1897

New York, November 3, 1897.

Dear Sir:

The New York Press Club will celebrate its Twenty-fifth Anniversary on the 4th of December, 1897, by a banquet in the magnificent ballroom of the New Astoria Hotel, the first semi-public function in that place.

Everything that can be done to insure the fraternal and social success of the occasion will be attended to, and you are earnestly requested to communicate your desire as to tickets to C. J. Smith, Chairman of the Committee, 34 West 26th Street, at an early day. Requests for tickets must be accompanied by the cash to receive attention.

Each member will be entitled to two tickets, the price of which is $8 each. A number of boxes will afford accommodation for ladies, for whom members can obtain tickets at $2 each, entitling the ladies to seats and light refreshments.

In each case members will please send the name of their guest or guests, as under no circumstances will transferable tickets be issued.

We hope to make this celebration monumental in the history of the Club, which enters on its Twenty-sixth year out of debt, with its property improving, its professional membership greater than ever, and its brotherly care for the sick and unfortunate literally continuous.

SIR:—

The Committee having in charge the memorial of the Grant Monument dedication, to be presented by his Staff and Aides to Grand Marshal Grenville M. Dodge, have the honor to announce that the Portrait is now completed, and that Saturday evening, December 11th, 1897, 8 P. M. has been decided upon for the presentation.

The President and Governing Committee of the United Service Club, (Army and Navy) No. 16 W. 31st Street, have tendered the freedom of the Club for that occasion, and his Honor the Mayor of New York City, and other distinguished citizens connected with the Grant Monument dedication, have accepted invitations to be present.

It is earnestly hoped that all members of the Staff and Aides whose generous contributions have made possible this historical portrait, will be present on the evening of its presentation.

The Committee are confident that the work of the distinguished artist, Mr. Charles A. Whipple, will be considered worthy of the great event it commemorates.

Speeches and a collation may be expected.

Very respectfully,

To Mayor Mr. Strong

We're going to have a party,
And we want you to attend;
It will be a birthday party,
So be sure to come, or send.

There'll be music and doings
Upon the public stage;
Li Hung Chang will be there
To ask about your age.

If you come, of course you will,
We will do the best we can
To make it pleasant for you,
And refresh the inner man.

And like all other beggars,
We're not doing it for your health;
We would kindly solicit
A little of your wealth.

We're building the Lord a church,
To the glory of His Name;
And we ask you to help us
In the seating of the same.

Now count your age by years up,
And into this pretty sack
Put just as many pennies
As are years upon your back.

Should you, for once, feel aged
As Methusaleh of old
We shall no objection make,
It will to your praise be told.

If your pennies be nickels,
In the fullness of your heart,
You will feel all the better;
All the better on our part.

Better still if they are dimes,
We will thank you all the more;
Because the object's worthy,
And the treasury is poor.

We're making great endeavor,
Just the best that we can do;
And yet, with all our efforts,
We must ask some help from you.

Come, the bag will let you in,
If at the door presented
Of Opera House, Avoca,
March, the tenth, at seven o'clock.

If you cannot come yourself,
Then trust it to Uncle Sam,
And send to Mr. Mills Noxon,

AMATEUR CONTEST COMMITTEE
OF THE
CHARITY & SOCIAL CLUB 'UNTER UNS',
156 SECOND AVENUE.

New York, _____ 189

Dear Sir!

We respectfully beg to call your kind attention to a Contest and Ball of more Athletic, Gymnastic, Singing, Dramatic and Musical Societies to be held on April 12, Grand Central Palace, Lexington Ave., bet. 43d and 44th Sts., under the auspices of the Charity and Social Club "Unter Uns".

A Contest of this kind has never before been presented to the Public, therefore the numerous and manifold features will not fail to attract a large audience. The returns of the entertainment are devoted to the benefit of that charitable organisation that by the vote of those present will be considered the most deserving.

A coupon fastened to the admission Ticket, upon which the name of the Society chosen be written by the holder, will serve for the purpose of voting.

The undersigned Committee begs to extend a cordial invitation to you, soliciting your valued attendance at this festivity whereby you will aid a good and worthy cause.

Hoping to have the honor of greeting you at the festival, we beg to remain,

Yours Respectfully,

The Committee.
