the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Cornelius Lanney, now here from the fact that, feeling a hand in the pocket of a sacking then worn by deponent, she turned and recognized said Cornelius Lanney and caught hold of him while his hand was in deponent's pocket. Said Cornelius Lanney broke away from deponent but was pursued and arrested by Officer Charles B. Fenney of the 16th Precinct Police. When said Cornelius Lanney ran away deponent raised from said pocket said pocketbook containing said property which she had placed

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

John H. Thompson

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York by this indictment accuse
John H. Thompson
of the crime of OBTAINING GOODS BY MEANS OF FALSE PRETENCES, committed as follows:

The said John H. Thompson late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fourth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one

Benjamin F. Mudgett

did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to the said Benjamin F. Mudgett

That he, the said John H. Thompson then kept a Bank account with the Brooklyn City National Bank, a Banking institution doing business in the City of Brooklyn in the State of New York and that he had money on deposit to his credit in said Bank to the amount of twenty dollars and more which was subject to his order, and payable to the proper person presenting a check drawn by him the said John H. Thompson, and that a certain instrument purporting to be a bank check drawn by him the said John H. Thompson, and which he then and there presented and delivered to the said Benjamin F. Mudgett and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say

New York October 4th 1880

The Brooklyn City Nat. Bank Pay to the order of Benj. F. Mudgett Twenty ⁰⁰/₁₀₀ Dollars

$20. ⁰⁰/₁₀₀

J. H. Thompson

was a good and valid bank check drawn by himself the said John H. Thompson against money deposited in said Bank, and that the same was of the value of twenty dollars.

0609

And the said Benjamin F. Mudgett then and their believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said John B. Thomson and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said John B. Thomson a sum of money to wit Twenty dollars in money law: ful money of the United States of the value of Twenty Dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Benjamin F. Mudgett and the said John B. Thomson did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said sum of money

of the said Benjamin F. Mudgett

of the said Benjamin F. Mudgett

by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said Benjamin F. Mudgett of the same. And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said John B. Thomson did not keep a bank account with the said Brooklyn City National Bank, and did not have any money whatsoever deposited in said Bank to his credit and Whereas in truth and in fact the said instrument in writing so presented and delivered as aforesaid by the said John B. Thomson to the said Benjamin F. Mudgett was not a good and valid Bank check and was not worth the sum of twenty dollars or any other sum, but was wholly worthless

06 10

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said John H. Thompson to the said Benjamin F. Thudgett was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said John H. Thompson well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Benjamin F. Thudgett to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid, do say, that the said John H. Thompson by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Benjamin F. Thudgett the sum of twenty dollars in money lawful money of the United States and of the value of twenty dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property, and effects of the said *Benjamin F. John H. Thomson, now here, did unlawfully, designedly and feloniously obtain from deponent the sum of Twenty dollars and some lawful money, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses and representations and by means of the annexed false check and with the intent to cheat and defraud.

That said deponent then stated to deponent that the said annexed check or order for money on the Bank of City National Bank was a good and genuine instrument, and he asked this deponent to cash the same.

That deponent believing said statement to be true and relying wholly on the same did give said deponent the sum of Twenty dollars in exchange for said check, which money was the property of deponent.

That deponent thereafter ascertained that said statement was false and untrue and that said check was worthless and of no value whatever and that said deponent never had an account at said Bank nor any money deposited to his credit therein.

The People
 vs. John H. Thompson Court of General Sessions Part 7.
 Before Judge Cowing June 21, 1882.
 Indictment for obtaining goods by false pretences.

Benjamin F. Mudgett sworn and examined testified as follows:

By Mr. Fellows Th. Mudgett, where do you reside? I reside in the city of New York, sir. What is your business? Lawyer. Your office? No 71 Broadway. Do you know the prisoner Thompson? I do. How long have you known him, Mr. Mudgett? Well, I have known him that I know of since 1880, though he tells me he had some business in my office some years before, but I do not remember him only since 1880. Look at the paper shown you purporting to be a check and state whether or not you received that from the prisoner? The prisoner was in my office in the afternoon the date of this check; he had been in and out pretending he had some business. He told me that he wanted me to cash a check for him on the Brooklyn City National Bank. I asked him if he had an account there? He said he had. He said he was building houses over in Brooklyn and had a large business. He wanted that money in New York that afternoon. I gave him a blank check of the Nassau Bank where I kept an account; he drew this check and signed it, and as I had not the money in my pocket I walked out with him to the bank and went into the bank and had that check cashed in the Nassau Bank and I gave him the money at the door. What did you do with that check Mr. Madgett? I left it in the Nassau Bank - they cashed it. You have your account at the Nassau Bank? I have my account at the Nassau Bank. Then it went through the bank and the clearing house in regular business order? Yes sir. One or two days afterwards I received a notice from the Nassau Bank to send my check for twenty dollars as this party had no - Did you believe the statement of the prisoner about his account and gave him the money on the faith of that statement exclusively? Yes sir.

Mr. Fellows: I offer the check in evidence. "New York, October 4, 1880 (Drawn as I have stated upon a check of the Nassau Bank and that scratched out and written above, "Brooklyn City National Bank") "Pay to the order of Benjamin F."

Mudgett. Twenty dollars. (signed) "J. M. Thomson", and endorsed upon the back B. F. Mudgett. } By the Court Q Did he say anything about having money in the bank? He did, he told me he had an account and had money in the bank.

M. Fellows. This is the check; written upon that check the words "no account" by one of the officers of the Brooklyn National Bank. Cross Examined. You say you have known this man since 1880? I knew him in 1880. I never saw him since the day he got this check. Since he got the check from me I never have seen him until I saw him in the Tombs the other day. Before you cashed that check had you seen him recently? Yes, he had been hanging about my office for a month or two. Had you any dealings with him before that? No sir, I loaned him five dollars before that, he came to my house. Had you only loaned him five dollars? That is all. Didn't you loan him five dollars at one time and a few days after did not you loan him three more? No. And then after that two more? No. And after that lend him five more? Never loaned him only cent only five dollars. Then he came to my house and I could not get him out until I gave him five dollars. This check that he gave you was to pay for money that he borrowed of you? No sir. Was not any part of it? No sir. he afterwards before I left him he handed me five dollars out of it for the five I loaned him. I let him have the whole twenty dollars that I got for it. You say he did not borrow twenty dollars? No sir, he only borrowed five dollars; he came to my house; he said he would not let me go until I gave it. He pretended to have a large amount of business that he wanted me to do for him in relation to building. Was that check dated on the day that you cashed it? Yes sir, I think so. Was it not dated three days ahead? No I think not. He drew a check for the amount to the bank, they cashed it, and a day or two afterwards it came back to me not good. Did not he tell you that through a friend in Brooklyn he dated it ahead and expected to meet it? No sir.

David L. Harris sworn. I am bank teller in the Brooklyn City National bank.

The check now shown me was presented to that bank; it reached there through the clearing house from the Nassau Bank of New York. I don't know the prisoner.

The prisoner pleaded guilty. He was sent to the State prison for two years.
