POLICE COURT, 2 DISTRICT.

August Schuetz
aged 23 yrs occupation Cashier of No. 19 Bond Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 29th day of May 1889
at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Charles Kaplan

(now here) who is employed by Frederick Landerberger, deponent's employer, at No 19 Bond St. presented the annexed instrument in writing to deponent for payment. which said written instrument purports to be a bill from Durbin and Heame for two dollars for three papers of needles. deponent believing said bill to be correct gave him the said defendant the said sum of two dollars in payment of said bill.

Deponent is informed by Percival Marsh a clerk employed by the firm of Durbin and Heame at no 369 Canal St. that on the above mentioned date he sold the said defendant one paper of needles and received from him the said defendant the sum of twenty cents in payment thereof. and that he the said Percival then gave the said defendant the bill hereto annexed. which then read one paper of needles at twenty cents.

Wherefore deponent charges the said defendant with feloniously erasing and altering said written instrument from one paper of needles at twenty cents to three papers of needles at two dollars with the intent to cheat and defraud and prays he may be dealt with according to law.

A. I told them he was guilty of the crime.

Q And how did they expect--I want you to tell me your impressions--how did they expect to do him any benefit? If he was guilty they would not have retained Steckler?

A. Yes sir; they made up the money amongst themselves and engaged a lawyer.

Q Was that all the conversation that took place then?

A. That is all.

Q The second time did the same young men visit you?

A. Two of the three men.

Q And what took place on the second occasion? A. About substantially the same conversation.

Q Are those the only persons that have spoken to you about this case? A. That is all.

Q Just state to me the occurrences that took place on this night--what time of night it was? A. It was on the 19th in the afternoon. At fifteen minutes past two o'clock I passed the urinal.

- Q Near what Avenue, B. or C ? A. A--that urinal on the west side. I looked through the iron partition or screen surrounding the urinal, which is perforated with holes through which officers can look into the urinals.
- Q Did you go around and look through those inside the door of the urinal ? A. No sir; I looked through the end.
- Q Did you see any one go into that urinal before you reached there ? A. Yes sir, at least ten or twelve men; at the same time those two were standing in there.
- Q Did you see those two, Walsh and Kohn, before they went into the urinal ? A. No sir, on the inside.
- Q Did you ever see them together before ? A. No sir.
- Q They were in the urinal when you looked in ? Yes sir.
- Q And that was the first time you saw them ? A. Yes sir
- Q When you looked in were they near to you ? A. No sir they were in the first partition.. Walsh was in the first and Kohn was in the second partition.
- Q Could you see Walsh from where you looked in at the end ? A. Yes sir very plain.
- Q His back was to you more or less ? A. No sir, standing front.
- Q Just tell me what you saw there when you first looked in ? There was at that time nobody in only those two and I see that Kohn had Walsh's private in his hand.
- Q Were they standing beside the urinal where Walsh was ?

A. Yes sir, standing at the end of the urinal.

Q Suppose that was the partition there and Walsh was on this side and Kohn on this? A. Kohn was on this side (indicating). I saw that he had his hand in Walsh's pants on his private.

Q Could you see his privates? A. Yes sir.

Q Did you make any outcry? A. No sir, I did not. Then there were two old gentlemen came in. Kohn looked around the partition to see if he couldn't see the old gentleman's privates, and then at the same time he was looking for the old gentleman's private he got Mr. Walsh's privates in his hand again. Then they went out again, and Kohn turned around to Walsh and spoke to him and I saw both kiss each other. Mr. Walsh left his left hand on Kohn's right shoulder.

Q The old gentlemen went out? A. Yes sir, then they kissed each other. Kohn was playing with Walsh's private. Then somebody came and they ran in their partitions again, and Kohn was looking every time anybody came in to see his privates. Then I see Kohn put the private in his mouth. Kohn put Walsh's private in his mouth.

Q Did he stoop down--drop on his knees? A. No sir, ~~xxx~~ stooped down. That was only a second and somebody was coming again.

Q You saw him get it in his mouth? A. Only a second.

Q Could you see that from this corner? A. Yes sir, plain.

Q You say Kohn Didn't stoop down ? A. Not on his knees. He stooped down and put the private in his mouth and at the same time somebody was coming, so he ran in his partition again.

Q Then what occurred ? A. After he was gone Kohn he got Walsh's private again in his hand, not in his mouth. He only got it once in his mouth. Then at last--maybe ten or twelve minutes I watched them--I stepped forward and arrested both of them.

Q Were they in the urinal then ? A. Yes sir.

Q What position were they in ? A. They ran in their own apartments and appeared to be urinating. Kohn he is a terrible man. Every man who was coming in he bent himself over to see his privates.

Q When you arrested them which did you arrest first ?
A I took both.

Q Did you say anything ? A. I say, "What you doing here ?" Kohn say, "Nothing, nothing." He wanted to get loose.

Q Tried to break away ? A. And I hold on . Then he got loose and at the same time another gentleman come in, and I say, "Hold him, I want him too," and he took hold of Kohn.

Q He was trying to break away from you and you wanted to get Walsh ? A. I got Walsh, but Kohn tried very hard to get away, and then we got outside and then there was another man coming and one man couldn't hold Kohn, so they both took hold of him, and they hardly could hold him. I couldn't get right away an officer to assist me. I held Walsh. Kohn fought like a tiger to get away till an officer came and took hold.

Q Do you know those two men who held onto Kohn ? A. I know one.

Q Do you know his name ? A. White, he lives in Seventh Street. I see him every day.

Q Did Kohn utter any words--did he say anything at all. A. No, he say, "I have nothing done."

Q Did he speak like a German ? A. Yes, I could see that he was a German.

Q He spoke so you could understand him ? A. Yes sir.

Q While he was struggling with the two citizens did he say anything, do you know ? A. I couldn't tell that.

Q Did the officer that you sent for take Kohn to the station house ? A. Yes sir.

Q Who was that officer ? A. Officer Reed, of Tompkins Square.

Q You walked with Walsh ? A. I held Walsh, yes sir.

Q While you were walking with Walsh to Essex Market Court did you say anything or he say anything ?

A. He say he is innocent; haven't done anything.

Q Did you ask him how long he knew Kohn ? A. I don't believe he ever saw Kohn before.

Q You were present in court when they were arraigned, were you ? A. Yes sir.

Q Did Kohn talk English in answer to the questions of the clerk ? A. Yes sir.

Q Do you go to school ? A. Yes sir.

Q What school ? A. 9th Street.

Q Public school ? A. Yes sir.

Q Do you go to church ? A. Used to go.

Q What church ? A. Houston Street.

Q St. Augustin's ? A. Yes sir. Now I go to 5th Street Church, Avenue B and 5th Street.

Q Have you ever gone to Sunday School ? A. Yes sir.

Q You know who made you ? A. Yes sir.

Q Who ? A. God.

Q Do you know what telling a lie is ? A. Yes sir.

Q And you know what telling the truth is ? A. Yes sir.

Q Where would you go if you told a lie ? A. In Hell.

Q Do you know what an oath is--to take an oath to tell the truth ? A. You got to tell the truth.

Q You know what it is to kiss the Book, the Holy Bible ?

A. Yes sir.

Q And when you kiss the Holy Bible what does that mean ?

A That you tell the truth.

Q Conrad, do you know this Frederick Kohn ? A. Yes sir.

Q How long do you know him ? A. About a month and a week.

Q How do you know it is about a month ? A. I saw him in the park.

Q How long is it ago since you saw him ? A. More than two weeks.

Q. Are you sure of that ? A. Yes sir.

Q How many Sundays ? A. Four.

Q Sure of that ? A. Yes sir.

Q And you have gone to church every one of those Sundays ?
A Yes sir.

Q And you know it is more than four Sundays ? A. Yes.

Q How did you see him--just tell me what took place when you saw him in the park--when did you see him first ?
A. In the park.

Q What part of the park ? A. Corner of 8th Street.

Q And Avenue A ? A. Yes sir.

Q You know where the urinal is there ? A. Yes sir.

Q And was it there you saw him ? A. It was on the other side--like that (indicating.)

Q Next to Ninth Street ? A. The urinal was on that side. He was on that side.

- Q Were you going into the urinal ? A. Yes sir.
- Q Was any one with you ? A. Another boy.
- Q Who was the other boy ? A. Willie Cairbourne.
- Q Where does Willie live ? A. He moved.
- Q Where has he moved, do you know ? A. No.
- Q Where did he live then ? A. In Avenue A.
- Q Did you know Willie ? A. Didn't know him good.
- Q Were the two of you going into the urinal ? A. Before that, and then we was standing by the corner.
- Q Had you been in ? A. No, we was going to go in; standing talking.
- Q When you were standing talking what took place--did you see Kohn when you were standing together? A. No, he come along.
- Q Did you ever see him before ? A. I only saw him that time.
- Q When he came along what did he say to you ? A. He asked me what I am. I says I am a German, and then he asked the other boy.
- Q Did he ask you in English ? A. First.
- Q Are you sure of that ? A. When he said it in English he asked us if we were German, and he commenced to talk German to us.
- Q Do you understand German ? A. I am German.
- Q Were you born in Germany or here ? A. Germany.

Q What did he say when he talked German ? A. He asked if I am German. I said yes, and then he told me to come over by that little house and I will give you five cents. Then he gave us five cents.

Q Each ? A. Only to Willie.

Q Didn't give it to you ? A. No.

Q Did he tell you to go over by that little house in German ? A. In English to that little boy, Willie.

Q Did he say it in German to you ? A. No, he asked me to before that.

Q In German ? A. Yes sir.

Q To go over by that little house ? A. Yes sir.

Q Did he say what he wanted you for ? A. He only said,
If you come over by that little house I will give you five cents.

Q What did you say--anything ? A. The other boy said yes, and then when he got the five cents he said he wouldn't go, and then I went over and told a policeman he wanted to take us in the house there.

Q What policeman did you tell ? A. Mr. Klein.

Q The man that is out there ? A. Yes sir.

Q Did you tell him at that time ? A. Didn't tell him but I was going to tell him and then I went over--and then the other day that same man did something to another man.

Q The day that he gave the boy Willie five cents--is that the day you told the officer.

A No.

Q After he gave the boy five cents did you run away too ?

A. The other boy ran away and I ran away too.

Q And you left Kohn there ? A. Yes sir.

Q Did you ever see him after that ? A. Yes sir.

Q Where did you see him ? A. He was in the water closet.

Q In the same water closet ? A. Yes sir.

Q How long after that day ? A. About two weeks.

Q What took place when you saw him in the water closet about two weeks after--did he say anything to you ?

A. He did something dirty to another man. I went to pass with my little brother, and there was a man standing over there and the policeman was always watching in and then I was standing there, and then when he came out then I told Mr. Klein that he did something to me already--that he wanted to do something.

Q And then you went with Mr. Klein to the Police Court ?

A. Yes sir.

Q And you told the Judge ? A. Yes sir.

Q Did you ever see Kohn over twice ?--the time that he wanted to do something to you--

A He only wanted to do it only the first time, and the second time, when the policeman was watching he went in and got hold of that man, and then I told him that man was going to do something dirty to me once.

Q And those were the only times you ever saw Kohn--twice ? A. Yes sir.

Q Did you tell any one that this man offered you five cents--any one at home ? A. Only told my father.

Q Did you tell your father when you went home ? A. Yes sir.

Q What is your father's name ? A. Louis Miller.

Q Is that his address, 135 Avenue A--is that where he lives ? A. Yes sir.

Q What time of day was that ? A. When the policeman took him ?

Q No, but when he gave you the five cents ? A. That was when there was music in the park.

Q. The music was playing ? A. Yes sir.

Q And that evening when you went home did you tell your papa ? A. Yes sir.

Q What did you tell him ? A. I told him there was a man in the park wanted to do something dirty to us. After that he said I should just run away and shouldn't listen to it when a man wanted to talk dirty to me.

Q Has any one been down to your house to talk about this matter--any strange man since Kohn was arrested ?

A. No, that policeman was talking to me.

Q Nobody else ? A. No.

Q Was Kohn dressed in the same way when you saw him with the officer as he was when he offered the five cents to you ? A. No.

Q Was he dressed differently ? A. He only had a different coat on.

Q Are you sure it was the same man ? A. Yes, I know it.

Q How do you know ? A. I know the way he looked.

Q You are sure it is the same man ? A. Yes sir, I know it.

Q Did you tell the officer when he was arrested that he wanted to do something dirty to you in his presence ?

A. Yes sir. Kohn said he never saw me before--I was lying.

Q Did he say that in English ? A. Yes.

Q That he never saw you before, and that you were lying ?

A. Yes sir.

Q What did you say to the officer--that he wanted to do something dirty to you before ? A. Yes sir.

Q Two weeks or four weeks before ? A Four.

Q. Wanted to do something dirty to you ? A. Yes sir.

Q And he said in English that you were lying and that he never saw you before ? A. Yes sir.

O F F I C E R K L E I N (recalled)

Q The boy says that he ran over and told you in the presence of Kohn that Kohn a couple of weeks before that wanted to do something dirty to him and that Kohn said that he was lying, that he never saw him before ?
A. That is true.

Q He told you in Kohn's presence that Kohn had wanted to do something dirty to him two weeks before ? A. Yes sir, I remember now.

Q Did Kohn speak in English ? A. Yes sir.

Q It is claimed for him that he couldn't speak English ?
A He could speak English

Q How old a man is he ? A. 24.

W I L L I A M B R U G G E M A N N .

Q Were you born in New York ? A. Yes sir.

Q Where do you reside ? A. 168 East Seventh Street.

Q What is your business ? A. Drive an egg, butter and cheese wagon..

Q With whom are you employed ? A. For the last five weeks with Fred Lyting.

Q Did you ever see Kohn before this day in question ?
A. No sir.

Q Don't know him ? A. No sir.

Q Ever see Walsh before ? A. No sir.

Q You remember the day that officer Klein arrested him ?
A. I don't exactly remember the date.

Q You remember the occasion ? A. Yes sir.

Q Just tell me what you saw ? A. I happened to be on busines up in Tenth Street and I happened to walk through the park and wanted to go into the urinal and happened to see the officer have two men there tussling with him and saw Mr. Kohn, the younger of the two--he broke away and Mr. Klein told me to hold him.

Q He said that in Kohn's presence ? A. While Kohn was walking away.

Q What did the officer say ? A. Hold onto him.

Q Did you catch Kohn ? A. Just happened to catch him.

Q Was he trying to get away ? A. It happened another man came to my assistance. He happened to bite the other man in the finger. We got him outside and then the officer assisted us.

Q Do you know the other man ? A. I do not.

Q You saw him bite the other man's finger ? A. Yes sir.

Q Did he say anything ? A. Not in my presence. He was always trying to fight his way away and he tore my business coat, ripped it in the sleeve.

Q Didn't hear him say anything to any one ? A. Not to me.

Q Did you know what the officer was arresting him for at the time ? A. No sir, I did not; didn't know what they were doing or what they were arrested for.

Q Then you didn't go with the officer to the Police Court
A. No sir.

Q When you caught him he had broken away from the officer ? A. This officer had one man and the other man he was going out. The other tried to break loose.

Q Was he away from the officer when you caught him ? A. I believe he was.

Q That is the officer hadn't his hand on him ? A. No sir.

Q And he was breaking away ? A. And I caught him.

Q Then he struggled with you ? A. Yes sir, I wasn't strong enough to hold him alone and another gentleman came along there and he caught him and wanted to help me out of the urinal with him.

Q This is the officer that came up (indicating the other officer)? A. Yes sir.

O F F I C E R W I L L I A M J . R E E D , of the Park Police.

Q Just state to me what you saw ? A. My attention was called by some person, I cannot recollect whom that came over, for to get over quick to the urinal, that Officer Klein wanted assistance, when I hurried over there. When I went there I found this man gasping for wind and bore all traces of a man that was after having a hard struggle, and he had this man ~~xxxxxx~~ ~~xxxxxx~~ Walsh up against the wire fence. This man Kohn was with his back to the urinal standing between two people and a number of people were looking on, and as I went over he said, "Get hold of that man." I got hold of him and asked, "Are you going to lock him up ?" He said, Yes and then I proceeded to court with him.

Q Did you say anything on the way to court ? A. Didn't say anything. I asked him if he was at his old tricks and he made a denial of everything. There was a little boy there, he seemed to know all about him, and on the strength of what the little boy was saying I took it for granted that he must have been a fre-quenter of these urinals. But he claimed he was innocent all the way down. He said he didn't know what he was arrested for.

Q Spoke English intelligently ? A. Yes.

Q Never knew him or saw him before ? A. Not to my recollection. I believe he was in Germany for three months.

Q Did he try to break away from you ? A. No, he didn't try to break away. He was pretty well subdued by the time I got there. He protested against me putting my hand on him. Wanted me to let him go.

Q Did you ever see the man that Officer Klein had before?
A. No sir, never saw him.

Drunk Man; Layman ran away ^{toward Broadway} and the big man awakened the Drunken Man - Kraus and myself went away up to our lodging House 29 Bowery, where the complainant and the witness Smith are also lodging;
The witness Smith said to us, I saw Layman in Broadway, he couldn't run any more,
he said he cut into a man's pocket,
a half hour later the witness Hardt said to us, that the drunken man in the park woke up and said to the Orlesian, that there was $5 taken from his pocket while he was asleep, and he said ~~well~~ if you should give me half of that money for you were sitting next to that drunken man and got his money. I refused, and gave them 25 cents ^{each} for a night's lodging and Kraus gave Hardt 25 cents also, and Hardt said unless you give me half of the money taken from the drunken man I will get you arrested. About 15 minutes afterward ~~two~~ ~~arrived~~ the Officer came with Smith and arrested us.
