Tried, May, 17th., 1888.

APPEARANCES:

Assistant District Attorney Mc Dona, for the People;
 Mr. Oliver W. Keane, for the Defence

FRANCIS G. LAWRENCE, the complainant, testified that he saw the defendant at his place of business at 141 Water Street on April 21st., 1888. He had locked his door on the inside and was sitting in his office. He
 He was writing, and the first thing he heard was the knob of the door turning. There was a hardwood floor, and no one could come up to the door without making a noise. After hearing the knob turn, he heard another noise and he saw a key inserted in the door. About a minute afterwards the door was opened by the defendant. The defendant walked into the room and he, the complainant, got hold of him by the throat. His place of business was at the corner of Water and Fletcher Streets. He had never seen the defendant before that day. It was about half past 1, o'clock in the morning. On the following day, a key was found on the stairway, outside of his door. The witness produced the key (a skeleton key) and handed it to the District Attorney.

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION.      None.
-----

FOR THE DEFENCE, WILLIAM C. HALPIN, the defendant, testified that he was a cigar maker by trade and had been employed by D. Lewis of 29 Garfield Place, Brooklyn. He had been working for him close on 6 years. When he was going home on the previous evening he met a young man by 3.

the name of Williamson. He asked him if he would go to a man named George Harvey and collect for him a bill of $13. 65. He went to Harvey's house at 93 Henry Street that night and he was not in. He then went to the corner of Pitt and Grand Streets, in Graham's liquor store, where Harvey usually was, and Harvey said that he hadn't the money with him, but that if he, the defendant, would call upon him on Saturday morning, he would give it to him. As it was a wet day, the following day- Saturday- he, the defendant, didn't go to work. Then he remembered that Harvey had told him that he worked at Pine and Water Streets, and that he could get the money if he would call upon him there. Harvey said that his uncle kept the place, and went into the building where Mr. Lawrence's office was, and entered Mr. Lawrence's office and asked him if Mr. George Harvey worked there. Mr. Lawrence said, no, and he, the defendant, pulled the door to and started to go downstairs again, when Mr. Lawrence grabbed him from behind and held on to him and sent for an officer. The Officer searched him then and there and found in his possession the latch key of his hall door, and in the station house they called it a skeleton key. He, the defendant, gave his residence and name, and they sent an officer to his house to try the latchkey, which they had called a skeleton key. The officer told him that the key fitted the door. He had never had in his possession, the key which the complainant produced, and showed to the Jury.

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION. He testified that one of the instruments that was found in his pocket was used to apply Gum Tragicum to the ends of the cigars in their manufacture, and he also used it to clean his nails after using the gum. He had been once arrested for drunkenness. He didn't remember having pleaded guilty in the General Sessions on June 15th., 1881. and having been sent to the Elmira Reformatory by Judge Gildersleeve.

-----

IN REBUTTAL. Mr. Lawrence being recalled by the 5th. Juror, testified that 3 days before the arrest of the formerly defendant, the offices occupied by Psaidi and Coles had been robbed. He found, also the day before that his 5.

key would not unlock his door, and, becoming suspicious, he locked his door on the inside, and waited for the person to return. He was in the tea and coffee business.

-----

OFFICER MAX MEYER, testified that he was a police officer on the retired list, He had arrested the defendant for breaking into a window. It was about 1881. He, the witness, appeared as a witness against Halpin in the Court of General Sessions, before Judge Gildersleeve, and he saw the prisoner plead guilty of burglary in the third degree, and heard him sentenced to the Reformatory by Judge Gildersleeve.

-----

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION, the officer testified that it was about June 1881, when the prisoner pleaded guilty.

-----

THE PRISONER, being re-called, by his counsel, testified that the officer was mistaken; that he had never been arrested before in his life; and had never been in the Reformatory. His brother Charles had been charged with the offence and sentenced to the Reformatory.

Answering affidavit

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, SS:

Henry D. Macdona, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

I am a Deputy Assistant in the office of the District Attorney of the County of New York, and on all the days mentioned in the affidavit of Mr. Abraham Suydam, attached to notice of motion herein, was in charge of the Calendar of Part Two of the above named Court. It appears from the records of the District Attorney's Office, that on the 11th day of May, the case of the said William C. Halpin was on for trial, in Part Two of the said court. At the request and solicitation of the said Abraham Suydam, the case was postponed until the 15th of May, in order to conform to his professional convenience.

On the day last named, the case was again put on the calendar, and again, at the solicitation of the said Abraham Suydam, postponed until the 17th of May.

On the 17th of May, I marked the case ready.

On the 15th of May, Mr. William Foster, one of the Deputy Assistants in the District Attorney's Office, came into court in company with Mr. Suydam, and presented to me a letter addressed to the Hon. Gunning S. Bedford Acting District Attorney, which letter is as follows:

" Abraham Suydam

Attorney and Counsellor at Law

38 Park Row,

Potter Building.

The People &c. vs. Wm. C. Halpin.

New York, May 10th, 1888.

"Hon. Gunning S. Bedford,

"Acting District Attorney,

"Dear Sir,

"The above named defendant

"is indicted for burglary in the third degree - a "recent indictment.

"I was present at the examination in the Police "Court, and am familiar with the facts. The utmost "verdict upon the People's evidence that could be "obtained upon a trial would be for an attempt to "commit the crime charged, and upon the defendant's "evidence there might probably be an acquittal. The "case is not an aggravated one.

"Now it appears that Halpin is an important witness "for the People in an important case of arson, which is "now in the hands of Dep. Assistant Forster, for prepar"ation, as I am informed by him. It may be that the "ends of justice will be served by discharging Halpin

3.

"from the prosecution for burglary, since, if he should be convicted and sent away, it might materially impair the case for the people on the indictment for arson.

"I therefore respectfully suggest that the above entitled case be referred to Mr. Foster, to examine and report what disposition of it may best serve the ends of justice.

"Yours truly,

"Abraham Suydam"

Dictated)

This letter had been handed to Mr. Foster to investigate and report upon to me. Mr. Foster, thereupon in the presence of Mr. Suydam, informed me that Halpin was not, as stated in the letter—above given, an important witness in the arson case therein referred to, and that he did not think the ends of justice would be served by discharging Halpin from prosecution for burglary; and I thereupon informed Mr. Suydam that I would try the case of Halpin without fail on the 17th inst.

When the case of Halpin was called, on the 17th inst., and the prisoner arraigned it was found, notwithstanding the previous definite arrangement to try said Halpin, that neither Mr. Suydam nor Mr. Purdy, nor any one representing them was in court.

Thereupon the prisoner was sent back to the pen by Hon. Justice Cowing, and twenty-five minutes later, other business having intervened, his case was again called.

Mr. Suydam did not answer at this time nor did any one representing him appear, notwithstanding that the court had meanwhile, sent ~~=~~ in search of the counsel for Halpin.

Then the court assigned counsel to defend said Halpin who was thereupon tried and all his rights in the premises properly insisted upon by the counsel so assigned as the record of the case more fully shows.

The assumption of the counsel set forth in his affidavit that the case was moved out of its proper order and that he had a right to assume and did assume that the cases which stood ahead of it on the calendar would first be disposed of, is not justified by experience or practice in this court, inasmuch as the calendars here have never been regarded as arbitrary; and it is the daily practice to move cases out of their proper order, in order to meet the convenience of counsel and to promote the ends of justice.

When the case of Halpin was moved, the court was not informed that Mr. Purdy and Mr. Suydam were actually engaged in the trial of cases in other courts.

The trial of Halpin was not, as claimed in the affidavit of Abraham Suydam, forced to trial, and he had every reason to suppose and as a matter of fact, absolutely did know, that the case would be moved, for I so informed him, and he admitted he so understood.

 vs. : Affidavit on Motion to Vacate Judgment.
 William C. Halpin. :

City and County of New York, Ss:

Abraham Suydam, being duly sworn, says as follows, to wit:

I am an attorney and counsellor at law, and am of coun-
 2 sel for the defendant above-named. Ambrose H. Purdy, Esq., is associated with me as counsel for the defendant, but I am more familiar with the facts of the case than Mr. Purdy, having appeared for the defendant at the examination in the Police Court, and it was agreed between Mr. Purdy and myself that I should try the case, and I made preparation accordingly, and Mr. Purdy, as I am informed by him and believe made no preparation whatever to try the case.

This case was on the day calendar of Part Two of this Court for trial on Thursday, the 17th day of May A. D. 1888.
 3 On that day I was actually engaged in the trial of the case of Koor vs. Szijarto in Part Two of the City Court of New York, which trial lasted from ten o'clock in the forenoon till about three o'clock in the afternoon, with an intermission for lunch from half past twelve till half past one. Mr.
 Purdy, on the same day was actually engaged in Part ~~Two~~ Three of this Court, in the trial of the case of The People vs.
 Michael Brien, which trial had been commenced on the previous day and continued from eleven o'clock in the forenoon till after three o'clock in the afternoon of Thursday the 17th day

Fol.4 of May instant.

On the day in question, as soon as the City Court took a recess, at half past twelve o'clock, I went immediately into Part Two of this Court, to make some arrangement for the trial of this case of The People vs. Halpin, and when I reached this Court I found to my surprise that the case had been disposed of. This Court was then occupied with the trial of an other case, so that I could not obtain the ear of the Court to make any motion or request whatever. I waited until half past one o'clock, the hour at which the City Court was to re-5 convene and proceed with the trial of Koor vs. Szijarto, but I was unable to get the attention of this Court for the purpose of making any motion or request in regard to this case of The People vs. Halpin. As soon as the case of Koor vs. Szijarto was concluded I immediately returned to Part Two of this Court, and found that the Court had adjourned for the day, and the Judge had left the bench.

The above-entitled case of The People vs. Halpin stood No. 6 on the day calendar of the day in question. I am informed and believe that it was moved for trial out of its pro-6 per order, and before any disposition whatever had been made of other cases which stood ahead of it on the same day calendar and ought to have been disposed of before this case was called or moved for trial. And I am informed and believe, and therefore allege that some of the cases which stood on the said day calendar ahead of this case were ready for trial and might have been tried before this case was tried, and were actually tried on the same day after this case had been tried instead of before it, as they should have been according to their places on the calendar. I had no reason what-

Fol.7 ever to suppose that this case would be moved out of its proper order. On the contrary I had a right to assume and did assume that the cases which stood ahead of this one on the said day calendar would first be disposed of; and if this had been done this case would not have been reached until I got into this Court to attend to it.

8 When this case was moved, as I am informed and believe, the Court was informed that Mr. Purdy and myself were actually engaged in the trial of cases in other courts. This Court nevertheless ordered the trial of this case to proceed, and assigned counsel to the defendant who was wholly unacquainted with the facts of the case and wholly unprepared to go to trial. The defendant having been convicted was immediately sentenced without being remanded and without being informed that he was entitled to any delay between the verdict and the judgment.

9 If the witnesses testified to the same state of facts to which they testified before the Police Magistrate, the defendant could not have been convicted of any other crime than an attempt to commit burglary in the third degree. If they testified differently, the discrepancy ought to have been brought out on the trial. There was a defence to this action which ought to have been made. And I verily believe that if I had been present at the trial the defendant could not have been convicted of burglary in the third degree.

It clearly appeared by the cross-examination of the witnesses in the Police Court that the defendant was seized and arrested before he had made any entry whatever into the premises which he was accused of having broken and entered, and the defendant could have produced witnesses, as I am informed

Fol.10 and believe, by whom he could have proved that he was sent to the premises in question upon a lawful errand, and went for an honest purpose and with no felonious intent, and that the door of the said premises was not locked at the time when the defendant attempted to enter, as was claimed by the complainant.

I verily believe that the action of this Court, in forcing on the trial of this action, out of its order, in my absence and at a time when I had no reason to suppose it would be moved, injuriously affected and prejudiced the substantial 11 rights of the defendant. Abraham Hayden

The People } County General Sessions. Part I
Michael Ryan } Before Judge Gildersleeve Jointly indicted with John Bassett, Thomas Jones and William Bracken for robbery in the first degree. May 17th 1888.

Thomas Murphy, sworn and examined, testified. I live now at 194 West Tenth St. and am engineer at the Marlboro rooms since the 15th of February; on the 2nd of February I saw the defendant corner of Park Row and Chatham square about one o'clock in the morning; he met me at the corner of Bataria St.; he spoke to me as if I knew him. I have seen him about thirteen years off and on as a man around there in places down town.
He asked me to go and have a drink with him. I went with him corner of Mott St. and Chatham square. I don't know whose saloon it is. He treated me and of course I treated him in return. He says, "This is my man," and called his friends all up and I treated them. The defendant was toying with my chain. I got kind of nervous about it.
I was going to leave. He asked me what was my hurry? I told him I was going to leave, and I said I must be going, and I treated them again at least to the amount of $1.35. Then I started to leave, and the bar tender went to lock the front door

I started to go to the front door, and the bartender went ahead of me and locked it. I had to go out through the side storm door. These men went ahead of me and some behind and beat me insensible and robbed me of my watch and chain and large masonic pin - I had on my chain. These men belonged to the party I had treated and the defendant was behind me. One of the men struck me in the eye and the other struck me alongside the head and grabbed my chain and put their hands in my pocket and overhauled me in general and beat me. I was insensible. I did not get up till ten o'clock. I had twenty six dollars in money in my pantaloons pocket and some change. I had sixteen dollars in my job pocket; they did not get that; they never saw it or I suppose they would have taken it; the chain was gold plated and was worth about five dollars and the watch was worth fifteen dollars. I guess I lost twenty six dollars in money - two ten dollar bills, a five dollar bill and a one dollar bill. I last saw this money in bulk at the bar. I took it out when I went to pay for the drinks; the defendant was standing alongside of me and he saw the money and the other men, who were standing in front of me saw it too. I took the roll of bills out and took one from it and put the roll back in my pocket, and that is the money that was taken from me. Then I came to I found myself up stairs all covered over with sawdust and my shoulder was near broke and my eyes black. There is a lodging house up stairs over the liquor store, and there were lots of men lying around there. I don't know how long I was lying there insensible, but I got up at ten o'clock that <sup>next</sup> morning. I made complaint about the robbery two days afterward at Inspector Byrne's office. The night of the robbery I was chief engineer at 115 and 117 East 82nd St. I close my place up every night at eleven o'clock and let the men go home. I took the 89th St and Third Avenue Car and met a friend of mine, a policeman, and was talking to him. I left him at his relieving post and took the elevated car to ride down to the square where I got out and met this gentleman here (the defendant). I had taken three drinks that night. Cross Examined. I should judge it was about 20 minutes to one o'clock. I had no drinks up to that time I was in the ~~store~~ door of this saloon when I was struck. You had not got on the sidewalk? No sir. Were there a great many people in that store that night? About six or seven, I should judge, I cannot be positive. How many did you treat? I treated about six. Did you treat everybody there was in the house? No, I guess not - yes, all there was in the house except the bartender. What corner was this you went into? The northwest corner of Park Row and Mott st. You do not know who keeps that place? No sir. Had you ever been in there before? No sir. When you started to go out everybody that was in the place did they start to go out with you? There was a man in there - one man did not go out the time I did - those two went up ahead of me and the others came behind me. One man stayed up by the front door near the end of the bar. All the rest of the people went out. Did you invite them to go out? No sir, I guess not. Do you know who struck you? Yes sir. I was struck by three or four of them. Did the defendant strike you at any time? Yes sir, he struck me with something in the shoulder and back. I think he struck me on the back of the head with something soft. I don't know what it was. I knew nothing after that. I was struck on the shoulder as well, I was helpless. I fell down.

I did not know anything at all after that.

I did not know anything at all after that.

O. P. F. et al. vs. The People

I did not know anything at all after that. Did the stroke on the shoulder render you insensible? No sir, it did not. The stroke on my head did not cut it open. Where was the defendant when he struck you? Behind me at my right shoulder. How do you know he struck you? Because he was the only man there I was watching them all to get out the best way I could. There were two men behind me and one beside me; Hussett is his name. The attack was very sudden.

John McCarty sworn. I live at No 6 Chatham Square and am a laborer. I saw the defendant once in a while going up the Square. I saw the last witness Murphy, I remember seeing him on Feb. 2. 1888 early in the morning corner of Mott and Chatham sts.; the defendant was with him; they came into a Chatham Square liquor store, I was in there at the time. The defendant said to the complainant, "Here is a lot of friends of mine, we will call them up and have a drink." The complainant tried twice to go out of the front door, and the bartender told him it was time for closing up; he could not go out that way; he went out of the back room and a couple more went out, and about ten minutes after I saw him lying outside of the store.

door; there was nobody there at the time. I saw when the defendant left the saloon; he left the time the last witness left. I went into the store again and when I came out Murphy was gone. Cross Examined. I am a laborer and work all over. I worked last in Mott st cellar digging for Mr Lee, a contractor. I was in the hospital eleven days with ~~erysipelas~~ erysipelas. I am out only three weeks. Had two drinks with Murphy. I saw Ryan when he came in. I stood at the bar. I have spoken with Harsett about this case, he is one of the prisoners. I have known Harsett four or five years. I spoke to Officer O'Brien about the case once down here; he gave me a subpoena. He did not ask me what I knew about the case. John M Cauley sworn and examined. I am a detective sergeant of the Central office. I did not arrest the defendant. I made arrangements with officers of the Sixth precinct if he was seen to deliver him over to the Central office and he was delivered over to the Central office. I remember when Murphy made the complaint, I saw him on the morning of the 4th of February. His left eye was swollen black and blue and he said he had a very lame shoulder. At that time he had no watch or chain. I had a conversation with

This defendant about this matter at the Central office; he said he knew nothing about it at all, he never saw that man before; he denied having seen the man before.

The Case for the Defence.

Michael Ryan, sworn and examined in his own defence testified [The defendant is a dwarf] I was a seafaring man up to about two and a half or three years ago. The witness says he knows me for fifteen years, but I have only been in New York. I met him on the night of the second of February. I went into a liquor store with him on the corner. We met in the street and talked together and we went in to have a drink. I paid for the first round and he treated again. I says, What is the matter boys having a drink? So all hands came up to the bar and they had a drink. There was some dispute about the pay for the drinks. He paid for it, the bartender said it was closing up; he closed the front doors and all hands came out of the side door. I was there when they started out, I started to go out with them. I did not as the complainant swore hit him with anything soft. I did not have anything soft to strike him with. I did not strike him with my hand or fist or with anything. I did not take hold of his collar. Did you steal any of his money or watch and chain? No sir. Did you know anybody else was going to do it? No sir, I did not know none of them. Have you ever been convicted of any crime? No sir. I can prove that I am a hard working man. Cross Examined. I was sent to the workhouse twice - once for ten days and another time for three months; Justice Duffy sent me there for being drunk and disorderly. I saw Murphy pull out a roll of bills to pay for the drinks in the saloon; then after that he wanted to go out; we all went out together. I went out first before anybody else and then Murphy and the other pals came out. I did not see them after they went out on the street. I shook hands with Murphy. I walked across the street and got down New Bowery as far as Dover St. and walked home. I could not tell which way Murphy went; nothing happened there.

Officer McCauler recalled. Murphy went up to the defendant and picked him out as the man who had robbed him. The complainant described the man very accurately before he was arrested and upon that description I arrested the defendant.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of robbery in the first degree.
