and had a glass of Sarsaparilla, while I was in there Kiernan came in; he said to me, "you are a dirty sucker" I paid no attention to him. There was another fellow with him, and they were on the point to lick me when a policeman chased them away. I went down to the stable to see how the horses were getting on, and when at the corner of 38th st and 9th ave, the prisoner hit and kicked me, knocked me down and hit me with my own umbrella. I tried to get away from him but could not and in self defence I cut him. Walter Eldridge testified that he was at the ball and heard Kiernan say that if ever he got him going past 38th st and 10th ave, he would have him licked. George Smith testified to the same effect. Kiernan was recalled and said he never made this threat at the ball. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault and battery.

NEW YORK, Dec 22. 1881

Hon. D. A. Rollins

My dear Sir.

Inclosed you will find a letter from the Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine Co. showing that William Douglas is the janitor of their building and has been for two years, and that he is held in high esteem by the Co. notwithstanding the indictment against him in your office.

Douglas tells me he was never in trouble of this kind before and on the evening in question was returning home peacefully when assaulted by the complainant. I believe this is a case in which justice would be fully served by the exercise of clemency by the court.

Yours truly C. N. Taintor

Whom it may concern:
The bearer, William Douglass, has been with this Company, as janitor of this building, since Octr 1879, and in all things, so far as we have had to do with him, he has been an exceptionally good man for us in that position. He is industrious, willing and obliging.
We shall be very sorry to have the misunderstanding, which led to trouble, lose us his services. We shall retain him here, if we can, but we could not be without a janitor at all, and, if he were to be away for any length of time, we should have to employ another man at once in his place.
