I am a practicing physician duly

I have this day carefully examined
the above named defendant Leopold Kurtz,
who is confined to his bed suffering from an acute
Exacerbation of Chronic Gastric
Catarrh with failing heart action.

In my opinion the said Leopold Kurtz is wholly unable in his present state of health to leave his residence, or to attend at Court, and it will not be safe for him to do so for at least 10 or 12 days,

being duly sworn deposes and says that he keeps a Leather and Finding Store at the above place where he has been in said business since May 1st 1888, and that prior to said date he was at 446
East Houston for one year in the same business.

That he purchased of one Leopold Kurtz who keeps a store at the corner of Norfolk and Delancey Streets in said City sole leather cut into strips at the dates following and the quantities as follows.

May 16th 1887, 30 strips.
June 8. 1887, 187 strips.
June 23. 1887, 148 strips.
March 26. 1888, 107 strips.
March 30. 1888, 212 strips.

April 20, 1888, 149 strips.

June 22, 1888, 128 strips.

August 28 <sup>215</sup>/<sub>206</sub> strips.

That he paid for said leather from thirty five cents to sixty cents per strip according to the quality of said leather.

To the best of deponent's knowledge said strips of leather were all of the same description and marks so far as they were marked as the sample strips given by me to John J. Lattmann of No. 96 Beade Street on or about one month ago.

of age and resides at No. 104 Essex St in the City of New York, and works at the business of making shoes at No. 77 Warren Street in said City.

That he worked for John J. Lattemann for the three years previous to July 1888 at his place at No. 96 & 98 Reade Street and 48 Warren St before Mr Lattemann removed to Reade Street in January 1886.

That deponent was acquainted with Charles Danderlein, who was a workman at said
Lattemann's while deponent was there,
and deponent knew said Danderlein well
and frequently held conversations with him at said Lattemann's shop.

That sometime during the month of August last, the exact date deponent is unable to state, this deponent while on his way home from work he was passing the store of Leopold Kurtz at the corner of Keester and Christie Streets he saw said Charles Sauderlein standing in front of said Kurtz's store talking with said Kurtz, who was standing near to said Sauderlein; deponent said to him "hello Charlie"! and then we had a few words together and I said, "what are you doing round here" and Sauderlein said "I had my shoe stretched inside - in the store" - meaning Kurtz's store, and he at the same time pointing in to the store. Deponent then passed on bidding him - "good night Charlie" and left him standing there.

George Becker being duly sworn deposes and says that he resides at No. 11 Eldridge Street in the City of New York.

That during the months of February and March of this year one Charles Sauderlein was in the habit of frequenting the saloon of this deponent, kept by deponent at No. 11 Eldridge St in said City. That said Sauderlein represented to deponent's said saloon that he was engaged at night in selling shoes on commission.

That during the months of February and March of the present year deponent at the request of said Sauderlein cashed for him two certain checks which the said Sauderlein endorsed and that they had no other endorsement. That the said checks were cashed one at a time at an interval of about two weeks and amounting in the aggregate to about the sum of thirty five dollars.

That the said checks were drawn by some one whose name commenced with a "K"

deposes and says that he resides now
and has for the past 13 years resided at No. 73 Forsyth Street New York City, is a commercial traveller
and of the age of sixty four years.

That he has known and been acquainted with Leopold Kurtz for about twelve or fifteen years, who is engaged in the shoe business and has a shoe store at the corner of Beester St and Chrystie St and another
at the corner of Norfolk and Rivington Sts.

That deponent knew said Kurtz when he kept a shoe manufactory in Thomas St
near West Broadway about two years ago.
That deponent was engaged in selling shoes
for him by sample and that one night
he left a box of sample shoes in his shop in Thomas St on Friday in a box on a shelf in a box on a shelf in the front of the shop. That on Monday morning following deponent called and found that in the meantime said shop had been partially burned out - the front not being disturbed except by water - that deponent's sample box stood on the shelf where he had left it on Friday before apparently untouched - but when deponent opened it he found that his samples had all been removed but by whom deponent never knew.

That at the above place at that time deponent saw in said Kurtz's shop strips of white oak tanned sole leather cut in strips as manufacturers are accustomed to have it ready to be cut into soles - It lay in a pile on the floor.

That after this he opened a shop in West Broadway between Duane and Reade Street at which place he was also burned out - That deponent saw at that place also quantities of strips of oak tanned sole leather ready for cutting into shoe soles.

That about two or three months ago - may have been earlier deponent was in said Kurtz's store at the corner of Rivington and Norfolk it where said Kurtz showed to deponent a quantity of leather, consisting of Patent leather, French Kid, Saugolia kid, Corsia kid, all of the finest and best quality in the United States - The French kid was of the brand Gresane No. 1, the finest quality of goods samples of which said Kurtz kept at his Heester St Store.

That deponent informed Messrs Folke & Fritz of the opportunity to purchase the lot.

That deponent went with Mr. Fritz to see the leather - That he assisted in counting over the stock which was put in the wagon in lots in dozens - that he took all there was - and went round to the Heester Street Store and took the samples what ~~was~~ were there and paid the amount of the bill which was to the best of the recollection of deponent about three hundred and forty dollars - That said Kurtz gave him a bill for the said goods.

MARGARET JONES, the complainant, testified that she had lived for the past three weeks at 33 Bowery in the City of New York. She was working in a crockery store--Vogelstein's--in Warren Street, cleaning the crockery and keeping it in order. On the night of September 26th at about seven o'clock in the evening she was going through Park street towards Mulberry street, and she had $11.75 in her hand, rolled up in her handkerchief and was eating a pear. She was on her way to buy a pair of shoes. The defendant ran up to her, slapped her right across the face, snatched the money, and ran away with it. She pursued him. She was on the corner of Park and Mulberry streets when the defendant assaulted her and robbed her. He ran through Mulberry street and she pursued him, and two police officers arrested him. They caught him as he was running.

CROSS-EXAMINATION: She was not under the influence of liquor at the time, of the assault and larceny. Just before the larceny was committed she was in a restaurant at No. 8 Division street eating her supper. She was going to a shoe store in Mulberry street between Park and Baxter streets. She could not say positively whether the shop was between those two particular streets, but it was in that neighborhood. She had bought her shoes often there.

OFFICER JOHN J. WIMMER, testified that he arrested the defendant at Park and Mulberry streets between six and seven o'clock. He heard a woman scream and he ran down to the corner of Park and Mulberry streets, and saw an Italian running, with a woman after him, and an officer in citizens clothes caught him and he threw something behind him between some ash barrels and a cart, and afterwards he, the witness, and the other officer, picked up a fifty cent piece. Officer John J. Keller was the officer in citizens dress. The Italian who was running, was the defendant at the Bar. The complaintant was close behind him when he was running. She came right up, and identified the defendant as the man who robbed her. The witness produced the fifty cent piece that was found, in evidence.

CROSS-EXAMINATION: He found the fifty-cent piece in the gutter between some ask barrels and a cart. When searched the defendant had nothing at all on his person outside of his clothes. He saw the defendant throw something out of his hands and heard it strike on the pavement.

OFFICER JOHN J. KELLER, testified that he had a night off on September 26th, and he was walking up through Mulberry street between six and seven o'clock, and heard a woman cry "Stop thief" and saw the defendant running, and the complainant following him closely. She was not more than five or six feet behind him. He, the witness, grabbed the defendant's wrist, and the defendant put his other hand behind his back, and the witness heard the sound of silver and he, the witness, looked back and saw the fifty cent pieve in the gutter. A crowd collected. The complainant identified the defendant. He, the witness, could not recollect which wrist he caought the defendant by, because there was so much excitement, and the complainant was crying out at a great rate.

FOR THE DEFENCE: FRANK DOMINICO, the Defendant, testified through the Official Interpreter, that he had been in this country only six months, and in New York but one week at the time of the alleged larceny. He lived at 33 Mulberry street, near the corner of Park. He did not assault the defendant, or take any money from her. He did not run, and no money was found on his person when he was arrested.

CROSS:EXAMINATION: He was working as an expressman at the time of his arrest, for an expressman named Woorberry. He did not run in Mulberry street. He walked quickly, but it was not because he had ever seen the complainant, or assaulted or robbed her.
