Honorable Judge Cowing,

Dear Sir,

The Colored woman Bettie Childs who was before you yesterday upon a charge of Grand Larceny, has lived with my mother in law, Mrs Wheeler for some time past, during most of that time I have seen her every day, she is a good servant, & I believe this to be her first offence, and 'if I may ask it, I think if sentence were suspended, it will not only be her first, but last offence of any kind, and give her an opportunity to do better'. Mrs Wheeler is willing to employ her again, and Mrs Miller the lady who caused her arrest, does not want to prosecute her, and is willing to forget & forgive. Hoping if you can, you will grant my request, as I can assure, I will do all I possibly know how to help the girl do right, I remain

Dear Sir

The Colord woman Bettie Childs who was before you today for grand Larceney and has pleaded guilty has lived with as Cook for the two last past years. And this I believe to be her first offence. I always found her perfectly truthful and honest I had every confidence in her honesty so much so that I gave her free access at all times to my room and wardrobe both day and night. and I have left money exposed for days to her. And she had every opportunity to take it

0056

from me if she had been a regular thief. She being a poor ignorant woman and formerly a slave I have interested myself in her behalf. Feeling that in a moment of temptation she yielded to yet I feel that she will profit by this punishment I also feel that confidence in her that I am willing to take her again in my employ. and all persons knowing her feel the same interest. Now I ask that you will be as lenient as you can and as her former good character deserves. If I may so ask it to suspend judgement

Yours Respectfully.

Dear Sir:

Betty Childs, the colored girl who plead to an indictment for Grand Larceny before you yesterday and was remanded for sentence until Friday was in my employ as a domestic servant for about two years and as I always found her honest and in all things trustworthy and reliable I am constrained to believe

That the offence to which she has pleaded is her first one, and that she has been led away from her usual and natural industry and ought to be afforded at least one opportunity to redeem herself before consignment to prison.

I am informed that you are clothed with power to suspend sentence in her case and I earnestly recommend her to your favorable consideration fully persuaded that a suspension of the sentence will be attended with a good and satisfactory result.

Yours Respy.

Dear Judge

Betty Childs charged with Grand Larceny and remanded for sentence acted for 2 years as a servant in the family in which I have been boarding and I had opportunity to learn her general character which was that of an upright hard working girl -

I fully believe that you will be justified

in exercising your discretion to suspend Sentence in her case and that as it is her first offence she should be permitted opportunity to redeem herself.

I am confident that such a course will be wise and respectfully recommend it.

Dear Sir,

I caused the arrest of Bethe Childs the Colored woman who was before you yesterday, upon a charge of Grand Larceny to which she pleaded guilty.
At the time of her arrest I did not want to prosecute her, nor do I now, and if I may so ask it, I think if you would suspend sentence, and give her a chance to do better, that you will have no occasion to regret it, as I forgive her for any wrong she has done to me; Hoping you will grant my
