every word with the utmost care and give the matter careful consideration. I mean business and shall speak plain and to the point. I want $50.⁰⁰ cash. Necessity and desperation drives me to this method of obtaining it. I am an intelligent up to the present moment Honest man. sickness, trouble, want has driven me to this. Day by day have I begged for work anything would I have preferred to this mean low dispicable method, but ragged, homeless, want depicted on every feature who will take me in this wretched condition into their employ.

Theivery Robbery is now alone left me unless you comply with my modest request. By complying with my request you can save me a life of perpetual dwelling and save your corporation many dollars, many lives much delay the good name of the road and your self much anxiety and worry. For unless my request is not complied with to the very letter Disaster such as never occurred on any Road shall soon take place on the Erie.

I know ever mile of the road from here to Buffalo I have planned everything carefully and my future shall be given to wrecking trains and plundering. Succeed I must, failure and detection is impossible. You are dealing with a man of education and rare intelligence.

Where resort to disguise now this is how I calculate. Give me $50.⁰⁰ cash with it I can purchase clothing, get a place to board and have enough left to advertise for work which I can get if I look decent as I am a good workman and make good wages before I lost all and can do so again. For Gods sake give me the means and I can earn a honest living, and in three months time will pay you all back with interest. I do not drink, and never did, business trouble and long illness and damned pride have brought me to this. Have you a family do you love them, then I implore you save me. save yourself. For if my request is not granted. I say you drive me to crime murder and plunder, for you can yet save me. Defy me and ruin first to your road-seconds to yourself for once drive me to crime and your life will not be worth a hapenny, you in reality will be the murderer of hundreds for you have it in your power to check all. Now to business this is how you may send the money in a sealed plain envelope all in greenbacks $50.00 in large bills, by district messenger boy, have X.Y.Z.

marked plainly on the sealed envelope, send the boy at 7 P.M. O'clock Tuesday Nov. 8. eighth to Vesey cor. of B'dway New York City, and have him remain there, until a boy dressed in boy another plain envelope or paper marked X.Y.Z.

when your boy without any questions, shall give my boy in citizens clothes the letter containing the money, this slip of paper you may hold as a receipt which I shall surely repay. Don't follow my boy either yourself or by proxy, it will be useless. The matter well planned get me you can not, and to arrest the boy,
detain or follow him, and the jig would be up,
you would only bring speedy vengeance on yourself and cause innocent persons to suffer for me. The villain and principal remember to employ

Chas. Sprick of County of vs.

Leon Lukacher.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth.

Monday, December 5, 1887.

Jointly indicted with Minnie Carlin for grand larceny
in the second degree.

William Dunn sworn and examined. I reside 481 Second Avenue, I had been with Minnie Carlin on the 23rd of October in the morning, I met her the night before, I was in a saloon with her this morning in Third Avenue near 15th Street, I went in there between nine and ten and woke up at four o'clock, I had been drinking, I went into a little private room back with her alone, I had a watch and chain valued at forty-five dollars and when I woke up it and she were gone, I know the Defendant when she accused him. I came down the following Wednesday evening and met Minnie, I asked her about the watch, she said, "I have got your watch, I was looking all over for you and wanted to give it back to you"; she says, "I will bring you around to a man who has got your watch, he said he would not give it to me until you would come around after it. So when I got there he said, "I aint got your watch, I don't know nothing about your watch. She said to the man, "did not you take that watch off me at the door?" He says, "no, I did not." I had a few words more with him and he said he did not see the woman that Sunday at all. I went down to where the man works, 20 Howard Street, I inquired there and there is a woman in that restaurant where she works, she said she saw Minnie come in with that watch and described the kind of watch and even the chain and locket, she said the Defendant was in there with her and he wanted to get the watch; she said no, that belongs to a friend of mine and I will not give it to you, I am going to give it to that man when he comes down; he went out a few minutes before she went out and shortly afterwards she told me he took it off her in Hester Street and it was worth forty-five dollars.

Cross Examined. I was perfectly sober when brought before the Police Magistrate; the watch was taken from me between twelve and two Sunday noon, I had been drinking right along, I had been with her Saturday night, I knew what I was doing, I never saw her before that time in my life, she had been drinking with me, I do not know whether she was intoxicated or not.

Minnie Carlin sworn. On the 23rd of October I met the complainant in a saloon corner of Broome and Elizabeth Streets and I went with him to a saloon uptown, we were drinking in a little room there, there was a bed and a table in it, he fell asleep and I fell asleep and I took his watch when I woke up and came right down town to 20 Howard Street, which is a lager beer saloon in a basement. ; the woman that was there and the man saw the watch and chain, the Defendant was the man, he was a waiter there, I had known him before; then he went out and I went out, I had no talk with him in the saloon at all, I had the watch and chain in my breast, I went over to Hester Street in a coffee saloon, the Defendant was in there, he came out and said, "what have you got there?" I said, "it is a watch belonging to a friend of mine; he said, "you will lose it" and he took it off me in the street, he snatched it away from me, I made no resistance I let him have it; he said, "I will keep that until the morning and when I asked him for it in the morning he said, "it is with a friend of mine", he told me the next morning that he pawned a watch for ten dollars and if I would give him ten dollars he would pay the interest and would give me the watch but he would not give me the ticket. I met Mr. Dunn and brought him around to the Defendant and told him he took the watch; he said he did not have it; before that I went around to him and asked him for it; he said, "when you had the watch you did not know how to take care of it, I have it now and I will take care of it. I was the mistress of the Defendant for two weeks.

Cross Examined. I am twenty years old, I am not a prostitute, I work for Mr. Levy.

By the Court Q. How long have you been a prostitute? About six months. I have never been a thief previous to this transaction, I was acquainted with the Defendant for two weeks previous to the 24th of October, it was about five o'clock in the evening when he took the watch from me, I was intoxicated but I knew what I was doing, I was able to walk, I told Judge Duffy that I was drinking, I was intoxicated but I was not stupid.

John S. Adrian sworn and examined for the Defence, testified: I am an officer of the 11th precinct and have been an officer about a year, I know the young woman who has just left the stand and know her to be a prostitute, I did not know her to be a thief, I never arrested her and do not know of her having been convicted of crime. I arrested the girl in this case and Officer Holland arrested the Defendant, I took the girl to Court and the Defendant was present in Court, I recollect seeing him sign his name, and he said in answer to a question by the Judge, "I know nothing about it. " I know nothing against the character of the defendant except this charge.

Leon Lukacher sworn. I am twenty-six years old, have been in this country ten years and am a Hebrew; It is not true as the woman said, that she gave me a watch on the evening of the 24th of October; she came in the saloon where I have been working and I was in company with her, I can fetch the boss and the lady that I had been there with; when I got arrested the same lady was in Essex Market, I don't know anything about the watch, I never saw it and never pawned it, I never saw this girl before and when she says that he was acquainted with me, that is a lie.

Cross Examined. I am a waiter by trade, I lived two years and a half at 268 East Houston Street, the last time I worked was in 20 Howard Street about three weeks before I was arrested, I worked for the same man many a time, my room was on the top floor, there was in it a bed and a little wash-stand. The girl Minnie had not been living at 20 Howard Street in this room with me for two weeks, I did not see her on the night of the 23rd of October, I don't know any reason why this woman should bring a charge against me of taking the watch, I am a pensioner of the government and draw sixteen dollars a month, I have been in the regular army, I was discharged for disability. (Witness produced his discharge.) Mr. Dunn did not say in the presence of the officer who arrested me that I said at first that I had not seen the girl that night and that I admitted afterwards that I did see her but did not take any watch. She did not live in the house 20 Howard Street at all.

John H. Holland sworn. On Sunday, November 6th, I was standing on the corner of Bowery and Canal Street and the complainant Dunn and the Defendant came down the Bowery; the complainant said, "Officer, arrest this man, he has got my watch and chain." I asked him if it was then he took it, he said no, it was a woman who took it from him and this defendant took it from the woman. The Defendant denied taking the watch from the woman and I took him to the Station House, the girl was not present when I arrested the Defendant; neither the watch nor the pawn ticket was found in the possession of the Defendant: there was a laundry ticket and a few other papers on his person that was left with him, Dunn and the Defendant appeared to be perfectly sober.

Minnie Carlin recalled. I lived at 20 Howard Street and occupied the same room with the Defendant on the top floor front, the name of the man who keeps the house is Mackintosh, he has a wife and keeps a restaurant. I was out of work and was drinking and the Defendant asked me to go and live with him, I first met him on the corner of Broome and Elizabeth Streets; the Defendant brought me my meals up to the room, I saw Mr. and Mrs. MacIntosh there, the woman saw me once with the Defendant but Mr. MacIntosh and the bar-tender saw me more, I worked at feathers in 543 East 6th Street.

Robert Macintosh sworn. I keep a restaurant at 191 Bleecker and know the defendant, he was not exactly a waiter but he cleaned up the place, he slept upstairs, I saw the girl Minnie on two or three different occasions, she came in and asked for him, she had no room in my house. I was told that she used to come in to see the Defendant at night and I gave the watchman orders not to let her in. I saw her in October with a watch and chain, she told me that she got the watch from a friend for safe keeping, she took the watch off him for safe keeping; she came down and asked for Leon, the Defendant, he was out, I told her she had better take care of the watch, take it back and give it to the man, that she might lose it, that she had better not have it around here, that the Defendant would take it from her, or words to that effect, I might have said something about that, but have no recollection of it. The Sunday the girl had the watch she was a little under the influence of liquor.

Joseph Daly sworn. I am a waiter in the restaurant of the last witness and was employed there on the 23rd of October, the defendant was employed there, I saw the girl Minnie in that house with him seven or eight times.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
Executive Chamber,
ALBANY.

May 20, 1890.

Sir:

Application for Executive clemency having been made on behalf of Leon Lukacher who was convicted of receiving stolen goods in the county of New York and sentenced Dec. 9, 1887, to imprisonment in the Sing Sing Prison for the term of four years, eight months. I am directed by the Governor respectfully to request that, in pursuance of Section 695 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, as amended in 1884, you will forward to him a concise statement of the facts and circumstances developed upon the trial, or upon the preliminary examination, or before the coroner's jury if no trial was had, together with your opinion of the merits of the application. Will you also inform the Governor of any other matters having a bearing upon this case which have come to your knowledge since conviction?

It is particularly requested that each letter of inquiry from the Executive Chamber should be separately answered.

I am,

very respectfully yours,

Hon. John R. Fellows,

Indictment filed November 14th, 1887.

There were other people around in the street when I arrested him. He didn't use this on me because I did not give him a chance to.

Petro Cassago, the defendant testified:-

I live at No. 468 Pearl Street. I had this slung-shot in my possession on this night in question. That morning I put on mybrothers pants and I didn't know this sluing shot was in them. I was walking along Baxter Street singing and or somebody came behind me and I felt him pushing me and I didn't know it was an officer, and then he struck me with his club . As we went along I felt in my pants pocket and took this out and I didn't know then what it was, and I pulled it out and said to a friend of mine. "Joe take this."

Cross-Examination.

I am not a public officer. I simply put on my brother's pantaloons on that day. I was drunk this day. I struck the officer but I didn't know who he was when I struck him . I thought it was somebody coming behind me to hit me. I was neverarrested before in my life.

Paulo Cassago, a witness for the Defendant testified:-

I am a brother of this defendant. It was my pants that he had on the day he was arrested. That slung shot was in my pants. I found it in a place where they were digging out a cellar.

Cross- Examination.

I didn't find anything else in this cellar. I did-not show it to anyone. I never showed it to my brother
