

THE BROOKLYN
Central Labor Union

is a representative body, composed of delegates from open and closed unions of Brooklyn and vicinity, organized to promote the interests of all who earn their bread, but particularly those working for wages.

It meets every Sunday afternoon at the corner of

COURT AND STATE STREETS,

at 3 P. M.

A Chairman is elected at each meeting.

"AN INJURY TO ONE IS THE CONCERN OF ALL."

OF · BROOKLYN

Brooklyn, N. Y. June 21 1897

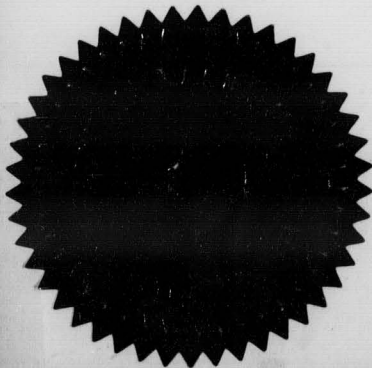

Mayor W. L. Strong,

Dear Sir: I have been directed by the Central Labor Union of Brooklyn to thank you for your action in the matter of paying the musicians who took part in the Grant Parade on April 27 last by your personal check.

Such acts as this on the part of public officials win the approval of organized workmen.

Yours respectfully,

John L. Moore, Gen. Secy.

Hon. William L. Strong,
Mayor, New York City.

Dear Sir:-

I had the honor of serving as Aide on General Dodge's staff on the occasion of the completion of the Grant Monument, and at that time tried to procure one of the official programs of the event, but as I was compelled to return almost immediately to my duties in Washington I was unable to find out from whom one could be procured. Recently I have learned that more than likely you would be able to obtain a copy for me, and if so I would be greatly indebted to you if you would have one sent me.

In this connection I may add that for several years I have prepared the New York City and State articles for Appleton's Annual Cyclopaedia, and so, in a way, take more than common interest in a city which has for more than thirty years been my home.

Hoping that you will be able to oblige me, I am,

Very respectfully yours,

Marion Benjamin.

Hon. William L. Strong,
Mayor,
City of New York.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your favor of Sept. 2d, so many people identified with the Grant Monument Association have been away for the past two months that it was decided to set aside the active compilation of the "GRANT MONUMENT MEMORIAL" until about the middle of September. It will then begin very actively and be pushed to completion. The book will have more than four hundred (400) large quarto pages, beautifully printed on the finest of paper, with several hundred illustrations, and we hope to make it absolutely satisfactory in every particular to all who were interested in the Monument.

The work is under the personal supervision of Col. A. B. de Frece, Editor-in-Chief, who is devoting himself most enthusiastically towards making it another of his many successes.

Very respectfully yours,

DICTATED.

My dear Sir,

In case you have not filled the extra Committee for the Grant Monument Dedication, I would be pleased to be one of the Committee. I took much interest in the raising of funds, and did my share in subscribing to same.

Yours truly

If it is in your power to speak to
Gen. Dodge and say to him that
Clarendon Hall can accomodate 3 to 400 visiting soldiers for next week I shall be thankful
very little will keep the sorrow ship along. They can have
