Police Court— District.

City and County } ss.:
of New York, }

of No. 3 Saint Marks Place Street, aged 23 years, occupation Housekeeper being duly sworn deposes and says, that the premises No. aforesaid Street, 17 Ward in the City and County aforesaid the said being a five story brick building and which was occupied by deponent as a dwelling and in which there was at the time a human being, by name

were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly opening a door
by means of false keys leading from the hall
into the front room and entering therein
with intent to commit a felony

on the 23 day of September 1891 in the day time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

One Trunk containing a quantity of ladies clothing together with the value of thirty dollars also an opera
glass, two Bangles and a quantity of Linen of the value of twenty five dollars and all together of the value of fifty five dollars ($55.00)

the property of deponent

and deponent further says, that she has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

James Gaffney (nowhere)

for the reasons following, to wit:

That at about 11 Am.
O'clock on said date deponent securely locked and fastened all the doors and windows leading into said apartments in which said property was located and when deponent returned to said apartments she missed said property. Deponent is informed by Thomas Glenn of No 25 Seventh Street that at about 11 am a clock on said date the defendant (number)

came to him at Stuyvesant Square and employed him to take a trunk
he then had in his (defendant's) possession to No 406 East 18th Street
Defendant is informed by Officer
Frank Stagan of the 14th Precinct that he found said trunk at No 406 East 18th Street which said trunk defendant has since seen and identifies as her property. Wherefore defendant prays that defendant be held to answer and be dealt with as the law directs.

Police Court, 4 District.

City and County } ss.
of New York, }

Charles T. Ferguson
of No. 1190 2nd Avenue Street, aged 36 years,
occupation Harness Manufacturing being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 16th day of July 1891, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Elizabeth Geiger (now here) did, while having the care and custody for nurture of a child under the age of six years, desert

said child in a public place with intent wholly to abandon it in violation of section 287 Penal Code of the State of New York.

Deponent further says that at about the hour of eleven o'clock in the night time deponent saw the defendant walking through Lexington Avenue
at 63rd Street and followed her through divers streets and Avenues.
That the defendant was carrying a bundle in a manner as to conceal it and deponent heard a noise which deponent believed to be ^{that of} a child. When the defendant reached a point on Fourth Avenue
on the west side of the street between 65th and 66th Streets deponent saw the defendant enter the vestibule of a house and saw her come out and deponent then entered the vestibule which was actually and apparently about two weeks old and found a male child lying there. Deponent followed the defendant
but she escaped.

Wherefore deponent charges the defendant with violation of the statute aforesaid.

THE PEOPLE

vs.

JOHN GIVENS.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, PART I.

BEFORE JUDGE MARTINE.

Thursday, October 29, 1891.

Indictment for assault in the second degree.

DAVID O'CONNELL, sworn and examined, testified:

I am a police officer of the Fourth District Court and have been over thirty-three years doing police duty; on the 13th of October I had a warrant for the arrest of John Givens the defendant; I went to his house, I had to arrest him once before on a warrant, I knew him and he said he knew me, his house was 342 East 55th Street, it was about eight o'clock in the morning when I entered his place, I went in citizen's clothes, we always serve warrants in citizen's clothes..

I met his wife first in the place and I inquired for Givens, she took me to the cellar on the basement floor and he was in the cellar; I bid him the time of the morning and I says to him, "I have come again John." He says, "I know you well"; his wife was present; I says, "I have a warrant for you again for your arrest for being an habitual drunkard obtained by your wife. He says, "no officer will take me out of here."

I took the warrant out of my pocket and I says, "this is the warrant John, and you have got to come with me to court", and he says, "you can't take me." I told a young man that was sitting on the chair there to go out and get another officer on the street and the young man did so. I took hold of the defendant then with my hand and said, "you are a prisoner, you can't go"; he grabbed hold of my finger with his teeth and he bit me on the thumb; I got hold of him by the collar of the coat when he got hold of me with his teeth, I took the nippers out of my pocket and got the nippers round this part of his arm, we scuffled around and he got alongside of the table and he stooped and got me by the leg on the end of the table there and was drawn over and struck on the back of my head and I was knocked senseless and he was on top of me and kept pounding away with his fist and I had hold of the nippers all the time. He struck me in the eye and gave me a black eye and kept pounding me on the face with his left hand, I could not say how many times he pounded me, I was in that condition until the officer came in, I was senseless for about a minute or two. The wife tried to take me off and she could not pull him off me at the time Officer Kirby came in.

The wife was there and she saw the whole thing. I was on the floor and the defendant on top of me when Officer Kirby came in, I had hold of the defendant still and the nippers around his arm, I had no club to hit him with, Kirby took hold of him and we both took him out together, I was bleeding from the head at the time, I was struck on the back of the head; Officer Kirby and myself took him to Court, I turned the warrant in against him and his wife was there, I made a complaint against him, I returned my other warrant and they took my complaint in preference.

CROSS EXAMINED.

I remember testifying in the Police Court with reference to this matter.

When I went to arrest the defendant and when he resisted and said he would not go I held the warrant in my hand and said, "Givens, this is the warrant. Did you or did you not at the examination before the Police Magistrate state that you did not show him the warrant at the time you went in there? I said I had the warrant in my hand and I said I did show the warrant. I did not at any time say to any person at any place that I did not show the warrant. When I arrested him I found him in the cellar, it was not very dark when I went in there, it was light enough that I could see he was the man, the wife took me in I did not grab him when I went in. My coat was buttoned when I went in, it was raining; I unbuttoned it when I took the warrant book out of my pocket. I arrested the defendant on the 21st of October, 1889 on a warrant; I knew him and he admitted that he knew me in the presence of his wife. I said to him, "John, I have come for you again on this warrant, your wife makes a complaint against you for being an habitual drunkard and I will have to take you to the Court." He said. "no, officer will take me out of here"; his wife was present.

CORNELIUS KIRBY, sworn and examined.

I am a police officer of the 23rd precinct, I recollect the morning of the 13th of October, I saw the defendant in his house. from information I received from a citizen that there was an officer in the house I went there; it was about ten minutes to eight; when I got there the defendant was on top of Officer O'Connell in the basement of the house 342 East 55th Street; his wife was there; when I got there the officer was lying on the floor and Givens on top of him striking at him and I pulled him off; they were both lengthways, the defendant was striking the officer on the face with his hands; we got him out of there and took him to Court; his wife was over in the corner of the room, her life scared out. I heard her say, "hurry up or he will kill the officer." She addressed those remarks to me. I did not hear Givens or the officer say anything; I was in the room about five minutes. O'Connell was cut in the back of the head and he was bleeding on the thumb. The wife did not say anything. On the way to Court the defendant made threats; he said he would kill some policeman before he got through with us. Neither I or O'Connell made any reply to that.

POOR QUALITY

CROSS EXAMINED.

I could not say whether the defendant was holding the officer down or not with one hand while he was striking him with the other, he was on top of him. I have been on the police force fifteen years and I have seen men engaged in fighting; the defendant was striking the officer with his right hand when I went in, O'Connell was not doing anything. he was not able to. When you make use of the remark that the prisoner said he would kill some one, did not he say, "some one will have to suffer for this, for the assault that was made upon me?" To the best of my knowledge he did not, I will swear I did not hear it but I will swear that he did make the remark which I have testified to. While we were going towards the Court House the defendant drew the attention of some citizens asking them to notice, calling on them to see how we were assaulting him; he said, "see here, look at what these men is doing to me." The defendant was sober, I did not club him, I punched him in the ear when I knocked him off the officer when he was on top of him, I am sure that I did not strike him at any time. While you were on the way to the Station House you did not give him a little friendly tickle with your stick under the arm at any time? No sir.

MARY E. GIVENS, sworn and examined.

I am the wife of the defendant and it will be twenty-two years in December since I have been married to him, I have four children, three are living at home with me and one is married; I recollect the morning of the 13th of October, I was at home at 342 East 55th Street, my husband was there in the basement in the kitchen, there are two front windows there opening on the street. I recollect Officer O'Connell coming there that morning and my husband was there at the time; there was a young man in the kitchen at the same time and he went out for an officer after my husband said that he would not go. Officer O'Connell came in and spoke to me and I answered him, he went out in the hall but he did not enter the kitchen, he only came to the door, I remained in the kitchen, I did not go out in the hall until after my husband had the officer down, it was between five and ten minutes, I went out to meet another officer and call him to help, I started to tell the officer to hurry up, Officer Kirby was coming down the steps into the kitchen, my husband was then in the kitchen, I said, "hurry up, my husband is killing the officer;" I went back in the kitchen then, Mr. Kirby came in and took my husband off the officer, I stood there and saw that, Officer O'Connell laid on the floor and my husband was on top of him. I saw my husband strike the officer with his hand, I won't say whether it was his open hand or fist; at that time the officer was lying on his back on the floor and my husband seemed to be right on top of him. It is quite light in my kitchen, there are two windows that open on the street. I saw that Officer O'Connell was struck in the face and was bloody, I wont say that his face was bloody but I saw there was blood on his shirt, I saw that he was hurt in the eye but I did not see any blood on it: The officers took my husband away out of the room. I do not remember hearing anything said because I was so excited.

When Officer O'Connell first came in I heard him bid my husband good morning; he says, "I want you to go to Court with me this morning", and my husband said "no, I will not, I wont be taken out of my own house". The officer says, "I have a warrant for you and you must go". That is as near as I heard my husband said he would not go, he would not be taken out of his own house. When my husband was talking to the officer I heard the officer tell him not to talk to him, he must settle that with the Judge at the Court. They had a struggle and a scuffle before that, they broke the lower pane of the big window before they got to the floor. My husband was resisting the officer. I could not tell exactly what he was doing, the two of them got in a struggle. There was a lamp sitting in the window and they broke that and they broke the window and afterwards I saw the officer on the floor, he fell over the table but how he threw the Officer I do not know but I saw them on the floor. When you saw the struggle between them you went out to look for this other officer? Yes sir.

I went after the officers who took my husband to the 57th Street Court; I did not hear any conversation then. Francis Kiel who was in the house when the officer came in also went to the Court, he was there during all this struggle, Officer O'Connell sent him for Officer Kirby. O'Connell said to Kiel, "go and get me help from First Avenue". Kiel did not go right away, he tried to coax my husband to go quietly; he said, "go quiet, it will be better for you." I don't know what my husband said, Kiel then went out.

ORIGINAL

0365

CROSS EXAMINED.

I was in the kitchen at the time that Kiel talked to my husband. When the officer came in first my husband was in the hallway and I was in the kitchen, I have five rooms altogether and this hallway runs the whole length of the house, my husband was in the rear part when the officer came in. The officer asked me where my husband was, I went out to look for him and I saw him in the hall; the struggle did not take place between my husband and the officer right away. I remained in the kitchen until the fight commenced; there was a light in the kitchen when the officer came in, the lamp was sitting on the table at the time. I am a native of New Jersey and so is my husband, I only knew my husband one year before I was married. I did not know at the time I was married that he had some property. Did your husband at any time after your marriage own any real estate? I do not know how to answer that question. I own real estate now in Sussex County, N.J. At the time of your marriage were not you a poor girl financially, you had no means? I don't know how to answer such a question. Had you means yourself when you were married? No sir. This property I have got in New Jersey is in my name. Did you not get that property from your husband? I did. Did your husband get that property from his father? No sir. Do you own that property in your own name now? Yes sir. And have for how many years? Eighteen years. Has there not been between you and your husband at different times ill feeling in consequence of that property being held in your name? Yes sir, because ---- You have had your husband

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

0366 arrested before? Yes, I had him arrested when we lived in the country, I think three times in the country and six or seven times here, I have four children, Mr. Kiel is keeping company with my daughter, I have not another daughter married. I remained in the room all the time of this fight was going on between my husband and the officer. You say, if I understood you correctly, that your husband was sitting on the officer when the other officer came in? Yes. I think so, he was not lying down, I think he was sitting or kneeling on him, he was striking the officer with the right hand, I cannot tell you what he was doing with the other hand. What did you have your husband arrested for six or seven times? For habitual drunkenness, disorderly conduct and abusing us. What did he do in the way of abusing you? He has turned us out of doors many a night, we have had to go to the neighbors and tenants in the house, I am the house-keeper in that house and have been four years, I was tenant in it before I took the position of house-keeper. He called us vile names and chased us through the house and struck me, I could not tell you how many times it is so many. What did you have him arrested for in the country? For striking and abusing me just the same. For how many years has this been going on? He has been drinking since I was married to him. The first time I had him arrested in the country I think it was between one and two years after I was married. When I married him he had a grocery store and the post-office in New Jersey. When did you move over to New York? It was five years the 15th of this month. When he first came to New York he worked at insurance and lately he has been working for the

POOR QUALITY

0367

Metropolitan Installment Company, peddling rugs and table-cloths. You said you owned property in New Jersey? Yes.

Where did you get that property from? It was signed over to me by my husband when he bought it, it will be nineteen years this next March, I hold the title deeds since. The reason he signed it over to me was because there was debts against him and he signed to me to save the property, I have paid the interest and kept it ever since. I don't know how long my husband was in business before I married him, I do not think he was exactly sober the morning of this occurrence. Do you think a drunken man could jump on top of the officer? You let him go to you and see what he will do to you. When he is really drunk? Yes or really sober either. Then you want this jury to understand that this man was so drunk that he could not hardly stand? No, I do not. You want the Jury to understand he is a habitual drunkard? He is an habitual drunkard. He was drunk all the time? When he gets money.

And he was drunk that morning that he held this healthy officer down? I do not say so, I say he was more sober that morning than he had been in the month before since he came home from the Island, the 15th of last month. When did you make the complaint upon which this warrant was issued? The 12th of this month; he came home the 15th of last month and up to the 12th day of this month we had no peace, we were afraid of our lives, myself and children had to leave the house different nights or go to some of the neighbors or stay in empty rooms for we were afraid of him. Do you know anything else against him, tell it out? Plenty, that is all I care to tell.

The Case for the Defence.

JANE WOODRUFF sworn and examined.

I live at 406 West 44th Street and am married, I keep house and live with my family; the prisoner is my brother.

I have lived nearly fifteen years in this city, I came from New Jersey, Newton, N.J. is my birthplace; my brother and I were born and brought up at the old homestead, Sussex County, N.J., my father was brought up under the same roof. You are aware of the fact that your brother has been arrested at the instigation of his wife for drinking? Yes sir. Outside of his family affairs what has been his general character for peace and quietness, good or bad as far as you know? It has been good because he has never been arrested outside of the family. You know him to be always a peaceable man? Yes, he has always tried to do for the best even when he has been brought from his humiliation he takes hold and goes to work again with the heart of a man.

JOHN GIVENS, sworn and examined, testified:

I am a married man and have been married twenty-two years, I have had four children and one is married and another possibly so. The lady witness on the stand before your sister was your wife? Yes, I was married to her in New Jersey, She has stated that you deeded over some property to her? Yes sir. Did you deed that property over for the purpose of preventing anyone collecting any debts? No sir.

You have had more or less trouble with your wife, haven't you? Yes, I was arrested on Tuesday morning the 13th, I got down from prison on the 15th of the month before that, I was sent to prison at the instigation of my wife; when I got out I went to work again, I had been working up to the time I was sent away for the Metropolitan Manufacturing Company, selling house furnishing goods. 32 Cortland Street, I was working up to Saturday night. This last time I served six months on the Island and the time before three months. I was sent there each time at the instance of my wife and that was for drinking. Did you ever beat your wife? No sir. You never raised your hand to her at any time? No sir. I remember when Officer O'Connell came into my house, I saw him in the hallway, it was pretty dark that morning, cloudy and rainy, I did not know it was Officer O'Connell when he came in, he did not show me anything purporting to be a warrant. The officer said at the Police Court that he did not show me a warrant, I heard him say that to the Judge. He did not show me a shield. When the officer met me half way in the hall he said, "good morning, is this MR. Givens?" I say, "yes", and I walked on the kitchen side; there is one door at one end and one at the other, it is quite a large room, twenty or twenty-five feet long, he followed me in, I was going to black my shoes, I was sober that morning, I was going to work. My wife came in from the room across the hall and the officer said, "is that the man", and she says, yes. He said, "I thought it was the son of a bitch, I want you to go with me"; he grabbed hold of me and tore the button out of my vest by the roots. At the time he got hold of you did you know he was a police officer? I did not. At the time that he grabbed you and called that name did you know he had a warrant? No. It was very quiet, no stir or nothing, I knew nothing about any warrant or anything of the kind, I had no idea of it; he hustled me around, he took my cravat off and tore my collar open and tore my coat. I says, hold on or something like that, and he shoved me back against the table and grabbed me in the throat. Of course I made a little resistance and then I grabbed him by the coat and it resulted in a kind of rough and tumble; there was no fight about it, what I did I did in self-defence. In the scuffle he turned my back against the table and shoved me back with his hand to my neck and throat. I shoved it ^{away} and ~~whether~~ I grabbed him and we had a little tussle and then we both went down under the table. All this time I had not the least idea that he was a police officer, I did not know the man at all. If you had known he was a police officer and if you had known that he had a warrant for you would you have resisted him? No sir, I am not that kind of a man, I try to be a law abiding citizen in every respect. This property that you are speaking of is now in your wife's name in New Jersey? Yes. And this property you gave to her was the result of property that had been left you by your father? It was money I made myself before I married her. And at the time of your arrest you were earning money then, were you not? Yes, I turned in all I made to her through the week, every time I got any money I gave it to her, I made her treasurer. You did not make any resistance to the other officer? No sir, I did not. When the other officer came in did he strike you? Yes sir. What did he strike you with? He struck me with a stick and punched me in the ear, I had the marks; he gave me one blow on the step after he arrested me; this was the officer in uniform, he punched me with his stick in the jaw, I could not bite any bread. The officer says you bit him? No sir, I was trying to get off when this officer came and he was hanging on to me, I did not want to harm the man, he held me by the coat. I did not knock him senseless, I think I struck him once, that is all I struck him, I did not want to have any altercation with him at all, I merely did what I did in a moment in self-defence. At no time did you know he had a warrant for you? No sir. Did the officer take you any place else on the way to court? I got two or three punches going along as I was going outside.

CROSS EXAMINED.

I have been on the Island five times, I think the first time was about four years ago, I think the first charge she made against me was for disorderly conduct and intoxication, I was sentenced for six months and I got out I think in about half the time; the second time was on the same charge that I was arrested.

I have never struck my wife since I have been in New York, one time I may have touched her in the country but I made up my mind I never would do it again and told her so many times, that I did not believe in it, that was before I came to New York. I went to court and was bound over to keep the peace,

I think it was twice if I remember right -- to keep the peace against my wife. You had struck your wife and you were bound over to keep the peace that you would not strike her again? Yes. I think I was arrested in New York five times; the first time I was sentenced for six months and the second time I think it was six months again. How short a space of time intervened after you got out? I do not remember, I guess perhaps four or six months, I kept no record of it, I think the third time was three months. What had you done that time? It was the same old fad, the same old thing, she would go out and call an officer and I would go along with him and make no resistance. I have not known Officer O'Connell by sight, I do not know that I had ever seen him before but I may have seen him many times. Don't you recollect that he was the one that took you the last time before this? No, I do not recollect that, I was always arrested from my own house. You heard the officer say upon the witness-stand today that when he first met you after bidding you good morning he said he had a warrant for you, is that so? No sir, he did not say so; we walked back in the kitchen and my wife came in from the other room as I stated before, and he says, "Is this that man?" She says Yes. He said, "I thought it was the son of a bitch," and he grabbed me and tore the buttons all loose, he said, "I want you", he did not say he had a warrant for my arrest on a charge of habitual drunkenness, he did not expose his shield and did not say he was an officer. I said I did not want to go without some authority. Did you hear the officer say that you said to him that morning that no officer would take you, you heard him say that on the stand? Yes. Was that so? No sir, I never said those words and never thought anything about it. Did you see where the officer showed the Jury his ankle and his thumb where he was bitten? I heard him say that he was bit but it is not so, I did not bite him. Did you hear the officer and the complainant and also Officer Kirby say that you had O'Connell down on the floor and that you were hitting him with your fist? Yes, I heard him say so. Was that so? No sir, he came in and I was trying to get off him, I was not hitting him at the time Kirby came in. I remember O'Connell falling on the table and we whirled around and he went down on the floor, I hit him with my fist before he went down, that is the first time I have made any resistance, when I grabbed hold of his coat, when he was hauling me around, I hit him because he was using me so rough. You had him on the table on his back? He backed me first to the table, we scrambled around, we made a kind of a step to move one foot on the corner of the table and both went down; he was grabbing me in the throat and choking me and then I hit him with my fist, I do not remember touching him after we went down, I possibly might have. I was a little excited then, I did not want to hit him or have any trouble. I heard Officer Kirby tell that when he arrived there he found me on top of O'Connell and that I was hitting him but that was not so, I was standing over trying to get off him to raise up and he was holding to my coat and my clothing, holding me down in a kind of stooping position. Officer Kirby struck me in the ear, I got up and that loosened me from him and he gave me a jerk and said, "come with me, you son of a bitch"; O'Connell got up and they put what they call 'nippers' on me and of course I went along, I made no resistance. I first learned at the Court that O'Connell was an officer. I think my wife came in from the hall when the officers were in my house and I think she ran out. She said I was the man when he asked her, I had no idea then of being arrested. I did not hear the officer say, "I arrested him before". I have said before that I handed my money that I earned to my wife, she got me a cheap suit of clothes, I had earned thirteen or fourteen dollars, I could give her money every week, perhaps four or five dollars; it was in the winter time and I could not make much. I worked whenever I had the chance to. You were on the Island most of the time? Yes sir, most of the time I worked for the Charities and Corrections.. Kiel went out after a police officer when my wife halloood, "run for the police"; I do not recollect what O'Connell said at that time, I heard O'Connell testify that he told the young man to go out to First Avenue and get help. I heard D'Connell say that he said to me, "I am after you again, John". I did not say anything of that kind.

I also heard him say upon the stand that he told me, "I have got a warrant for you for habitual drunkenness on complaint of your wife." I say he did not say any such thing to me.

I heard the officer say that I said to him, "no one will take me out of here." I deny that in toto. I heard Officer Kirby testify here that I said on the way to the Station House that I would kill some policeman before I got through.

I make a perfect denial of that. I heard my wife's testimony here in Court, I heard hersay that the officer said to me, good morning, is this Givens", when he met me in the hall. I heard her say that the officer said, "I want you to go to Court." He did not say he wanted me to go to Court, I did not understand anything of that kind, I did not hear him say any such thing. If your wife says to-day here in Court that O'Connell said to you at that time, "I have a warrant for you", after having said good morning to you, what do you say about it, is that so or not? I say that he did not, I say I did not understand that he had any warrant or any process for me whatever. Did you hear your wife also say at that time you said, "I wont go? Yes, I did. Did you say so? I said I would not go without authority. Mr.O'Connell said, "I want you to go with me", and grabbed hold of me and tore my coat. Young Kiel came in and said, "why don't you go?" or something like that. I said I did not want to go without some authority.

DAVID O'CONNELL, recalled.

When I went to arrest the defendant I had my shield with me and took it out of my pocket and showed it to him. He said, "I don't want to see that. I know you well enough."

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree.

The Defendant was sentenced to the State Prison for five years.

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

The said

Nellie Gray

late of the Fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the seventh day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in said house divers ill-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well as in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said

Nellie Gray

on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offenses on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Exhibit "A"

John Polhemus, Printer and Mf'g Stationer, 102 Nassau St., N. Y.

Know all Men by these Presents,

THAT I, Eva Brodinsky, of the City of New York, party of the first part, for securing the payment of the indebtedness hereinafter mentioned, and in consideration of the sum of one dollar to me duly paid by name

18. Richmond, of the City of New York, —

of the second part, at or before the ensembling and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have bargained and sold, and by these presents do grant, bargain and sell unto the said party of the second part, one parlor set of furniture, plush and

and all other goods and chattels mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now in the premises 205 E. 69th Street, in said City of New York,

19. To have and to hold, all and singular the goods and chattels above bargained and sold, or intended so to be, unto the said party of the second part, her executors, administrators and assigns forever. And I

the said party of the first part, for myself, my — heirs, executors and administrators, all and singular of the said goods and chattels above bargained and sold unto the said party of the second part, her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, against me, the said part of the first part, and against all and every person or persons whomsoever, shall and will warrant and forever defend. Upon condition, that if I,

20. the said party of the first part, shall and do well and truly pay unto the said party of the second part, her executors, administrators or assigns, the true and just sum of one hundred and seven and $\frac{94}{100}$ dollars (\$107.94) lawful money of the United States, with lawful interest, on demand, —

then these presents shall be void. And I

21. the said party of the first part, for myself, my — executors, administrators and assigns, do covenant and agree, to and with the said party of the second part, her executors, administrators and assigns, that in case default shall be made in the payment of the said sum above mentioned, then it shall and may be lawful for, and I, — the said party of the first part, do hereby authorize and empower

22. the said party of the second part, her executors, administrators or assigns, with the aid and assistance of any person or persons, to enter said dwelling house, store and other premises, and such other place or places as the said goods or chattels are or may be placed, and take and carry away the said goods or chattels, and to sell and dispose of the same for the best price they can obtain, and out of the money arising therefrom, to retain and pay the said sum above mentioned, and all charges touching the same, rendering the overplus (if any) unto me or to my — executors, administrators or assigns.

The people,

Eva Grodjinsky,

City and County of New York, ss:--

Abraham H. Sarason, being duly sworn says;

I am counsel for the defendant and have been such for the past year. The defendant has been indicted by the Grand Jury, for a misdemeanor in secreting and removing personal property subject to a chattel mortgage, and on information and belief, I allege that said indictment was found on illegal and incompetent evidence, or on no evidence whatever. That the facts of this case are as follows; that on Friday the 21st day of August, 1901, defendant was arrested on West sixteenth street, in this City, without any warrant, and on Saturday morning following, arraigned at the Second District Police Court on said charge of removing personal property, subject to a mortgage. That she was then remanded to the station house until the following Monday, when she was paroled in custody of counsel, so that defendant was imprisoned without warrant, and without bail from Friday afternoon, until Monday noon, on said charge of misdemeanor. That at the examination that followed defendant was held on her own recognizance for the Grand Jury; That the facts which appeared on said examination are as follows; that in the early part of the year 1890 defendant dealt with the complainant, Mamie Richmond, and bought from her certain underwear, and became indebted to the complainant in about the sum of Eighty Dollars. That in July of that year defendant received a summons from the District Court in the City of New York for the Fifth Judicial District for about the said sum of Eighty Dollars. That defendant did not appear on the return day, at said District Court, and judgment was ~~rendered~~ entered by default against the defendant for said sum. That in defendant's absence the complainant made the action for conversion, and obtained judgment against the person of the defendant. That subsequently in about October 1890, defendant was arrested at her home by one Henry Meyers, a City Marshal, on an execution against the person of the defendant issued on said judgment. That while under said arrest, after failing to procure bail said Marshal accompanied defendant to the office of the attorney for complainant, and defendant there executed a mortgage on her furniture set forth in the indictment. That about a week thereafter defendant being wholly unable to comply with the terms of said mortgage, called upon deponent and sought advice, with a view to obtaining relief. That deponent then informed defendant that her said arrest was wholly illegal, and without warrant of law, for the reason that a District Court in New York City, has no power to issue execution against the person of a female, and that her mortgage executed while under the ~~duress~~ ^{duress} of said illegal imprisonment was voidable, and advised defendant to begin an action of

ORIGINAL

POOR QUALITY

0420 equity to set the said mortgage aside for ~~due arrest~~ ^{duress}. That

That an action was begun for that purpose in the Supreme Court of this County and ~~an order made~~ ^{an order made} granting a preliminary injunction restraining the foreclosure of said mortgage pending suit. That said preliminary injunction remained in force by consent, from October until June 1891, when by consent of deponent said injunction was vacated. That at the said examination it was developed that nothing was done by complainant until the said 21st day of August, when he caused defendant's arrest. It further appeared that said examination that every item of furniture enumerated in said mortgage was then at the residence of defendant, at 107 E. 88th Street, and defendant gave as her property on her said recognizance
said identical furniture mentioned in the mortgage set forth in the indictment. That said evidence must have appeared before the Grand Jury, or otherwise no evidence could have been produced before said Grand Jury, showing that defendant had secreted or removed said property.

Wherefore, I pray for an order of this Court, that I be allowed to respect and copy the minutes of the Grand Jury in this case, for the purpose of moving to quash this indictment.

Sworn to before me this 19th day of ~~September~~ ^{October}, 1891.

The matters stated in within affidavit are matters of defence or in mitigation a general statement such as is here made that "on information and belief... that said indictment was found on illegal and incompetent evidence or on no evidence whatever" is wholly insufficient to warrant the granting of the relief here asked.

No ground whatever has been shown for granting the motion for an inspection of the minutes of the Grand Jury - no irregularity in the proceedings before the Grand Jury has been suggested - there is no proof whatever that the indictment is based upon illegal or incompetent evidence. I am unable to find any reason that would justify me, in the exercise of a wise discretion in making the order asked for. Motion denied - R.B.M.
