That said Ernest Fink was then the Treasurer of said Society and by virtue of his said office had received from said Society and had then in his possession the said sum of money, and that said Fink was not then an apprentice nor within the age of eighteen years.

That deponent is President of said Society and knows that said Fink as Treasurer of said Society had then said money in his possession which was the property of said Society.

That said Fink withholds said money from said Society, and has fraudulently applied the same to his own use and profit; and that deponent, as President of said Society, did at a meeting of said Society on the 25th of January 1880, by directors of said Society demand said money from said Fink whereupon Mr. Fink refused to account for said money or turn over the same to the Society. That thereafter deponent demanded the return of said money or an accounting for the same and was told by said bank that he had no money of the Society.

That deponent charges and alleges that said bank has feloniously and fraudulently embezzled said money and applies the same to his, bank, own use and profit in violation of the Statute in such case made and provided.

Sunday Feb 15th 1888
Sir
Your Worship
I have worked for W. Bigg about six months and two weeks, I always acted honest to him. but lately he treated me very unsatisfactorily on one occasion about two months ago the horse kicked the front board out of the wagon W. Bigg said I should pay for it which I agreed to do. he did not let me take the wagon to the blacksmiths but sent one of his sons with it. the following Sunday he stopped two dollars for repairs out of my pay in a day or two after I called to the Blacksmiths and asked what he charged he said he only charged 30¢ for repairs so he wronged me a dollar and a half here, during the last month he owed me three dollars and fifty cents so when I left him he owed me five dollars altogether

Your Worship

I hope you will deal rightly with me as it is the first offence

I turned the money to good purpose I bought me a suit of clothe complete while I worked here complainant I had but small chance of getting any clothes so it made me low spirited and caused me to do what I done

I can assure your Worship that I intended to go back and work it out for him, but he is a very overbearing man and I was waiting till he would come

I have not one friend in this country I hope your Worship will deal with me right
