The People
 vs Anne McDonald } Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Cowing Dec. 15. 1882 Indictment for grand larceny from the person in the night time. Louis Johnson sworn and examined. I am a Norwegian but I speak English. I am working on a dredging boat. I remember the 21st of Nov. I was in New York that night. I met the prisoner at the bar. I cannot tell you the name of the street, I am not much acquainted in New York. I live over in New Jersey and am very seldom over here. What property did you have in your possession at the time you met her? I had that silver watch and chain that was found on the prisoner. I gave twenty two dollars for the watch and $3.50 for the chain. I bought it in the Spring in a jewelry store Newark Ave. Jersey City.
 I am quite certain I had that watch and chain on my person when I met the prisoner that night. I carried it in my pantaloons pocket. I went in and treated her to beer. I cannot tell how long I stayed in the saloon, and soon after I came out of the saloon I missed it. I took hold of the prisoner and called for a policeman. There was other people in the saloon but not near me. The policeman took the prisoner and me to some station house in New York.

Cross Examined. Were you very drunk that night? No sir, not very drunk. I had a few glasses of beer; it did not make me stagger. I did not keep hold of the counter while I was drinking. How long before you saw the watch with the prisoner did you see it yourself in Jersey city? Between eleven and twelve o'clock I seen it. Did you have it out in the saloon? No, I had my hand on it in my pocket. I am perfectly sure of that. I had small change in my pocket. Did not you pull your hand to pay for any drinks? I believe I did, I am not quite sure of it. Do you know anything at all about what happened in that saloon that night? Nothing else than I was standing up at the bar drinking a glass of beer. After I missed my watch I saw it next morning in the Tombs. In whose hands was it then? The police officer; it was my watch that he showed me; there was a chain attached to it and it was my chain. Had you ever given it away to anybody? No sir. Did you part with the possession of it willingly or voluntarily? No sir. By Mr. Brady. Do you own any other watch than that one? Not in my possession. I had it at home another one.

0312

Peter Kelly sworn and examined testified You are an officer of the Sixth Precinct? Yes.
You made the arrest in this case? Yes sir.
Just tell this jury how that occurred? Just about five minutes after 12 I heard the complainant in this case hallooing "Police". I went up and he had hold of this woman, the prisoner. He accused her of taking his watch and chain in a liquor store. She said she did not have it, but I arrested her and on the way to the station house she took this watch and chain out of her pocket and gave it to me and told me to square the case that that was the watch and chain she took.
Did you show at any time after you got this watch to the complainant? He did not know I had it until I went into the station house. I left it on the desk and he identified it, she had it in her pocket, she gave it to me. Cross Examined. I did not square the case.
Annie McDonald sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. I live out. I was living at 106 Fourteenth St. with Mr. Hubert.
I was never arrested before in my life.
I met him on the street. I was coming home from the Sixth Avenue employers office; he asked me to go up to Atlantic Garden with him at night. I did go with him. I had that watch rolled up in my handkerchief in my sarge pocket; and when I went into the liquor store the watch was this way rolled up in my handkerchief and I pulled out the watch to see what time it was; it was twelve o'clock exactly at that time. When he seen me pulling out the watch he said, "Where did you get that watch?" and then when I went out in the street I had two glasses of ginger ale. I did not take any beer or brandy; he had two glasses of beer in a little room off the bar. I have two women on Sixth ave. if the Judge gives me time can prove I have had this watch for the last twelve months. It has belonged to a brother of mine that died in Philadelphia. I never put my hand in the complainant's pocket. I told Officer Kelly to keep the watch, that the man might kill me when I got on the street. I did not tell him to square the case for the watch. I can call the bar keeper that he never seen us quarrel about the watch in the liquor store. I have never been arrested in my life before this. I cannot tell the number of the watch; it has to be wound with a key. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
