The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Nathan S. Nathan of a Misdemeanor,

(Chap. 215, Laws
of 1882 § 2)

committed as follows:

The said Nathan S. Nathan, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Twenty-fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one

Henry John, of the County of New York of a certain article and substance in semblance of natural butter, and known as oleomargarine or imitation butter, the same not being the legitimate product of the dairy, and not being made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with salt or rennet, or both, with or without coloring matter or sage, but into which divers oils, and animal and other fats, not produced from milk or cream, had been introduced (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

NEW YORK GENERAL SESSIONS.

-----X
The People on my complaint

vs

Edward Noetting Jr.

As complainant in the above case I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show, but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I hereby state that the defendant was in the employ at the time of the alleged larceny, of the Whiting Manufacturing Co., of which I am the Vice-President; that during such employment the defendant appeared to be honest and industrious and attentive to his duties and obtained thereby from us a good reputation. On being charged with the alleged larceny he promptly confessed the same, and all the property that was taken, being silver-ware of the value of sixty dollars, was recovered by the said Company, and they have suffered no loss by the acts of the defendant. The defendant is known to me by the investigations that I have made to have hitherto borne a very good character and a respectable young man whose parents are respectable and whose surroundings appear to have been good. He is now 16 years old, and I feel that by incarcerating him in any of the various institutions that it would probably result in his being a confirmed criminal.

For these reasons and believing that if this, his first offense, can be condoned that he will not again be found committing crime. ^{For these reasons.} I am induced to ask that the complaint herein be withdrawn and the young man discharged from further prosecution on the indictment, or such other disposition towards that end ^{as} ~~that~~ the Court may think fit.

I am also informed by Detective King, who was employed in the case, that he has investigated the young man's previous character and his family and surroundings and finds them to be excellent. This is also a reason why I make this request to the Court and District Attorney.

Respectfully,

Wm M. Brown JB
