I, Isidore Jackson, do hereby declare that I am fully convinced that Elmer Jergansky, recently in my employ, had no intention of misappropriating the $217 he received from me, as he was always, while in my employ, honest, attentive, industrious and willing, and had in his possession a railway ticket for his return from Philadelphia to New York at the time of his arrest, and had the money in his possession, which is to be returned to me.

I am convinced that his journey to Philadelphia was not made with any intent of stealing the money I had given him, for I entrusted him with much larger sums of money every day, while he was in my employ, sums amounting to as much as $70.00, and he was never found derelict in his duties before.

I am fully convinced that the boy is perfectly honest at heart and not given to crime, and I believe the ends of justice would be best promoted by permitting the withdrawal of my charge against him, which I desire and beg to be allowed to do, as I believe I made a mistake in making the complaint against the boy.

The parents of the boy are persons of good standing and respectability, the boy can be educated by them to be a good and useful citizen, without the blemish or shadow which might attach to his character for life, were he now made to suffer for his youthful error, committed without any actual knowledge of the nature of the act, and, as the facts show, without any actual dishonest intent.

Chidori Jackson

We the undersigned are personally acquainted with the boy, Cassie Fergausky, and know him to be honest & thoughtful.

Dear Sir:-

I find on my return from the west this am, a subpoena from you in the Chas Simons case in which I am an interested party. Your call for my presence as a witness is Octr 9th. It will be impossible for me to be there at that time, but think I could arrange to be there by the 13th, Monday.

In view of the fact that my affidavit is in the hands of the Police Justice (or some other official) in which I fully describe the circumstances of the theft, also the evidence of the officer who so promptly made the arrest, and as there is no question as to the proper person being custody, is there any necessity for my taking this long and expensive trip simply to have the prisoner held for trial? Of course at time of trial I will make it my business to be there and assist you in prosecuting the young man.

If you can possibly arrange this as I suggest I will be very much obliged, as I have an important engagement at Louisville Ky on the 14th that I ought to keep.

Try and get along without me until trial time and oblige.

Yours truly

Dear Judge Weston

The mother of James Smith whom you intend to sentence Monday next, begs sorrowingly of me to write you in the interest of her unfortunate son.

She is poor in body & spirit, broken hearted at the awful disgrace into which her son is thrown, though he is not guilty, she claims him the victim of circumstances & prays you to be lenient in this instance of her great sorrow, which I am sure she will appreciate.

Respectfully Yours.
