 and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by Daniel Ryan Peter Karmach Joseph Doyle & Michael Leody (all now here) for the reasons following, to wit: that deponent securely locked and fastened the doors and windows of the above described premises at about the hour of nine o'clock and thirty minutes P.M. on the aforesaid date, and at about the hour of twelve o'clock midnight deponent entered the front door of said store and found the aforesaid premises had been burglarized and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

James Rugg

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

James Rugg of a Misdemeanor,

~~of the Crime of~~ committed as follows:

The said James Rugg, late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ninth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, was the father of one Maggie Rugg, a minor of the age of fifteen years, and then had the said minor in his care and keeping, and as the father of the said minor, there was imposed upon him by law a duty then and there to furnish sufficient and proper food, clothing, shelter and medical attendance to the said minor.

Nevertheless, the said James Rugg, well knowing the premises, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully and willfully and without lawful excuse, omit to perform the said duty so as aforesaid by law imposed upon him, and did then and there unlawfully and wilfully and without lawful excuse, omit to furnish to the said minor sufficient and proper food, clothing, shelter and medical attendance, to the great damage of the said minor, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their
